Governor Stassen will lay before the people details of the plans that have been made for defense and outline ways in which citizens generally may aid. Programs of activity for the county defense councils as well as other groups are being formulated. The defense councils will be confined entirely to civilian activities and will have nothing to do with policing or law enforcement. Law enforcement generally will be in the hands of the usual local authorities. Investigation of aliens will continue to be handled by the FBI.

The governor arranged to turn his own reception room into an office for civilian defense. C. A. Zwiener, state adjutant of the American Legion, was made chief of staff of civilian defense, and he and Ernest Olrich, state defense co-ordinator, prepared to open quarters there at once. All matters connected with civilian defense, involving both men and women workers, will be centered in this office.

Huge Christmas Feasts Served in Old Castles

Christmas dinners served in medieval castles were in reality "feasts." The meal lasted usually from three in the afternoon until midnight.

One of the dishes always on the table was meat pie. In delving into history we find that Sir Henry Grey in England ordered one baked that was nine feet in circumference. It weighed 165 pounds and was served from a four-wheel cart built for the purpose.

Here's the recipe:

2 bushels flour	6 snipes
20 pounds butter	4 partridges
4 geese	2 neat's tongues
2 rabbits	2 curlews
4 wild ducks	6 pigeons and
2 woodcocks	7 blackbirds

Making a Doll Buggy

The amateur carpenter of the family can make a doll carriage easily and cheaply. A jumbo grape basket may be fastened on wooden axles for wooden wheels. Handles can be made from discarded yardsticks or window-shade sticks, with a piece of broomstick for a hand rest. Paint any desired color, and mother, aunt or sister will be glad to make a pad for the inside. It makes a dandy Christmas gift for any little girl.

PRAIRIE WOLF SHOT NEAR SLEEPY EYE

Sleepy Eye—A prairie wolf, uncommon in this part of the state, was shot last week by Henry Seifert of Stark township. Seifert was walking through a patch of tall grass when the animal jumped up some 25 feet ahead of him. He shot once and wounded the animal, but it wouldn't stop. He shot again and again, but still it wouldn't give up. Finally it ran into a slough where it put up a terrible struggle with Mr. Seifert's dog. By this time Henry arrived with a club, and laid the wolf low.

ROOSTER STEALS DIAMOND RECOVERED BY OWNER

Alden—Believe it or not, while Mrs. C. R. Raines was sorting chickens in her poultry house recently, a rooster snapped at her diamond ring and swallowed it. She frantically searched the whole flock and felt in each rooster's crop until she found the ring. With the help of LuVerne Clausen they opened the rooster's crop and removed it. They let the rooster loose and he scampered around as usual.

IRON RANGE SHIPS 62,493,000 TONS OF ORE THIS YEAR

Total Shipments Are Far in Excess of any Previous Year, Is Report

The busiest season in the history of Minnesota's great Iron Range drew to a close last week as the last ore boat of the year set out from Duluth with a new all-time high for shipments in the records.

Spurred on by the ever-increasing demands from producers of defense materials, Minnesota operators dug the vital ore to the tune of 62,493,025 tons in 1941 far eclipsing the previous record of 49,161,064, set in 1937, the Division of Lands and Minerals reported today.

The entire Lake Superior district, which includes mines in Michigan and Wisconsin also, shipped 78,831,787 tons. This, too, was a new record, some 12,000,000 tons higher than the 1916 mark of 66,500,000 tons.

Minnesota's production in 1940 was 48,470,931 tons.

The great part the Iron Range will play in the years ahead can best be brought home by the fact that approximately 65 per cent of all iron ore mined in the United States this year came from Minnesota.

State Inspectors Seize 5,600 lb. Illegal Oleo

More than 5,600 pounds of oleomargarine, prepared and labelled under terms of the new federal oleomargarine regulation issued by Paul V. McNutt, federal security administrator, have been seized by inspectors for the Minnesota Department of Agriculture, E. J. Thye, deputy commissioner of agriculture, announced this week.

Mr. Thye said that the oleomargarine packages did not conform to the Minnesota law and that the inspectors accordingly stopped their sale. The packages stated that the oleomargarine contained "artificial flavoring," whereas artificial flavoring is not permitted under the Minnesota law. Representatives of the company making the oleomargarine said that the packages would be modified to conform to the state law.

Observe Rules When Sending Greeting Cards

Definite rules govern the signing of Christmas cards, even though they are the expression of friendship and good wishes.

It is important that the cards reflect the degree of intimacy existing between the sender and the recipient. An air of formality in a card to a very good friend is as improper as an intimate greeting to a casual business acquaintance. Many persons prefer to select cards separately to find a personal subject and message for each friend. This is an ideal thing to do, but it requires considerable time.

Handwritten signatures are written different than names on formally engraved cards. When signing your name, it is best not to include titles—that is, do not put "Mr." or "Mrs." before your name. When names are engraved, however, they achieve a more formal tone and therefore require titles. The only exception to this is the single man whose name is never preceded by a "Mr." even though it is engraved on the card.

Married couples writing informal cards to friends are faced with several special problems. There is no definite rule which tells whose name stands first, but if the names are written by hand it is better for the one who signs them to write his or her own name last. When the name is printed on the card it is immaterial whether the husband's or the wife's name comes first.

A very nice signature for a family would be, "From the George Karps—all five." If there are only three in the family it would be equally suitable to write, "John, Mary and the Baby."

It is entirely proper to sign your name alone when sending cards to a business acquaintance whom your wife (or husband) does not know. In this case the card is addressed to the business acquaintance alone, even though he or she is married. Cards sent to a good friend, even though he is not known by your husband or wife, may be signed with both your names.

Whenever doubt arises concerning the manner in which a Christmas card should be addressed or signed, use your own sense of good taste. After all, the mere fact you are sending a card is an expression of friendship, and as a result almost any errors you may make will be completely overlooked.

RECREATION HIGHLIGHTS

Puppet Shows

At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon "Red Riding Hood's Christmas Story" and "The Night Before Christmas" will be staged in the arena puppet theatre. Both are in keeping with the holiday season and will be supported by the singing of Christmas Carols. All school children are invited along with parents and pre-school children to see these plays. The next show will be produced on Thursday, January 8th.

Puppetry

Puppet work is not limited to the shows. All those interested in making puppets and dolls are invited to come to the puppet room in the arena where a number of children are already working. Many of the participants are making these objects to be given as Christmas gifts.

Woodcraft

Many adults have been busy in the arena craft shop getting ready for the holiday's. Several spinning wheels have been repaired, Christmas decorations have undergone a revamping, and many other things have been done. Children are also working on craft articles to be given away as presents. All are invited to make use of the shop, where supervision is furnished along with a part of the material.

Winter Activities

Skating began in the sports arena yesterday. All are asked to take advantage of this winter facility. Work has also begun on the toboggan slide at Tindolph park and it will be ready soon. School rinks will be flooded as soon as weather permits. Basketball games are played every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings. No admission is charged for these games held in the City Auditorium.

Holiday Hours

The only activities that will be in operation on Christmas and New Year's Day will be tobogganing and skating in the arena. Puppetry, handicraft, woodcraft and basketball will not be available on these days. During vacation all parts of the program will operate as they do on Saturdays. Activities will be available all afternoon and evening.

Skating May Start This Evening on Arena Rink

Local skaters were disappointed Sunday when they learned that due to continued mild weather the ice sheet in the arena had not been completed as scheduled. Work on the rink has continued this week, and plans call for the beginning of skating this evening.

CAPTURES GRAY FOX AFTER GOOD CHASE

Alden—While Gordon Johnson and Chester Nelson's dog, Smoky, were crossing Chester Young's pasture, they sighted a gray fox. The dog gave chase and overpowering the animal held it until Gordon reached the spot, and struck it over the head with a club. The fox was anything but laid out however, and scurried up a tree. There was nothing left for Gordon and the dog to do but hit the tree and go after the prey. Gordon aimed another blow at the fox and both toppled to the ground, and when Gordon came to he found himself lying on top of the fox at the foot of the tree, and the kindly dog was licking his face. A good price was received for the fox pelt.

We are in favor of a peace of justice at the end of this war providing the justice is limited to the leaders of the aggressor nations. They, by all means, should be brought to justice. To the people of these nations we would say it should be a peace of mercy.

It was only a few years back, as we recall it, that we ran a picture of a group of fellows wearing straw hats on Christmas day in Thief River Falls. We have no objections to that kind of weather being with us thruout the holidays this year.

A round of cheers to the marines who are enjoying their defense of Wake Island. We liked their answer to the message asking them what they wanted. The reply, "send us some more Japs," indicated how they felt about the whole thing.

Reports on the progress of the battle of the Pacific are discouraging but Americans are not discouraged. Bad news isn't so bad when you expect it. The Japs are going to hear a lot of it later on—unexpectedly.

If it is true that Hitler has retired to the peace and quiet of his mountain home for a few weeks of rest, then it is our guess that Hitler is through as the leader of the Nazis and that from now on he will take orders instead of give them. Any leader who suffers a nervous breakdown in a crisis ceases to be a leader. The Napoleons of history were made of sterner stuff than that. Under the circumstances it would not surprise us if those who arranged for his retirement would not also see to it that he be given an early funeral.

Even if the stories coming out of Russia are only half true the Germans must still be taking a terrific licking all the way from Leningrad to the Black Sea. Berlin admissions indicate that the stories are not entirely without foundation and so it is fair to assume that the Axis' striking power in Europe has been temporarily checked. Under the circumstances it is not unlikely that something spectacular will be attempted in the near future to crowd the Russian disaster off the front page. It may be a thrust through Turkey or a drive for Gibralter, or both. Whatever it is, it will come just as quickly as the Russian front can be stabilized, and that probably will be soon.

How long will the war last? Maybe a long time and maybe it will end in a hurry. Certainly we cannot hope to defeat the Axis powers in a hurry. The only hope for an early victory rests on the possibility of a collapse of those countries. The people of those countries are human beings too, and there is a limit to their endurance. That's why propaganda is so important. We don't need it to keep ourselves pepped up but we do need it to discourage the enemy. The right kind of propaganda, spread in a heavy layer over Germany, Italy and Japan, might shorten the war and save many lives.

The fact that the French government protested to Germany because of the last reprisal killings is significant. A few months ago the French leaders meekly submitted to all German demands and commands and humbly offered their cooperation in maintaining the Nazi new order. France still has an army and France still has a navy. Our country entering the war would bring encouragement to those Frenchmen who still hope to see France restored as an independent nation. It is not likely that French soldiers and sailors would fight with spirit for Germany and against America but they would fight with spirit against Germany and for America. The firmer stand now taken by the French government may indicate that France is ready to rise again in one desperate effort to break the shackles of slavery. Their support would be valuable.

Being unable to buy new tires is a strange experience to many Americans but before the war is over we probably will have become accustomed to the idea of getting more service out of equipment that in the past we have too often junked before it has been worn out. Maybe this experience will have some wholesome effects upon us. Certainly wastefulness is never a virtue and Americans have been wasteful.

Topics of the Times

By M. A. H.

Speaking of blitzkriegs, consider the postoffice crew during the current holiday mailing rush.

With this country at war with Japan, a lot of West Coast citizens may be expected to find the climate in the central states more salubrious.

If the temporary ban placed last week on the sale of new tires should be made permanent, rubber bootlegging might be a possible development.

The Haulette Region thinks it proper that Montana's Congressman Rankin should have her name accented on the first syllable.

The "America First" organization now joins the ranks of those who are for America first.

The days start getting longer next Monday, but they will seem plenty short for those who haven't finished their Christmas shopping.

History will soon repeat itself. Remember those Liberty Bond campaigns with their Minute Men speakers during the last World War?

It's worth a trip downtown at night to see the gay holiday lighting effects.

With the government planning to draft men of all ages, it appears that there will be no grandstand seats in the present war.

BUD TAKES UNEXPECTED SUDDEN COLD BATH

Alexandria—Bud Larson, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Larson, was precipitated into the icy waters of Winona Lake on his way home from school, taking a short cut across the bass pond on the ice he found himself in the icy water in the middle of the pond. The fire department was called to make the rescue as Bud could not get on to the ice from his point of travel. A rope thrown to him rescued him from his perilous position. Aside from a good scare the young man was no worse for his fall into the icy waters.

PURE WHITE COLT COMES TO FERGUS FALLS FARM

Fergus Falls—Some time ago Ripley in his "Believe It or Not" column said that there was not such thing as a white colt, but if he will come to Fergus Falls now he will find a pure white colt. The colt was born to Lady Luck, W. E. Atkinson's albino mare. The father of the colt is Prince, the beautiful albino stallion, who with Lady Luck has led several parades in Fergus Falls. White colts are a rarity and local veterinarians state they have never seen one.

Looking Backward

1931—TEN YEARS AGO

The disbanded Girls Community club presented the library board with a check for $144.49, the balance in the club treasury.—Local ice companies expected to employ about fifty men in the annual ice harvest, scheduled to start before the end of the year.—A total of 108 carloads of dressed turkeys were shipped out from the city in November and December.—For the second time in two years, burglars attempted unsuccessfully to break open the three safes in the Lincoln high school building.

1921—TWENTY YEARS AGO

A halt was called to drives for foreign relief when local citizens refused a request to conduct a campaign for the aid of distressed Russians.—J. E. Nelson was installed as president of the local unit of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.—A railroad was being promoted to proceed east from the Great Northern at Roseau thru Grygla and Goodridge, and across the reservation to Nebish.—L. A. Westphal of St. Hilaire won the state championship with his exhibit of sweet corn at the Minnesota Crop show in Minneapolis.

Christmas Anyway

With the approach of another Christmas, Britons recall last year's celebrations when they observed the holiday underground where they could be safe from Nazi bombers. Mothers and their children gathered in shelters like the one above to celebrate the Christmas season. Last year hostilities were ceased for three days during the Christmas observance.

Men in More Accidents

Nine out of every 10 drivers involved in automobile accidents in 1940 were of the male sex.

OLD COUNTRY FRIENDS MEET AFTER 33 YEARS

Ellsworth—When Menno Dammer and George Degler of Parkersbury, Iowa, met in Adrian a few days ago, it was the first time the two old school-mates had met in 33 years. Menno came to this country from Finstewolde, Holland, 33 years ago, and Degler immigrated to the United States six years later; but the two had never met in the 27 years Mr. Degler had been in this country. Needless to say, both the local man and the Iowan enjoyed meeting the friend of their youth.

BRONKO NAGURSKI DEFEATS RAINES IN MAT CARD HERE

Large Number of Fans Turn out for Wrestling Program Thursday

A large number of northwest wrestling fans were in attendance at the Auditorium Thursday night and saw Bronko Nagurski deliver a series of bone-crushing shoulder blocks to subdue Dick Raines and win the main event on promoter Bill LaFave's holiday wrestling card.

Andy Moen, after being outwrestled and out-mauled by chunky Abe Coleman, secured a reverse leg-lock on the squat Jewish grappler and won the semi-final match in 11:15.

In the most interesting and exciting match on the program, Mary Hoesly was given the decision by referee Jack Sampson after 24 minutes of rough-house wrestling when Hoesly's enraged opponent, Lord Albert Mills, refused to break a hold, and was disqualified.

In a special match, Ernie Palmer disposed of Kermit Brenna, after a body slam, in 4:30. It was evident that Palmer was too well-versed in the technique of wrestling for his younger opponent, for Brenna was on the defensive throughout the match.

Orrin Pederson applied a hammer-lock on Plummer's Paul Hosten after 13 minutes of wrestling in the preliminary, to force Hosten to yield the fall.

In the opening bout on the program, Harry Paul Long and Bennie Miromontes wrestled to a 10 minute draw.

Jack Sampson and Harry Johnson refereed the matches; with Bill Dahlquist handling the announcements; and Ole Engelstad and Bill LaFave as the time-keepers.

Recreation Activities Have Big Participation, Ferd Elstad Announces

During the past three months, representing the fall season, 16,220 adults and children took part in activities of the local recreation program, which is sponsored by the city council in cooperation with Work Projects Administration recreation leaders, Ferd Elstad, director, stated today. Of this total 7,287 were boys, 5,956 girls, 1,570 men, and 1,417 women. A total of 6,382 spectators was registered during the same period. Activities available during the fall season were roller skating, woodcraft, candicraft, basketball, game room, social recreation, girl's club, puppetry and shows, playground, and the Hallowe'en parties.

Lions Club Asks Favor for Men on Furlough

At the Lions club meeting Wednesday noon in the Palm Garden Cafe, Bill LaFave and B. I. Froiland were named on a committee to ask the cooperation of local places of public amusement in giving free admission during the holidays to service men home on furlough, when in uniform. W. G. Claffy also suggested that the club purchase defense bonds as frequently as the state of the club's finances permitted. A vote of thanks was given to Carl Kretzschmar for the turkey dinner served with his compliments.

Prowlers Lose Friday to Bemidji, 44 to 23

The Bemidji Lumberjacks proved to be the better "finishers" Friday night, and so after trailing the Prowlers, 18 to 17, in the first half, and being out-played by a considerable margin, the Lumberjacks rolled up 27 points in the third and fourth periods to chalk up a 44 to 23 win over the locals. The Prowlers meet another strong out-of-the-district team Friday night when they journey to Detroit Lakes for a game.

For two periods Friday night the Prowlers out-sped and out-fought the more experienced Bemidji five and, but for the Lumberjacks adept work at the free throw line (they counted seven points on free throws), the Prowlers would have held a strong lead at the half.

The Prowlers, driving toward the east basket, racked up the game's first points when Lenny Lorentson looped a left-hander into the net. Harlan Grover tallied a Bemidji point via the free throw route; and Grover sent the Lumberjacks into the lead with a field goal. Lorentson, taking a tip from Melby, scored on a pivot shot. Bemidji's Glenn Back drove in for close push-up shot. Johnny Campbell popped in a one-handed shot, to send the Prowlers again into the lead. Bob Powell picked up a rebound, and scored on a pivot shot; and Powell counted again on a one-handed shot, scoring on an angle shot from the right of the basket. Jack Vinje dipped in a free throw; and as the first period ended, Vinje lifted a field goal into the basket, a one-handed try from the free throw circle.

The Prowlers, with Johnny Campbell and lanky Jack Melby setting up the plays, continued to play bang-up ball during the second period. Campbell, hooking a pass from Lorentson, pivoted in for set-up shot; and Jack Melby, in a scramble under the basket, tipped in another Prowler goal. Tommy Corrigan scored on an under-the basket shot. Corrigan rang up a free throw. Vinji came in close for a Bemidji field goal. Grover dropped in two free throws. Campbell, on a fast break from center court, dribbled in for a basket. A double foul was called when Gjernes and Corrigan met in a head-on collision. "Guernsey" missed his shot, while Corrigan counted a point. On a center jump play, following the double foul, Campbell took Melby's tip and dribbled in for a field goal. Back scored on a gift toss. The Prowlers holding an 18 to 17 lead at the intermission.

Bemidji took over the ball game during the second half, and taking advantage of Prowler misplays, intercepting passes and breaking into the Prowler basket for 12 field goals, while holding the locals to five points. Over seven minutes in the third period had elapsed before Milt Helgeson counted a free throw to give the Prowlers their first point in the second half. Bemidji meanwhile had rolled up 13 points. Bemidji's veteran guard, Jack Vinje, directed the Lumberjacks second half rally, and with the Prowlers' Campbell and Melby, proved to be the star of the contest.

Paul Erickson and Lowell Anderson were the "hot shots" in the Newfolden Noodles 42 to 19 win over the Prowler reserves in the preliminary game. Billy Dye, with a 10 point total, played the most effective game for the "B" team.

Marine Corps, and left that evening for San Diego, California, where they will be stationed for the time being. Worry, Worry, Worry

About whether the Prowlers were playing over their heads during the first half of Friday night's game with Bemidji; or whether they were playing in their normal stride in the second half, when the Prowlers scored 5 points while Bemidji was gathering 27. Can't understand the change in the Prowlers' play during Friday's game, but I have an idea that their lack of experience was one of the factors contributing to the locals miserable second half. The Prowlers are a young, green team, just in the process of development, and when, at the half, they learned that they were leading the regional champs, and had out-played the Bemidji team by a considerable margin, my theory is that the Prowlers began to tighten up in their play, with the result that their passes became wild, their reflexes jerked out of time, etc.

Glenn Barum may have given the Bemidji boys some instructions during the half, to cope with the Prowlers style of play, but aside from sending Jack Vinje up to a forward position (and Vinje intercepted a number of passes while in the front line, and set up several easy baskets), Bemidji used the same system of play during the second half.

The Prowlers are improving, but they haven't improved enough to beat a fair Detroit Lakes team, on the Lakers floor, tomorrow night. Johnny Campbell has been sick with a touch of the flu, or a bad cold, and has missed the week's practice. Even if "Soup" has recovered sufficiently to make the trip tomorrow, it is doubtful if he will see much action. Johnny's absence from the Prowler line-up will make quite a difference, for he is the potent scorer that the locals have. Campbell, by the way, received quite a compliment from the Bemidji mentor when Barum said that Johnny was one of the most nifty players on the floor Friday, and Barnum was excepting his own Jack Vinje.

League Bowling in Recess

League, bowling, on the Mint and DuChamp alleys, will be in a recess during the holidays. The alleys, though, will be available for open bowling, and that means that Walt Larson's Elks team will be able to get in some practice sessions. The Elks need it if Walt is to win the wager he has made with Joe Zavoral of the "Catholic" Men. Walt has bet that the Elks will take the Catholic men two games out of three when they meet in their next series (the Catholic Men top the standings in the Service league, with the Elks in second place) and if that event occurs, Joe Zavoral is to grow a mustache; while if the Catholic Men take the series, Walt is to shave off his Clark Gable mustache. It's going to be a cold winter for Walt.

They're Not so Hot

Selective service requirements will perhaps put a crimp in the city basketball league play this winter, and it's doubtful that a six team schedule can be arranged. Several of the teams, though, are ready to go.

The Soo Line team, last year's champs, have entered the lists again this season, but judging by their play to date, with a patch-work line-up, they won't get any place. Deane Schoenauer and Jess DuChamp are the only veterans available, and Jess may be in the army by the time the play-offs are contested. Manager Don Olson is [illegible] is in the army; Arnie Karlstad is employed near Minneapolis; and Lenny Helquist has become a socialite. The Soo Cafe's are slated for a third or fourth place, that is, if they don't secure some capable replacements.

No Wonder

Roy Lee's team made a shambles of intramural basketball at the "U". And no wonder, for Roy had Bones Stadum and Don Lorentson as team-mates. They got into the habit of winning basketball games in 1938 when they were members of the Prowlers state basketball champs. But the other intramural team caught up with Roy and forced them into a disqualification, because Don Lorentson had been a basketball letterman at St. Olaf. And that makes Don ineligible for intramural athletics at the "U". Roy, says that they had a lot of fun anyway.

Hornet Hockey

Coach Walt DePaul will have 10 veterans on hand when he calls the Hornets on the ice for the opening practice. Johnny Roberge, goalie; Marlyn Dorn, Bob Baker, and George Effinger, defense; Mouse Efteland, Don Waage, Bob Protz, and Johnny Efteland, wings; and Lloyd Johnson and Doug Snelling, centers, are the boys that were in Hornet uniforms last year. Coach DePaul's chief bugaboo is the fact that several of the Hornets are play-boys - and men-about-town, and as a result they will run into difficulties with their studies. The second semester may find some of the boys ineligible, and sitting on the side-lines.

Schmidts Bowlers Whip Baudette Team Sunday

The Schmidt's City Club team rolled up a 160 pin advantage over the Lake of the Woods Transfer team of Baudette in a total pins match bowled on the Mint alleys Sunday. Les Boyd's 534 total paced the Schmidt's team; while Fritz Fitzsinger's 540 total was high for the series and the Baudette five.

MANY GIVEN JOBS LOCALLY THRU U. S. DEFENSE ACTIVITY

Employment Office Branch Here Shows Sharp Rise in Placements

Reflecting the general increase in employment as a result of national defense activity in the last completed six months before the outbreak of war with Japan, the Thief River Falls office of the employment-security division placed more than twice as many persons in employment during that period as in the corresponding six months of 1940, it was reported today by Victor Christgau, director, in his monthly summary of the division's operations.

In the last six months the Thief River Falls employment office assisted a total of 1,097 persons to find jobs, compared to 448 in the six months ending November 30, 1940. This is an increase of 145 per cent.

Last month the division placed 157 persons in jobs, or almost four times as many as in November of last year, when 42 placements were completed. New employment in the area practically held its own in November as compared with October, when 158 persons were placed in employment.

New registrations for employment in November more than doubled the figure for a year ago, when 51 persons applied for work, compared to 124 last month and 125 in October of this year. In the last six months there were 1,103 registrations—more than twice as many as in the corresponding six months of 1940, when 516 persons applied for work.

In response to a seasonal trend, new claims for job insurance benefits rose from 30 in October of this year to 66 in November. The November figure, however, is less than half that for November 1940, when 171 claims were filed. This year there were only 189 claims filed in the six months ending November 30, compared to 440 in the similar period of last year.

The Thief River Falls office, managed by C. H. Sjolander, kept in close touch with the needs of employers in the five counties served by the office. This is indicated by the fact that representatives of the office made 247 field visits in the last six months.

Uncle Sam Calls for Trainees to Apply for Merchant Marine Duty

Faced with a need for trained men to sail the ships of the American merchant marine, the United States government, through the Minnesota employment-security division, this week began the task of enrolling hundreds of young residents of the state to receive free training in this work at government expense.

Preliminary applications are now being taken by the division's 37 local offices. The most urgent need is for apprentice seamen and radio operators. The merchant marine also will enroll young men for training in engineering and radio operation. A total of 40,000 additional men will be needed, the announcement said.

Young men between the ages of 18 and 23 can obtain full information at the Thief River Falls employment office.

So many want to use it at Christmas—A great many Long Distance calls will be delayed

There's a long distance telephone bridge from every community to the rest of America. It was planned and built to carry somewhat more than the traffic of a busy business day. It wouldn't be practicable to build it several times larger just for one day in the year.

On Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, there will be 12 times as many calls to many points as on an average business day.

Every available long distance line will be in service and extra operators on duty. In spite of this, many calls will be delayed and some may not get through at all.

Long distance calls made early Christmas week or just after the holiday are likely to go through more promptly.

DRIVERS LICENSE FORFEITURES AT 8-YEAR HIGH MARK

Total of 749 Drivers Lose Permits During Month of November

Seven hundred and forty-nine motorists, the second largest number in any one month since the establishment of the Minnesota drivers license act in 1934—suffered either revocation or suspension of their driving permits during November for infractions of the traffic laws.

As part of the state highway department's effort to reduce traffic deaths and injuries, four hundred and forty-eight licenses were revoked outright, and 301 others were suspended for varying periods of time ranging from 30 days up to one year. The only previous month which exceeded the November total was the preceding September when revocations and suspensions totalled 807. Of the outright revocations, 390 motorists forfeited their driving permits as the penalty for driving while intoxicated. Twenty-three more were prohibited from driving a motor vehicle because of habitual inebriacy, and 11 for failing to stop and disclose identity after an accident.

Speeding, as usual, was the largest single cause of drivers license suspensions. One hundred and fifty-five motorists lost their right to drive as a result of two or more convictions of excessive speed. The licenses of 14 speeders were revoked for one year and 141 others were suspended. Reckless driving took the next largest toll with five outright revocations and 68 suspensions.

Telephone Co. Preparing to Handle Record Volume of Long Distance Calls

The Northwestern Bell Telephone company is making extensive preparations to meet what is expected to be the greatest load of Christmas long distance calling ever experienced, A. J. Rau, local manager, announced today.

This year there are nearly two million men in the armed forces, and vast numbers of people are away from home on defense activities. Also, many more people are employed. Thus there doubtless will be a great many more folks who will make long distance calls.

Judging from previous years, it is expected that there will be at least 12 times as many calls to many points on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day as there are on an average business day. Traffic will be especially heavy over distance of 800 miles or more.

The telephone company is taking all practicable steps to increase switchboard and long distance facilities and a capacity force of operators will be on duty. In spite of everything that can be done, however, it appears certain that there will be delays on a great many calls and some won't get through at all.

Persons who make their calls early Christmas week are less likely to meet with delays. Calling by telephone number and keeping conversations brief will help make it possible for more people to get their calls through.

2,800,000 Christmas Trees Are Cut in State

The big job of cutting Christmas trees is just about finished in Minnesota's north woods for this year. Approximately 2,800,000 trees, slightly more than in 1940, were cut this year. Of that number, nearly 2,000,000 were sent out of Minnesota, to every state in the union as well as several foreign countries. The division of forestry of the conservation department reported approximately 500,000 trees were cut this year on state lands. This is slightly more than a year ago.

STATE DRAFT HEAD GIVES SUGGESTION TO REGISTRANTS

Asks Them Not to Call on Local Board for Word as to Status

Registrants seeking general information as to their selective service status were asked today not to go to their local board offices or state headquarters. The statement was issued by Lt. Col. J. E. Nelson, state director of selective service.

The only exceptions are volunteers. If a registrant wishes to volunteer for immediate induction, he is to go in person to his local board. He will be given immediate transportation to the induction station, where he will be examined and processed for induction.

Registrants other than volunteers will only be causing confusion by calling in person at their local boards. The local boards do not have the time to handle such inquiries, and in addition, it was pointed out, they cannot answer some questions. Information as to calls, quotas and the number of men to be inducted is expected to be censored by the War Department.

An answer to one of the most often repeated questions was also issued by state headquarters. It was announced that there is no choice as to branch of service or the place of service, with the exception of the air corps. A man may enlist in the army air corps. Aside from that, a man enlists in the United States army unassigned. It was pointed out, however, that if a man has a preference, he can express it. As far as is possible, an attempt will be made to see that he is given it, insofar as the man possesses the qualifications and vacancies exist in the particular branch.

Business Increases in Dollar Volume 41 Pct. in City Over Nov. 1940

Dollar volume of business in Thief River Falls during November as indicated by reports of bank debits sent to the Minneapolis Federal Reserve Band stands 41 per cent above corresponding dollar figures for the same month a year ago.

Large farm production and rising farm prices together with the increasing national industrial effort and expanding employment are all factors in the accelerated spending.

Depositors at local banks, during the first eleven months of this year cashed checks with a total dollar volume which is 22 per cent above that attained during the similar eleventh-month period in 1940.

Average gains shown in check cashing throughout the state put November of this year 23 per cent above November 1940 and January-through-November totals 13 per cent ahead of the like period a year ago.

Since bank debits are for the most part, checks drawn by depositors against their bank accounts and are given in payment for goods, services, debts, etc., the volume of bank debits for a locality is considered a good indicator of general business activity.

RED RIVER VALLEY PHYSICIANS HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

Twin Valley Doctor Elected President at Session in Crookston

Red River Valley physicians who had expected to hear a discussion of the role which medicine must play in the national defense picture, gave their attention instead to a technical topic when they held their annual meeting in Crookston Thursday night.

Lt. Col. R. B. Hullsiek, of the state selective service board, who had been expected as one of the principal speakers, was unable to attend because of the press of other duties arising as the result of the declarations of war.

Forty physicians and their wives were seated for the banquet in the Red and Gold room of the Hotel Crookston preceding the separate meetings of the two groups. The medical auxiliary was entertained at the home of Mrs. C. G. Uhley during the evening while physicians heard the medical program. Dr. H. Z. Griffin, of Rochester, addressed the physicans, on the subject on anemia and conducted a question and answer forum of the various types of this ailment.

The annual business meeting of the Red River Valley medical society was held at the conclusion of the program. Dr. D. V. Boardman of Twin Valley was elected president with Dr. A. S. Berlin of Hallock, vice president, and Dr. C. L. Oppegaard of Crookston re-named secretary-treasurer.

As delegates to the state medical convention the physicians elected Dr. J. F. Norman of this city and Dr. H. M. Blegen of Warren.

Present at the session from Thief River Falls were Dr. O. F. Melby, Dr. H. K. Helseth, Dr. C. W. Jacobson and Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Adkins.

Public Asked to Use Yule Seals on Holiday Mail

"Use tuberculosis Christmas seals on all your letters, cards and packages." This appeal comes from the local seal sale committee. Miss Margaret Hessburg, local chairman, reports that citizens of this community are responding wholeheartedly to the traditional Christmas seal campaign, and now the important thing is to "show the world" this by sending out mail decorated with the double-barred cross seals.

Population Increase

The newest and latest figures from the census bureau show the actual increase in the United States to be two persons each minute, throughout the year.

Popular Gentleman Confers with Young Friend

On the occasion of the coming of Santa Claus last Saturday afternoon for a pre-holiday visit with his little friends in the Thief River Falls community, the Times camera man snapped this picture of Saint Nick in conference with little Wallace Dean Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thompson, while a group of spellbound children look on.

Kitty's Komments

Snow had fallen during the night—it lay like a fluffy white blanket, soft and pure, unmarked by the print of thoroughfare except where the elongated prints in the orchard gave away a rabbit rendezvous.

On every garden post a snowy cap rested; and the arch over the garden gate was like a work of art in white marble.

Every tree was robed in glistening raiment, every branch was crowned with sparkling jewels.

When the sun rose higher, a breeze sent glittering flakes flying through the air, making myriads of rainbows against the sun.

Inside the warm glow of hospitality prevails—the scent of pine from the Christmas tree in the living room—the sparkle of red cellophane wreaths in the windows.

Everyone so secretive—Grandma, dimmed old eyes shining with a new sparkle is busy in the kitchen baking "flat brod"; Young son, so brim full of secrets, they're popping out every once in a while, and how he'd like to look at those gifts under the tree, pinch them—shake them a little and wonder.

Baby, who is seeing her first Christmas coos and laughs at the bright ornaments on the tree. Her eyes too, are reflecting the sparkle and joy of Christmas.

Mother, up stairs trying to get some last minute wrapping done, sings "Silent Night" in tones sweet and low.

Dad in the kitchen—a nice place to be at this time of year—is having coffee and cookies after his outdoor chores.

It's all so wonderful—the joy that can enfold a home at Christmas. Every candle on the Christmas tree reflects the gleam of the Star of Bethlehem.

It is over all, the expectant thrill, waiting for Christmas Eve.

Nation's Railroads Ask for Increased Rates on Freight and Passengers

The nation's railroad petitioned the interstate commerce commission Saturday for increased freight and passenger rates which would product aproximately $356,525,000 in additional revenue annually.

The increases were asked to enable the carriers to meet higher operating costs resulting from the recent wage increases granted their employes.

The proposed increases included:

1.—Increase of 10 per cent in all passenger fares except the 1 1-4 cents per mile special rate allowed members of military or naval forces travelling on furlough.

2.—Increase of 10 per cent in all freight rates except those on anthracite and bituminous coal, coke and iron ore.

DEFENSE PLANS FOR MINNESOTA ARE DISCLOSED

Governor Stassen Announces Plans in Address Made Late Last Week

URGES CITIZENS TO AID IN HOME DEFENSE

Local Officials Asked to Organize Volunteer Forces Needed

Making his first general report of the far-reaching plans that have been made for defense in Minnesota, Governor Harold E. Stassen this past week asked for volunteers for civilian and military defense posts and urged citizens generally to do their utmost to back up the nation's armed forces.

First orders carrying out the defense plans already have been forwarded local officials and chairmen of defense councils throughout the state, Governor Stassen indicated, and these officials are busy setting up the vast machinery that will protect Minnesota from air raids or other war perils should occasion require it. Among the steps local communities are being asked to take are:

Every municipality of more than 5,000 population is directed to recruit and train at once an emergency volunteer fireman force and an emergency volunteer police force, consisting of at least one man for each 1,000 population for each service. This work will be done by the fire chiefs and the police chiefs.

Every municipality in Minnesota will organize a volunteer air raid warden force, with at least one man for each square block. This task has been placed in the hands of the chairman of the municipal defense council in the larger cities, those 10,000 or more in population, but for other communities the work will be carried through by the chairman of the county defense council.

Governor Stassen urged citizens to volunteer for these tasks or the home defense force, which is to be increased from 4,000 to 6,000 men. He said the state would call soon for volunteers for other specific tasks. An order is to be issued soon for development of a civilian volunteer first aid nurse and medical corps for each locality.

"Everyone must back up the men in our armed forces to the fullest extent," Governor Stassen said. "This means doing day-to-day tasks in a manner which will best add to the total strength of America.

"It means speeding up the production of everything needed by the fighting men. It means the tools of production must not be laid down. It means willingly paying the heavier taxes that must come . . . It means sacrifices in the days ahead. It means buying defense stamps and bonds. It means producing the food supply for our nation and our allies. It means demonstrating day in and day out that a free people love their liberty and cherish it for their children."

Two divisions have been set up by the state to handle defense matters, Stassen said. The military division, under Adjutant General Ellard A. Walsh, will have charge of the home defense force, organize a civilian air patrol for observation purposes and direct an aircraft warning and spotter service. This division also will have charge of all blackouts.

A civilian defense council has been organized with Ernest Olrich as co-ordinator and C. A. Zweiner as chief of staff. This division will direct civilian activities, including volunteer fire forces, volunteer police forces and air raid wardens.

DRAFT LAW IS BROADENED BY CONGRESS ACT

Men of Ages 20 to 44 Will be Subject to Military Duty Shortly

ALL MEN 18 TO 64 WILL BE REGISTERED

Compromise Is Reached on New Legislation Last Friday

Congress cleared the way Friday for a 4,000,000-man army by approving and sending to President Roosevelt legislation requiring the registration of all men from 18 to 64 years old, inclusive, and making those from 20 to 44, inclusive, subject to military service. The president signed the bill Monday.

Officials at selective service headquarters in Washington, said the registration probably would not begin before "several weeks." Although the new draft bill makes possible an army of at least 4,000,000, there is no way of telling whether that many men will ever be called to the colors.

Secretary of War Stimson has said increases in the army would be ordered "in the light of the strategic situation as it develops."

Both houses agreed speedily on compromise amendments to the selective service act which war department officials said would make a total of 2,215,000 men available in the next few months, in addition to the 1,800,000 now in uniform.

This included, experts said, 915,000 men from 21 through 35 already registered and listed as immediately available in class 1-A. They estimated the new bill would provide an additional 600,000 class 1-A registrants from among 20 years year olds; 400,000 in the ages from 36 through 44; and 300,000 who have reached the age of 21 since the last registration was held.

By compromising on a minimum age of 20 for active service—a year younger than the house desired and a year older than the senate had voted—congress cut off an additional supply of 600,000 potential soldiers.

But with 100,000 youths turning 20 every month, congressional leaders said there was every reason to believe that the army would get all of the men it could equip and train as fast as it could handle them. Under recently-approved legislation the navy could obtain up to 60,000 of the selectees and the marines 10,000.

Registration of 23,500,000 men would be undertaken under terms of the bill calling for the listing of all males from 18 through 64. Added to the 17,500,000 already registered this would give selective service officials records on 41,000,000.

Brigadier General Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director, informed congress that his staff was making preparations to begin registrations within the new age limits. Registrations will be taken in age classifications at the discretion of President Roosevelt, with those subjective to active service expected to be listed first.

Hershey said that men in the latter groups would be added to the list of those already classified under the 21 through 35 age limits and thus become subject to the draft along with them.

'42 Automobile License Plates May be Put on Now

Red and cream-colored 1942 license plates began blossoming out on automobiles in this city Monday. Under a recent interpretation by Attorney General J. A. A. Burnquist of the new state law, 1942 plates may be attached to cars ten days before January 1, instead of not before midnight of December 31, as originally construed.

Legion Meeting Friday, December 26, Canceled

PRESIDENT SAYS GOAL IS HITLERISM DEFEAT

Russia, China and Other Axis Foes Will be Included in Parleys

Prime Minister Winston Churchill, after a secret and history-making journey, arrived in Washington Monday, and Monday night was closeted with President Roosevelt in the White House discussing unified war plans to encompass "the defeat of Hitlerism throughout the world."

The daring trip by Britain's rotund little fighting premier was announced by the White House, which said that Lord Beaverbrook, minister of supply, and a technical staff accompanied him.

Just how he made the journey was a military secret, although it was revealed that the last leg, at least, was by air. He was met "at a nearby airport" by President Roosevelt, and in full wartime secrecy was conducted to the White House by the chief executive himself, there to be the guest of Mr. Roosevelt.

There was widespread speculation that the conferences would cover such questions as:

Establishment of a supreme command for the fighting forces of all of Hitler's opponents.

Establishment of a joint ministry of supply for all the armies.

In a statement, President Roosevelt said there was one primary objective, the defeat of Hitlerism throughout the world, in conversations to be held during the next few days between president and prime minister and the respective staffs of the two countries.

The statement said these conferences should be regarded as preliminary to further parleys which will officially include Russia, China, the Netherlands and the British dominions.

Mild Weather Ushers in Christmas Season

Despite the impact of the war and the late fall-like temperatures that have prevailed during the past ten days, the imminence of the holiday season, which reaches its climax Thursday, Christmas Day, has been reflected in many ways in this community.

Special Christmas Eve and Christmas Eve and Christmas Day services have been arranged in all local churches, and the first Sunday school programs were held Sunday, with others to continue thru the week until next Monday evening.

Taking advantage of the mild weather, hurrying crowds of holiday shoppers from far and near have thronged the stores of the city to purchase remembrances and to stock the larder for festive holiday meals.

A large number of local business places have conducted Christmas parties for their employes during the past week.

Many Christmas baskets of food were prepared by local organization for delivery to homes of needy families in advance of the holiday.

ROLLER SKATING RINK HAS 14,857 PATRONS IN 1941

City Realizes Net Profit of $1,200.73 on Operations During Season

Indicating the liberal patronage enjoyed by the municipal roller skating rink in the sports arena in the season recently closed, T. M. Thronson of the arena management committee anounced this week that during the period from June to November a total of 14,857 persons enjoyed the facilities provided for their entertainment.

With total skating receipts for the season of $2,170.90, the city reaped a net profit of $1,200.73, including a profit of $243.21 from operation of the refreshment booth.

The substantial profit was made despite the fact that skates were furnished for a fee of 15 cents, while those furnishing their own skates paid only ten cents.

The $1,200.73 in profits is represented by the inventory of roller skates, $706; miscellaneous inventory, $49.20; and cash on hand, $445.53.

2D FIREFIGHTING ENGINE ARRIVES IN THIS CITY MONDAY

New Unit Ordered Last July Represents Investment of $3,430

After going thru extended negotiations due to the priorities situation affecting materials needed for defense, the city of Thief River Falls Monday received delivery of a second smaller fire-fighting unit which had been ordered last July.

The new unit, a product of the American LaFrance-Foamite corporation of Elmira, New York, has a pumping capacity of 500 gallons of water per minute, and was purchased at a cost of $3,430.

CO. RED CROSS GOES OVER TOP FOR WAR QUOTA

WITH QUOTA OF $2,100 $2,430 PAID TO DATE

S. R. Dahlen, Drive Chairman, Thanks Donors and Solicitors

Probably the first county in Minnesota to achieve its goal, Pennington county substantially exceeded its quota in the first Red Cross war relief fund campaign conducted Wednesday of last week under the direction of Stanton R. Dahlen, chairman of the drive.

With $50,000,000 to be raised throut the nation, and with a county quota of $2,100, a total of $2,430.85 had been turned in to campaign headquarters up to Tuesday afternoon, with several rural localities not yet reported. Of the total reported, the sum of $1,509.77 was contributed by Thief River Falls residents, with the remaining $921.08 coming from the rest of the county.

Herman A. Kjos, chairman of the Pennington county Red Cross chapter, last Friday notified midwestern area headquarters at St. Louis that this county had gone over the top.

Mr. Dahlen yesterday expressed appreciation of the liberality of contributors to the fund, as well as to the solicitors for donating their time and effort toward making the drive a success. Only a few days before this nation became actively involved in the war, the county chapter had successfully completed its annual roll call, collecting a total of $1,751.71 in membership fees and donations.

In announcing the national campaign for funds last week, National Chairman Robert H. Davis in Washington, D. C., outlined the objectives of the wartime drive.

Terming the growing responsibilities of the American Red Cross as a challenge to America, Chairman Davis declared that support of the war fund appeal would insure to our "wounded, homeless and suffering fellow citizens" in the war zones that "we stand 100 per cent behind them."

Immediate response to the Red Cross war fund drive thruout the nation will provide relief for civilian populations bombed from their homes by the Japanese, and for those under the threat of enemy action in the Pacific war emergency or upon the continent of the United States, he said. Equally important are the funds needed for the work of the Red Cross for the men of the armed forces, as outlined in the M-day regulations of the Army and Navy.

County Red Cross Head Expresses His Thanks

Herman A. Kjos, chairman of the Pennington county chapter of the American Red Cross, today issued the following statement:

I want to express the appreciation of the chapter's group of officers for the splendid work done by the committee headed by Stanton Dahlen in the special war relief fund drive conducted last week. Exceeding the quota to the extent shown merits special recognition. Also do we want to thank the local committees for their good work and the donors as well.

City Cigaret Ordinance Will be Enacted Friday

Scheduled for final reading and adoption at an adjourned session of the city council Friday evening is the new ordinance fixing a license fee of $10 a year for sellers of cigarets in the city. Pederson, who will receive applications for licenses, estimated that upwards of 100 local vendors are affected by the ordinance.

And lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary, his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, frankincense and myrrh.

Growing With Your Child

Institute of Child Welfare, University of Minnesota

High-Priced Peace and Quiet

This week I am going to let a student who used to work as cashier in a small theatre give her side of a picture that most of us never see from that angle.

"The children come at one o'clock on Saturday and stay until five, no matter what picture is showing. I remember one day a car drove up and a father got out, leading two children aged five and six. He asked if I would look after them and call him when the show was over. I told him it was a long show, but he said, "All the better," as he wanted some peace and quiet.

Very soon the assistant manager rushed out and asked me to look after a child who couldn't stop crying. Sure enough, it was the younger of the two theatre waifs. The roar of the planes in "Power Dive" had terrified her. I washed her face with cold water, and at her insistent plea called her home, only to get no answer. The child cried harder. I had to return to the box office, so I bought her some candy (from the look of her it should have been vegetables), and took her with me into the box. I sat her on a stool and let her use my punch. The father arrived half an hour late, and if looks could do any damage he should have felt a shrinking sensation. There they were, four and a half hours in close air and tense surroundings, both worn out completely. Sometimes I felt like refusing admittance to these tiny tots who could hardly reach up to the ticket window.

"More parents should check with the list of motion pictures that are suitable for children, in Parents' Magazine and others. I do not believe that children under ten years of age should attend the theater."

This story speaks for itself. What a pity that so many fathers know so little about children that they have no idea how to enjoy them. This father is probably not inordinately selfish. He just has no idea that the best way to insure his comfort is not by getting rid of his children temporarily, with no thought as to whether the entertainment he's providing contributes to their welfare. Their jangled nerves aren't going to contribute to his peace and quiet during supper!

English mothers used to take sick babies to the door Christmas eve midnight. Mary was expected to pass with the Christ Child. If the baby recovered, it was a sign that it had been touched by Christ, with healing fingers, and if it died, the Christ Child had called the baby to be His playmate in heaven.

Chimney and Santa

It is reported that Santa's custom of coming down the chimney on Christmas eve stems from an old English notion that sweeping down the chimney at New Year's was necessary if good luck could enter [illegible]

To begin with, there's Christmas Tree Mince Pie. Use Christmas tree cookie-cutters for your top crust. Cut as many trees as you can fit on top of your mince pie filling. Sprinkle the trees with green sugar—and you'll have a pie that will bring all sorts of compliments from your guests.

With Blackberry Sauce

Regular Mince Pie with tender flaky pastry is super-delicious when you pour a hot thick blackberry sauce over it. Just the thing to serve on a holiday-time "coffee and dessert at eight" party. All sorts of other occasions, too. Here is the recipe:

MINCE PIE WITH BLACKBERRY SAUCE

Pastry for Two Crust Pie
1 tsp. melted butter
1½ cups canned blackberries (1 No. 2 can)
1½ cups mincemeat
Blackberry Sauce

Drain juice from berries and save for the sauce. Mix the berries with the mincemeat. Place in a pastry lined, deep 8-inch pie pan and (spread with melted butter to prevent soaking of filling into lower crust) cover with top crust and bake 35 minutes having the oven at 450° F. (hot) for the first 15 minutes. Then reduce heat to 325° F. (slow moderate) to finish baking.

Serve warm with hot Blackberry Sauce.

BLACKBERRY SAUCE

1 tbsp. sugar
1 tbsp. cornstarch (or 2 tbsp. all purpose flour)
1 cup blackberry juice (drained from canned berries)
1 tbsp. butter
⅛ tsp. salt
2 tbsp. lemon juice

Mix sugar and cornstarch (or flour) together in saucepan. Blend in blackberry juice and cook until smooth and thickened, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add butter, salt and lemon juice. Serve hot over warm Mince Pie.

Meringue-covered Tarts

Equally delicious for evening or afternoon parties—or the conclusion of a holiday dinner or luncheon—are these attractive Mincemeat Meringue Tarts. No. You don't make regular tart shells. Just cut your pastry in rounds with a cookie cutter, and bake them.

MINCEMEAT MERINGUE TARTS

(makes 8 individual tarts)

16 baked and cooled pastry rounds
2½ cups mincemeat (drained)
3 egg whites
¼ tsp. cream of tartar
6 tbsp. sugar
1 tbsp. grated lemon rind

You really make a two-decker sandwich with your mincemeat and the baked pastry rounds. First you spread one of the rounds with mincemeat. Top it with another round. Then more mincemeat—and the meringue covering the tops and sides completely. To make the meringue:—beat the egg whites and cream of tartar until stiff enough to hold a point, then gradually beat in sugar, continuing beating until stiff and glossy. Fold in grated lemon rind last. Spread over top and sides of tarts and bake 15 to 20 minutes in a slow moderate oven, 325° F.

Mother's and Dad's faces reflect the smiles of happiness. It's here, Christmas Eve! Merry Christmas to you all.

Million Red Cross Volunteers Aid Defense Program

Washington, D. C.—Behind the front lines of U. S. defenses more than 1,290,000 Red Cross volunteers are on the job—making surgical dressings, knitting sweaters and giving comfort articles, learning the rudiments of emergency mass feeding and scores of other duties in an all-out effort for national defense.

The largest defense task now being undertaken by Red Cross volunteers is the production of 40,000,000 surgical dressings for the Army and Navy, according to Mrs. Dwight F. Davis, national director of Volunteer Special Services. The undertaking came to the Red Cross at the request of the surgeons general of the Army and Navy when a survey revealed commercial manufacturers could provide only ten per cent of the surgical dressings needed.

Home Service volunteers and Gray Ladies, whose duties are directly concerned with the men in uniform also are expanding their programs, Mrs. Davis said.

As a preparedness measure, thousands of women throughout the country are learning mass feeding and nutrition as members of the Red Cross Canteen Corps. Added thousands are being trained in the Motor Corps to serve as emergency drivers.

NEXT WEEK A FRESH START

With this issue we complete another volume of the great family journal, which means that next week we start a new one. If it were not for the fact that we can now look forward to getting a fresh start, closing the book on the past year's effort would not be so pleasant. But tomorrow is a new day and next week is the start of a new year. With the old volume we will wrap up all of the worries and regrets and resentments of the past year and tuck them away in the attic along with a lot of other old rubbish that annoys us only occasionally.

In closing the volume we will borrow a couple of paragraphs from Walter Hines Page, used by him at the end of one of his books, and embodying the principles upon which he wrote as an editor:

> "If any reader of what I have written shall find anywhere a single word of bitterness, I pray him rub it out. For I have not meant to write such a word. Sympathy for all, and for all tolerance; pity for many, and for some affection; against ignorance and narrow mindedness, war to the end; but bitterness toward no human creature.
>
> "Nor have I ever meant to complain, for complaint furthers no man on his way. If the world does not please us, the least we can do is to try with cheerfulness to make it more to our liking, and, the harder the task the more good will we need."

Japan's main objectives in the war at the present time seem to be to knock us out of the Philippines and the British out of Singapore. Both of these objectives may be achieved but they will be expensive victories. With the war going into the third week these battles are just getting nicely started, and each week that passes now improves our chances of holding out until that time when we will be strong enough to start our own offensive. In this war the odds of distance are against us, but let it also be remembered that the Japs have obstacles of distance to overcome in their far-flung campaigns. Their resources are limited whereas ours are unlimited. They are fighting against time. If they do not win decisive victories quickly they will have to change from offensive to defensive tactics, and that will be the beginning of the end.

It seems likely now that the allied nations will agree upon a plan of united effort against the Axis powers and that probably will mean a division of responsibility that will give us the chore of cleaning up the Pacific. Of all the possible assignments, that should be the most agreeable to Americans. After all, the Pacific is our pond. The Jap menace has been a worry to us for a long time and most Americans have felt that sooner or later we would have to fight it out. From our standpoint, right now is a very good time to fight it out. At the present time we have as our allies in the far East practically all of the people not already conquered by Japan. Every harbor that the Japs do not hold is a friendly harbor. The Japs cannot now concentrate all their strength in attacking us. If we alone were fighting them, and other nations of the far East were neutral, the problem would be more difficult.

News from our war front will not make Christmas more merry. And for weeks to come the reports probably will not be favorable. Better, however, that we get the bad news at the beginning of a war than at the ending.

Pennington may not be the first county in Minnesota to go over the top with its special Red Cross drive but certainly it is one of the first, and for that good record a round of cheers to the good people of Pennington. Already the quota has been oversubscribed by a substantial margin and the returns are not all in. A round of cheers too to the drive managers and workers. The campaign was handled as nicely as any we have seen.

Topics of the Times

It seems funny that folks shortly will go from the north to the south to see the East-West football game.

If the attorney general is correct, it is safe for you to put your 1942 license plates on your car any time now.

The wages of sin, we read, are often not collected until in middle life.

Now we learn why the chromium is being removed from the new cars. A manufacturer says it makes automobiles less conspicuous in case of air raids.

We trust that following the annual inventory now getting under way, local merchants can be sparing in their use of red ink.

The horrors of war will be brought home to the ladies when they learn of an impending shortage of permanent wave machines.

President Roosevelt last week addressed a letter to the man who will be president in 1956. Funny he should be writing a letter to himself.

That fellow with a smug look on his face is he who recently equipped his car with a set of new tires.

Icy highways are a slick argument in favor of careful driving.

This column wants to join in the chorus and wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

HOLIDAY HOSTESS HINTS

A large, festive cake will confer upon any Christmas banquet a Yuletide air that is quite distinctive. Individual cakes help, too.

* * *

When carving turkey, first cut through the leg, crack the joint, and then disjoin the leg from the turkey. Cut the breast in medium thick slices, not in chunks. Use a sharp knife.

* * *

Turnips make an excellent garnish. Cook until tender, cool and scoop out the insides. Spread with butter and fill with cubed, seasoned beets. Reheat and surround the fowl platter.

* * *

If you spill pumpkin filling over the edge of the crust it is likely to burn during baking. Avoid this by pouring only part of the filling into the crust, put it in the oven, then pour in the balance of the filling.

New Ideas Foster Spirit of Christmas

At Christmas time ideas are more important than ever—amusing ideas to keep minds from too stern realities; clever ideas to make money-saving a pleasure; ideas to stress the old, old Christmas spirit of joy and reverence and gay family gatherings.

Get the family into the spirit of an old-fashioned Christmas with all helping — "deck the hall with boughs of holly," bring in the yule log. If you have no fireplace, then let the yule log become a centerpiece decoration for the table.

Use evergreens, red berries, pine cones, acorns for that home-made Christmassy look. Grandmother's festoon of cedar boughs tied with a big red bow still holds more genuine Christmas spirit than the most expensive artificial decorations.

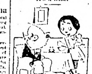
But if your family demands a change from the too-familiar, suggest they invent decorations. Maybe they want a red, white and blue Christmas. Red barn paint and blues are still cheap.

For packages, for mantelpieces — think how many everyday things are already red, white or blue, or how easily things may be enameled or dyed. Paint or dip pine cones, sticks and dark things in enamel or sheer earl colors. Dye pipe-cleaners, little fluffy feathers, dried grasses.

A package with red, white and blue feathers tied in with the bow, a Christmas tree decorated solely with balls of cotton, bright red, white and blue—they can't be beat. Strew white and blue stars around; decorate with candy canes crossed saber-wise and tied with a big blue bow. Make huge imitation candles of mailing tube or stove-pipe or logs, covered as you please. They are fine for outside the door or by the fireplace.

Whatever you do, hold your solemnity with old-fashioned simple gaiety . . . make it a seriously important family Christmas!

IT'S A HABIT



"The wolf is at the door."
"Going to raise the rent again, I suppose!"

Give Plenty of Room

Give blue Lobelia plenty of room, perfect drainage, good cultivation, a little bone meal once in a while and each year a top dressing of manure. If you follow these directions your place should flourish.

The Newfolden high school basketball team played the last game before Christmas vacation here on Friday evening, winning from a sturdy Badger team by a score of 22 to 15. Badger took the lead in the first quarter leading by a score of 7 to 3 at the half way mark. Newfolden led 8 to 7, then as the third quarter started Newfolden scored 7 points for a 15 to 7 lead, but Badger made a rally tieing the score 15 to 15 at the beginning of the last quarter, it looked like anybody's game, but the Nordic's not to be outdone in a final rally scored 7 points, holding Badger scoreless until the game ended.

Chistmas Greetings To All

Christmas is here again, but it is different. Different in so many ways. It is different at our place and at our homes. It is different in most homes and so throughout the world and yet a Christmas spirit should prevail in greater sincerity and its true meaning than ever before. In the memory of the birthday of The Christ Child who later gave his life that you and I might live, may the true spirit of Christmas prevail and a Very Merry Christmas to you all.

Happy New Year

Another year is near its close and much of history has been made. For many the recorded pages will not be credit nor praise, yet history grim and sad.

To many others 1941 has proven destruction of what all the world might mean to them—no fault of theirs; yet sad, others struck the blow.

As we come to the close of 1941 we find ourselves amid the conflict of this world and while we are truly happy that we live in the good old United States we do realize the serious sadness of it all and therefore must with greater determination face the problems of the present and 1942.

May we all be Happy with a determination to do our share for our country, for our people and for our God. Then a happy success for 1942.

Roosevelt, Churchill Plan Christmas Message

Temporarily laying aside the problems arising in a world aflame with war, President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill will participate together Wednesday in the lighting of a national Christmas tree and each will speak briefly. The ceremonies will be held in the White House grounds around dusk and the speeches will be broadcast. Originally only Mr. Roosevelt was scheduled to speak. But Mr. Churchill and the White House disclosed late Tuesday that the prime minister also would deliver a Christmas greeting to America.

Argyle—A gopher rolled up in a tight ball in hibernation for the winter is a freak on display at the Banner office. The gopher was found last week by Max Stoltman in a stack of hay from which he was taking a load. The rodent has shown no signs of rousing from winter sleep.

Of the twelve children six are boys and six are girls, and they were born in the following order: a boy, a girl, two boys, two girls, three boys and then three girls.

Celebrations Mark Christmas in China

In China the Christmas festival among Christians is known as Sheng Dan Jieh, the Holy Birth festival. This celebration has gradually penetrated inland.

Various paper decorations and evergreens adorn the churches and homes. Paper chains are made of green, red, yellow and blue and are suspended, in interlocking festoons from the ceiling. On the white walls, large posters are hung. On them are elaborate characters meaning peace and joy.

No candles are used, but the trees are decorated with paper flowers, colored paper, chains and cotton snowflakes.

There is usually an early service. The church is kept dark except for lanterns carried by the worshipers. Carolers wend their way along the road before dawn, singing the Chinese words to such melodies as "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing." The service consists of reading the Christmas message from the Bible, music, dramatization of the manger scene, and an offering for the poor.

Gifts are distributed to the children. The packages contain such things as tangerines, peanuts, pretty picture cards (sometimes used cards sent from America), candy and western lead pencils.

Star of the East

Star of the East, that long ago
Brought wise men on their way
Where, angels singing to and fro,
The Child of Bethlehem lay—
Thou shinest out tonight, O Star!

Star of the East, the night were drear
But for the tender grace
That with thy glory comes to cheer
Earth's loneliest, darkest place,
For by that charity we see
Where there is hope for all and me.

Star of the East, show us the way
In wisdom undefiled
To seek that manger out and lay
Our gifts before the Child—
To bring our hearts and offer them
Unto our King in Bethlehem!
—Eugene Field

Simple Decorations Provide Originality To Christmas Table

To the homemaker who is worried about the expense of Christmas decorations, here are a few new and inexpensive ways of adding originality to the Christmas table:

Try red or blue cellophane over a white table cloth. Cellophane will not discolor the cloth as will some colored papers.

Paste various-sized stars to the white cloth. Or, paste cutouts of Santa, reindeer, candles, holly sprays, etc.

Use a ribbon of gold or silver paper down the center of the table.

When an uneven number of guests are to be seated at the table, you might confine the evergreen and floral arrangement to one end of the table, father at the other, with the guests seated at the sides.

Imagine the charm added by sewing a few tiny bells along the hem of the cloth so that when the guests move there is a sound of tinkling.

Down the center you might arrange a row of candles of different heights.

Various strange figures may be made from fruits, nuts and gum drops. A large prune stuffed with a marshmallow, with a raisin for a head and almonds for feet, makes a penguin.

An attractive Santa may be made from an apple. Use a big red apple for the body, a marshmallow for the head, and cloves for eyes and nose. Two skewers can be used for legs, which are covered with cotton batting. Cotton is also used for a belt, whiskers, hair and for covering short pieces of wire inserted as arms. A little red cap is made from pieces of tissue paper secured to the marshmallow with a pin. A third skewer is inserted at the rear to give Santa a three-point landing.

Amusing gumdrop trees may be made from wire or natural twigs.

Bayberries Contain Good Candle Wax

Growing in the sandy soil from Alaska to Florida is a shrub known as the Bayberry. The branches are thickly beset with gray, wax-giving berries. In early Colonial days animal fats were rather scarce, so that the children gathered these berries for making candles. Today, the lighting of Bayberry candles on Christmas eve is a custom the country over.

These candles are more brittle and less greasy than those made from tallow. They are translucent green, and when the flame is extinguished, the resulting odor is as sweet and pungent as incense.

In the event that some may want to make their own candles, here are directions:

Cover the berries with water and boil for an hour. The oil comes to the top but it is often soiled with leaves and small twigs, so it should be strained through a cloth. When this wax becomes cold, it will form a cake at the top of the water. It should be heated again, preparatory to molding the candles. If you have candle molds you will, of course, use them. If not, you may fasten several wicks to a piece of wood, which can be dipped into the hot wax, using a tall container of small diameter. Each coat should chill and become hard before dipping again, and the dipping should continue until the desired diameter is obtained.

Scramble for Bride's Garter

When the bride of today starts to her room to change to traveling attire she tosses her bouquet from the end of the stairs and the bridesmaids scramble wildly for it. In France, in the Fourteenth century, the bridesmaids—and guests—scrambled for the bride's garter instead. As newlyweds dash frantically for their automobile the wedding guests shower them with rice. Honeymoons originated back in the days of marriage by capture, when the groom took his captured bride into hiding until her people became reconciled or gave up the search.

RESULTS OF DEER COUNT ARE GIVEN BY STATE AGENCY

Estimate Deer Population of Pennington County at 325

Deer population surveys have revealed there are more deer now in some of the areas adjacent to territory that was open to hunting in 1940, than in what is considered the natural hunting range.

Game wardens of the Minnesota department of conservation conducted the population count in more than two score counties.

Deer have increased to such proportions in a number of counties that their control is becoming a real problem. The wardens estimated there are more than 6,000 deer in Otter Tail county, which had its last open season in 1924.

Deer are present in virtually every county in the state, the surveys revealed. Counties outside the natural hunting range which have considerable deer populations include:

Pennington, an estimated 325 deer; Red Lake 200, Polk 700, Norman 150, Meeker 150, Anoka 800, Chisago 225, Isanti 150, Sherburne 350, Douglas 200, Morrison 2,500; Pope 190, Stearns 205, Kandiyohi 250 and Mille Lacs 205.

Trainees Sought for Maritime Radio Jobs

The United States maritime service has immediate openings for 50 young men to undergo training as radio operators in the merchant marine. Applications may be filed at the local office of the employment-security division.

The training course, which leads to a permanent job in the merchant marine, is open to young men from 18 to 23, in good health and interested in radio work. Trainees will receive a salary ranging from $36.00 to $60.00 a month, plus maintenance, while in school.

After ten months' schooling, a graduate will be eligible for a position paying from $105.00 to $165.00 a month, plus bonuses and extras. The training is given at Gallups Island in Boston Harbor. Free transportation will be given those selected.

WARNING TO PARENTS OF SMALL CHILDREN

Litchfield—While returning from Buffalo to Litchfield at midnight recently, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cripp of the latter city discovered a small child walking in a ditch near Montrose. They picked the child up and took him into Montrose where, his parents were attending a party. The little fellow was clad only in a sleeping garment and was very cold when picked up. He had awakened and arose from his bed, where his twin brother was still sleeping, and left the home presumably to look for his mother and daddy. Leaving small children alone in a house at any time is dangerous business and too often proves disastrous to both children and property.

Detroit Lakes Downs Prowlers; Score 38-29

A lanky, dead-shot forward, Ernie Deike, scoring 18 points, paced the Detroit Lakes quint to a 38 to 29 decision over the Prowlers in a game played on the Lakers floor Friday night. Coach Newby's inexperienced team bumped up against a tight two-three zone defense, and on the narrow Detroit Lakes floor, such a defense hobbled the Prowler attack.

Bob Powell's free throw gave the Prowlers the game's first point. Norris Johnson evened the score with a gift toss. Johnny Campbell, in spite of being handicapped by the effects of a cold, broke into the free throw lane for one-handed field goal, and was fouled as he made the shot. Johnny counted the free throw, to give the Prowlers a 4 to 1 lead. Ernie Deike potted a shot from out on the floor. Gjernes drove through the Lakers defense for a two-pointer. Deike lofted another shot from the right side-line. Westland marked up free throw; and Lemoine Munson's under-the-basket shot gave Detroit Lakes an 8 to 6 lead at the end of the first period. Ernie Deike again found the net with a shot from his "spot" out on the court. Drews and Munson each added a point on free throws.

Jack Melby, on an assist from Mark Levorson, looped in a Prowler field goal; Lenny Lorentson, breaking in from the right, scored a basket; Milt Relerson flipped in a left-handed shot from a difficult angle; Levorson counted a basket on a try from the side-line, sending the Prowlers into a 14 to 12 lead. Deike hoisted another of his "specialty" shots into the net; and Bill Peterson, on a dribble, scored a basket to give the Lakers a 16 to 14 lead at the half.

A free throw by Johnson, and field goals by Deike, on a rebound, and a close shot by Johnson, spurted Detroit Lakes into a 21 to 14 lead before Milt Relerson pumped a long center-court shot into the ring. Lorentson tossed in two free throws. Deike dribbled in for a push-up shot; and Dennis Drews registered on a long heave; Peterson notched a free throw; an Deike again, eluding his guard, dribbled in for a close shot, giving the Lakers a 28 to 18 lead. Don Berg opened the final period with a long shot from the left side of the floor.

Johnson tipped in a rebound for Detroit Lakes. Relerson lofted a long shot into the net; and after Peterson had scored on a close-in shot, Milt hoisted another long shot into the basket. Peterson rang up a Lakes field goal on a one-handed try. Berg scored on a long shot, and followed with a free throw. Relerson drilled his fourth long shot into the net. Deike's two free throws, and his close push-up shot, ended the game's scoring.

Milt Relerson, whose 10 points earned runner-up scoring honors, and Don Berg played the most effective games for the Prowlers; Detroit Lakes offense was sparked by Ernie Deike; while Bill Peterson and Dennis Drews were the Lakers defensive stalwarts, doing a fine job of recovering rebounds.

Coach Newby intends to send the Prowlers into a two-a-day practice drills through-out the holidays, in an effort to apply polish to the local erratic play. The Prowlers next game will be played here on Jan. 2nd, with Grand Rapids furnishing the opposition.

Highway Patrol Warns, Arrests 6,146 in War on Traffic Accidents

Continuing the campaign to prevent traffic accidents before they happen, the Minnesota highway patrol in November warned or arrested 6,146 motorists and pedestrians who were using the trunk highways in violation of the laws set up for their protection. The details of the patrol's activities during the month were made in a report to Commissioner M. J. Hoffman by Patrol Chief Elden Rowe.

Written or verbal warnings were handed 2,721 violators, according to the report, for infractions which often result in serious mishaps. Leading these were 1,034 whose cars had improper lights for safe driving—an extremely important item, especially during winter months with longer nights.

Driving at excessive speeds for road and weather conditions brought reprimands to 208 and ignoring "stop" signs resulted in warning tickets being handed to 120. But motorists were not the only ones getting rebukes from the patrol, for 143 hitch-hikers were reminded that "bumming" rides is contrary to law and 97 were instructed in the proper, safe way to walk on roadways.

Striking hard at illegal equipment, another very important contributor to traffic accidents—the patrolmen gave "must repair" tags to 2,091 motorists, requiring them to have car defects remedied. Here again, improper lights topped the list and brought tags to 1,918 motorists. Lack of tail-lights was noted on 803 cars, 663 cars were being operated with one head-light burned out, 125 cars had head-lights out of adjustment (often caused by minor accidents to front fenders which enclose head-lights on most of the recent models), 64 cars had illegal lamps, 147 trucks did not have clearance lamps in accordance with safety requirements and 100 did not have necessary identification lights.

Civic & Commerce Sets Next Session January 8

At last Thursday's session of the Civic and Commerce association, arrangements were made for the usual Christmas recess, with the next meeting to be held in the association rooms Thursday evening, January 8. A special program will be arranged for the occasion, Secretary L. W. Rolfen announced.

Mattress From Beards

Ludwig I of Bavaria at 60 did such injustices to his people under the promptings of a lordly wanton woman that his subjects tore her house to pieces. His prized possession was a mattress made with the mustaches and beards of his soldiers, cut off by them to stuff it for him.

Volunteers May Specify Service Branch Desired

Minnesota selective service headquarters has received word from the United States Army recruiting service that men who wish to enlist in the United States Army may choose the branch of service they desire. The announcement was made public by Lt. Col. J. F. Nelson, state director of selective service. Not only may the individual choose the branch in which he wishes to serve, he may also state his preference as to the place of service, and his choice will be granted insofar as the needs of that particular station allow.

Committee Recommends Unseating of Sen. Langer

Chairman Hatch announced in Washington Thursday the senate elections committee voted 13 to 3 in favor of a resolution recommending that Senator Langer of North Dakota be denied a seat in the senate.

The action climaxed a year's consideration of charges involving moral turpitude which grew out of Langer's actions as an attorney and former governor of North Dakota.

Langer has been serving in his post since last January 3, pending final outcome of the proceedings. The senate membership must finally decide whether he shall be unseated.

Why Salt Makes Thirst

An excess of salt makes a person thirsty because once the natural proportion of salt in the body is exceeded, it is necessary to drink water to restore the correct percentage. Nature calls this to the body's attention by creating thirst.

Year-end Memories

Foremost of these memories is the recollection of the hectic eighth regional basketball tournament played here last March. Especially Bemidji's 35 to 34 overtime win over the Prowlers (and George Thorbrogger had to drop in a long shot, and Jack Vinje register on a spinning side shot, to give Bemidji a tie score and send the game into the overtime). And Bemidji's 30 to 28 decision over Hendrum, in two overtime periods, in the regional finals (with Jack Johnson's one-handed shot from the corner knotting the count in the last 20 seconds of play, and forcing the overtime periods).

That wild, high-scoring, 16 to 13, hockey game between the Crookston Pirates and the Thieves, with the locals on the long end of the score. Remember how Paul Kornek performed a couple of "hat tricks", scoring 6 goals in the contest? Other Thief River goalgetters were Eddie McMillan with 4 goals, Freddy Gustafson and Joe Popiel with 2 goals each, and George Beverly and Bill Gray with single tallies.

Freddy Gustafson's rifle-like angle shot, from the blue-line, in the final seconds of play, which beat the Grafton Millionaires, 2 to 1, in the States-Dominion hockey league playoffs.

Woody Almquist's terrific home-run smash into deep left-field, off Hartz' Allen Ness in the second game of the D-ball championship finals. Whenever Al Ness becomes chesty about his pitching, Walt Larson, the Land O'Lakes team manager, reminds Al of that home-run.

Eddie Flasch putting on a field day as the Prowlers trounced East Grand Forks, 40 to 28, on the Green Wave floor. Eddie collecting 18 points, on 7 field goals and 4 free throws, with several of his baskets coming after floor-length dribbles. Eddie had the East Siders rolling on the floor in an attempt to stop him.

Birdean "Buttercup" Nornes poling out a base-clearing double in the 8th inning of the game with Plummer on July 13th, breaking up the ball game, and giving the locals a 11 to 7 win.

Wally DuChamp's perfect peg from center-field to third baseman Bobby DuChamp, to cut down Warren's Art Howard as he attempted to advance on a long fly ball.

Willie Tripp scoring an unassisted goal against the Fargo-Moorhead Comets, and counting the goal against his brother, Earl "Shorty" Tripp, who was in the nets for the Comets.

Babe Peterson sneaking through for a basket, in the last minute of play in the Prowlers district finals game against East Grand Forks, which clinched the locals fifth consecutive district 31 basketball title.

Helmer Ole Ness giving me all the details, with gestures and diagrams, of how he bagged that big Canada goose at Crystal lake this fall.

Lenny Helquist stumbling over the pitcher's mound, at Grygla, while trotting out to his right-field position. Lenny was very disgusted with himself, and didn't know whether to laugh or to get mad. P. S. He laughed.

Jimmy Gilbertson's appearance on the mound, pitching for Plummer after the locals had hammered Lefty Hovanac off the rubber, and [illegible] shut-out ball for six innings, and allowing but five hits.

The "Pearl Harbor" trick that J. P. Curtis pulled on Kern Olson several nights ago.

Pumping five shots at a sharp-tailed grouse, while chicken hunting north of Greenbush, and missing, and then listening to the loud laugh of Ed "Swede" Nelson, who had witnessed my shooting exhibition from the other side of the thicket.

The veteran Bill Hallamack, not only pitching fine ball for the locals this year, but also pounding out 21 hits in 51 appearances at the plate, to lead the home club in hitting with a .412 average.

FARM HELP IS BIG PROBLEM, STATES VICTOR CHRISTGAU

State Employment Director Addresses Meeting of County Agents

Help that will be required on Minnesota's farms may well be one of the state's most pressing manpower problems in 1942, Victor Christgau, director of the employment-security division, said last week speaking before the annual conference of Minnesota agricultural extension workers at University Farm.

To meet employment difficulties that lie ahead, Christgau urged producers to advise local offices of the state agency of their labor needs as far in advance as possible.

"All during 1941," he said, "farmers struggled with the problem of inadequate help. Selective service inductions greatly reduced the number of young men usually available for farm work. Others have been attracted from rural areas to population centers by high wages in defense industries.

"Now, with the advent of war, its further expansion of defense work and the increased demands for military manpower, the tribulations of farmers who are unable to do all their own work are certain to increase."

NEWSPAPER REPORT BRINGS HAPPY RESULTS

Tyler.—When Mrs. Fred Scott read in the Journal-Herald ofthe first prize that she had been awarded in the luncheon set division of the fifth annual nationwide crochet contest, she was startled—and perhaps inclined to doubt the veracity of the report. The arrival inthe mail last week of a $51 check proved, however, that the report was authentic. $50 was the first prize money and the one dollar was for honorable mention on another item entered. As 400,000 contestants were competing for honors Mrs. Scott's achievement really was outstanding.

'U' SEEKING BEST POST OF SERVICE FOR EACH STUDENT

President W. C. Coffey in Explanatory Letter Advises Parents

Parents of all University of Minnesota students are receiving this week a letter from President W. C. Coffey in which he assures them that the university is going to make every possible effort to advise students of the way in which each can be of greatest service to his country in this time of war.

President Coffey especially urges parents to counsel their sons not to make an immediate decision on the course to be followed, for, he said, while for some the induction into the armed forces through selective service will be the natural outcome, others will be able to serve better by continuing their education and professional training.

"The need for trained men and women will increase as the war wears on," he wrote. "It is the duty of the university to train them. In a real sense the university, through its research program and through its training of scientists and technical workers in many fields, has become a vital war industry. It is not the function of the university to urge all its students into the service. Neither is it the university's purpose to help students escape service. Rather, its duty is to advise and counsel with the students to the end that they may decide wisely at what point their services will contribute most to the war which we are now fighting."

The president pointed out that the dean of students, Dr. Edmund G. Williamson, has been appointed head of an organization to provide information and advice to the students that will help them make up their minds as to where, in their opinion, they can be most useful.

BELLE PLAINE HAS ITS OWN BLACKOUT

Belle Plaine — Belle Plaine had its own private blackout Tuesday night in the midst of President Roosevelt's speech. The President had been talking about ten minutes when suddenly there was complete suspension of electric light and power. The effect, following day-long alarms, could have been really frightening had there been added to the blackouts the put-put of an air plane motor. When lights resumed nearly a half hour later, the President's address was over, and this territory missed a speech to which it had tuned all its radios.

RED CROSS IS NOW GIVING RELIEF IN HAWAII WAR ZONE

Sets up First Aid Stations and Supplies Nurses to Treat Injured

A cablegram received in Washington, D. C., from Alfred Castle, chairman of the Hawaii Red Cross, read as follows: "Food supplies, blankets, clothing, surgical dressings, canteen, motor corps and medical supplies functioning well under great stress," national headquarters announced.

Twelve 50-bed Red Cross first aid stations had been set up in Hawaii, completely equipped with doctors, nurses and first aid personnel, the Red Cross stated. Intensive training courses had been conducted for months previous to the Japanese attack in Hawaii, and 2,200 men and women, doctors, nurses and first aiders were ready to respond to the "alert."

Besides a regular staff of Red Cross nurses on duty, the Red Cross had enrolled 1,238 graduate nurses in the islands, who were immediately available. The Hawaiian Red Cross Motor Corps, well trained, carried out the evacuation of civilians from bombed areas. Many of the women in the corps were wives of army and navy officers, and were trained in driving heavy trucks in blackouts.

Mr. Castle's cable also stated that co-operation between the Red Cross and the local Civilian Defense in the emergency was excellent. The Hawaiian Red Cross was equipped with large supplies of clothing, made by women volunteers in the islands, and also had stores of food and medical supplies. Five members of the national Red Cross staff from Washington were sent to the islands some time ago.

The Red Cross cabled $25,000 to Mr. Castle for immediate needs, and offered him large stocks of women's and children's clothing and food supplies which are ready for immediate shipment.

Our large auditorium was packed to capacity and the concensus of opinion was that it was a wonderful Christmas program.

The community enjoyed three Christmas tree programs this week. On Wednesday evening the first one was given in Rev. Bjorgans church. This consisted of recitations and songs and a Christmas acrostic. Layne Olson did a very good job of announcing the different numbers as did also Donald Stephenson in reading portions of the Christmas story from the Bible. Rev. Bjorgan closed the program with a few remarks.

The Pentecostal program was held on Friday evening. This was also a sacred program of recitations and songs.

Through Faith Alone Can Hope Survive

It got around that it was somehow unmanly to believe in God. Sissy to say your prayers.

Those were the queer, sick years between the two wars. When morality had to do with vice, drinking and the other fellow. Those were the years when we forgot justice for "progress" while the world's conscience slipped softly into decline.

So now the half gods rule, loosed in a tempest of our own making. It is the day of the Black Faith, religion of neglect and despair. The creed of brutality and force drives its millions with the fury of a holy war. Humanity is pretty sick, and while planes, tanks and battleships may save the patient—just this once again—they cannot ever cure the disease.

Free men are face to face with a mighty decision. Either they must meet the Black Faith with a great Faith of their own—or surrender to the deluge.

The choice is plain. To oppose the fanatic religion of negation and force with the Faith of their fathers. To learn to live by the creed of decency and justice, righteousness, sympathy and understanding. To find resolution in their belief in the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man. Or to deny all hope.

Decent men in their hearts are sick of kindliness and charity just at Christmastime and greed and suspicion the rest of the year. They are weary of a world that has produced telephones and printing presses but has forgotten honesty and the Ten Commandments. [illegible] are tired of [illegible] to oppose working people [illegible] employers "to hate the [illegible] class" if they are workers. They are tired of free governments that have [illegible] forgotten Jefferson [illegible] Lincoln that they encourage class hate in the name of progress.

Decent men want to think of other men as fellow human beings.

It is high time for free America to find again the ideals of its founders. To take pride in mothering the oppressed. To reach out for the meaning of mercy, sympathy and [illegible]. To share in proud humility a simple belief in God.

For greater far than all the questions of defense that now face America are the problems of the years to come, the enormous, challenging problems that we shall have to solve as the great free people of the post-war world. We shall have to solve them in the spirit of helpfulness and brotherhood. We shall have to dedicate our strength and our free ideal [illegible] to bring about the lasting peace that will find no nation a pawn, no man a scapegoat, but all peoples neighbors and friends. We tried it the other way once. And it did not work.

Perhaps, even now, unnoticed, the ground swell is beginning. We like to think that, quietly, out of these racking times there may [illegible] a new dignity, never yet attained, for all mankind, rooted in Faith and Hope, [illegible] kindliness and sympathy, in a real wish to understand our fellow men.

SEASON'S GREETINGS

PRIMITIVE people lived self-sufficient lives. They supplied their own simple wants as best they could. In our present complex civilization we live by an exchange of services. For even the most fundamental needs we are dependent on each other. We still have individual responsibilities. But we also have social responsibilities.

In the present dark days of a war that will disrupt so many of our plans it is more important than ever before that we give thought to those relationships and responsibilities that make life more pleasant.

In a small community there is a personal relationship nearly every business transaction. The friend ip that is based on mutual confidence and under nding is an important factor. Friendship in busine , as well as in our personal lives, makes life sweet more wholesome and more thoroughly enjoyabl

A so at this season of the year, with its appropriate reetings and good wishes, we wish to express our ap reciation to you whose friendship and goodwill w have enjoyed in past relationships, and renew our p ge to put forth our best efforts toward making o community the kind of a community we all want to be.

In Spirit of the Season We Extend to You One and All Our Sincere Wishes for

HAPPINESS, HEALTH A D PROSPERITY IN THE NEW YEAR--

Minnesota Editors Warn of Necessity of Waging War on Traffic Mishaps

Now that war has come to the United States the need for combatting the steadily rising traffic accident toll is greater than ever before. That warning was sounded today by the Minnesota editors' "Save 100 Lives" committee as the approach of winter and the Christmas season with its greater volume of traffic increased the menace of the highways.

"Our task of reducing traffic fatalities may seem unimportant compared to that of carrying on the war," said Editor John E. Casey of Jordan, chairman of the committee, "but actually, there is more need now than ever before for real safety efforts. Every life we save is that much gained in the defense of our country."

"We must remember, too," observed Executive Editor Basil Walter of the Minneapolis Star Journal, "that the suffering and loss resulting from automobile fatalities will be no less because of the war." Mr. Walters headed the "Save 100 Lives" committee last year and is collaborating with this year's committee.

Casey pointed out that the National Safety Council has predicted that highway deaths this year will top 40,000, the highest total in history.

Minnesota reflects the higher national rate, although with a slightly lower percentage. There were 647 traffic fatalities in the state during the first 11 months of 1941 compared with 640 last year.

NORTH

The program at County Line school was well attended Friday evening. They will begin Monday on their six weeks vacation.

FIRE INSURANCE MEN GIVE HINTS ON HOLIDAY FIRES

Check up on Tree Lights and Avoid Combustible Hangings

The Western Actuarial Bureau of Chicago, representing fire insurance underwriters, has issued the following timely bulletin dealing with special fire hazards existing during the Christmas holidays:

Your Christmas tree and the decorations on it are fire hazards which you will need to watch most carefully during the coming holiday season. The tree can be kept fresh if you set it up in a pan of water. Cut off the base of the tree at an angle one inch above the original cut and keep it standing in water during the period it is in the house.

It is important that your Christmas tree lights be in good condition. A short circuit in worn wiring might be sufficient to start the tree burning. If your tree catches fire call the fire department immediately. Sets bearing the label of Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc., have been tested for fire hazards and pronounced safe by experts.

Elaborate decorations are important features of most parties held in clubs, dance halls, and other public places; but terrible tragedies have occurred when small fires have flashed across halls filled with combustable hangings. Many committees require that such decorations be chemically treated to reduce their flammability. Fire-proof material can be purchased at many stores.

Cotton batting and paper in costumes ignite easily and burn with great intensity. Santa Claus' whiskers have led to many Christmas tragedies. If you cannot find a good substitute, be sure and have them flame-proofed.

Churches, schools, clubs, stores and other places of public assemblage—need—especially to be careful of fire during the Christmas holidays. Most of them will be decorated and most of them will be crowded during a large part of the time. Fire in any crowded public building may easily lead to a panic, as the exits are frequently inadequate to take care of so many people in a hurry.

Ever see this flag?

It is the U.S. Navy "E." This symbol, on a Navy vessel, indicates special "excellence" in some activity such as gunnery or engineering.

1. The "E" is the highest group honor awarded by the Navy. Crews work hard for it, and are proud to see it on their vessel.

2. But today, with so many industries producing equipment for the Navy, the "E" has been awarded to a few factories, too,

3. One factory so honored is the Erie, Pennsylvania plant of General Electric, where the award was made for speed in the production of naval ordnance.

4. The "E" flag was hoisted September 19, and hundreds of Erie G-E employees are proudly wearing "E" buttons to show that they, too, share the honor.

General Electric believes that its first duty as a good citizen is to be a good soldier.

PRICHARD RETIRES AFTER TWELVE YEARS

Retiring Council Conducts Last Meeting of Year Friday Night

The new city administration, elected last November, will take over the management of municipal affairs next Tuesday evening, January 6, when the council will hold its organization session. Meeting with the newly elected members will be the retiring aldermen.

Newly elected aldermen who will assume their posts include Harry Severson and A. B. Stenberg, at large, and Robert Peterson, second ward. Continuing in their present positions are Emil Griebstein, first ward; and John Baker, third ward.

Also accepted was the bid of the Elk River Products company to furnish 100 feet of 27-inch reinforced concrete pipe at $225.

FARM MACHINERY EMERGENCY TOPIC AT MEETING HERE

Farmers Invited to Attend Important Meeting January 20

The farm machinery emergency and how to meet it—a critical problem facing every farmer in 1942 and "for the duration"—will be the subject of a county-wide Farm Machinery Day at Thief River Falls on Tuesday, January 20 which is expected to bring out one of the largest gatherings of farmers in the history of this county.

Plans for the meeting are being handled by a group called together by County Agent Ernest Palmer. The county USDA defense board, the AAA county farm organizations, local implement dealers and county editors are all included. Speakers will be furnished through the State Agricultural Extension Service at University Farm, including tractor and machinery experts from leading manufacturers and northwest distributors.

Convinced that the farm machinery situation may become extremely serious, those planning the Machinery Day program urge every farmer to attend. Owing to war demands for steel, new machinery will be very scarce this year and even repair parts may be impossible to get unless farmers act early instead of waiting until a few days before their machinery is needed.

The special reason farmers are urged to come out for Machinery Day, says the county agent, is to learn how to check their farm equipment for repairs, how to operate and maintain their tractors and implements to prevent breakdowns and prolong usefulness, and how to take other steps that may be necessary to make the equipment now available "carry on" while agriculture increases food production on the one hand and copes with a farm labor shortage on the other.

Private Building on Increase Here in '41

107 Permits Issued During Year with Total Value of $277,555

1941 IMPROVEMENTS VALUED AT $450,000

Total of 38 New Residences are Erected in City in 1941

On the basis of building permits for private construction approved by the city council, together with municipal projects, it is indicated that construction work carried to completion or started in Thief River Falls in 1941 represents an aggregate investment of approximately $450,000.

A total of 107 permits with an extremely conservative total stated value of $277,555 were approved during the year, compared with 102 permits in 1940 with a stated value of $167,180, and 148 permits in 1939 with a stated value of 180,000. The actual expenditure in nearly all cases is well in excess of the amount specified in the permits.

In addition to the private construction for which permits were issued, the city during the year spent approximately $125,000 on improvement and enlargement of the municipal power plant, in addition to substantial sums for paving alleys and sidewalk construction, as well as installation of sewer and water mains.

Business building construction outstripped residence building in total value this year, the comparative figures being $130,000 and $117,650. Included in the permits for business buildings is one for $70,000 to L. B. Hartz Stores, covering the erection of a supermarket building, of which the superstructure will not be completed until 1942.

Other major business buildings were constructed in 1941 by the Peterson Grain & Seed company, L. B. Hartz warehouse remodeling, Fred Forsberg & Sons, Model Laundry, Peterson-Biddick company, Red Owl supermarket, Larsen Mercantile company, warehouse; H. A. Brumund, store and apartment building; and Klewel Products company.

A total of 38 new residences were constructed in the city in 1941, of which all but two cost in excess of $1,500, others ranging well in excess of $5,000. In addition nearly sixty permits ranging from $40 to $1,200 were issued to authorize residence remodeling, construction of garages and other minor projects.

Another large industrial project carried to completion during the year was the construction of a 200,000-bushel addition to the storage capacity of the Osborne-McMillan terminal elevator, located on the Soo Line right-of-way just beyond the city limits at the north edge of Thief River Falls.

MACHINERY SET UP TO ALLOCATE SALES OF TIRES

Local Board Will be Organized to Make Rulings on Applications

GOVERNOR STASSEN ANNOUNCES SETUP

Purchase of New Tires for Use on Pleasure Cars to be Banned

Acting upon instruction of federal authorities, Governor Harold E. Stassen took initial steps this past week to set up local commodity allocation boards throughout the state to pass on allocation of automobile tires and other articles whose sales later may be restricted in the interest of national defense.

Organization of the boards now is well under way, reports from the capitol indicated, and every effort is being made to have them ready to begin work Monday, January 5th, when the new allocation plan becomes effective on tires. In counties where the local allocation boards are not ready to operate, no tires can be sold.

All regulations governing the boards will be laid down by the federal authorities, based on policies mapped out for the country as a whole. The state has been asked merely to set up the machinery through which the OPA and the OPM may function in their efforts to conserve the rubber supply and avert a threatened shortage for defense purposes.

Regulations laid down by Leon Henderson, federal price administrator, already have been forwarded to or are on the way to chairmen of the allocation boards so far appointed. Ted G. Driscoll, the state director of commodity allocation just named by Governor Stassen, summarized briefly the conditions which Henderson has said must be met before certificates will be issued for purchase of new tires. Average motorists under these rules will not be able to get new tires.

"To obtain new tires after this plan goes into effect on January 5," Driscoll said, "the car owner must go before his local commodity allocation board and prove two things:

"1. That use of the car is an absolute necessity, which under the instructions will mean in general that it is necessary for preservation of health, as in the case of doctors and visiting nurses; that it is necessary for the public safety, as in the conduct of fire and police service, or that it is essential for defense.

"2. That the tires sought to be replaced are so worn that they cannot be repaired.

"Owners of trucks and commercial vehicles likewise must have their applications passed upon by the local allocation boards. Sales of new tires will be allowed for regular passenger buses, school buses, trucks for ice and fuel delivery, trucks engaged in certain industrial and commercial lines "excepting those used to transport goods to the consumer for personal or family use" and farm tractors for which tires are essential. Retail delivery trucks under the rule would be considered not a necessity."

Under the regulations laid down by Washington, purchase of new tires for the usual pleasure car virtually will be banned. No restrictions so far have been placed on the sale of second-hand tires or on the re-capping or re-treading of worn tires, Driscoll said.

One or more allocation boards are being set up in each county, the number depending upon local conditions. Every municipality of 2,500 or more, it is contemplated, will have one. Governor Stassen asked the local chairman of the council for defense, the judge of probate and the county attorney to nominate a panel of six names, four men and two women, and from these he said he would name the two men and one woman to make up the board.

PIGS WILL SQUEAL!

Madelia—A Foley, Minnesota, man paid a fine in St. Paul municipal court for transporting pigs and cows in the same truck without separating them. The pigs squealed on him and an agent of the society for prevention of cruelty to animals caused his arrest. Then it was his turn to squeal. Even a pig enroute to the slaughter house has some rights that must be respected.

BUTTON, BUTTON, WHO'S GOT AN OLD BUTTON?

Waconia—The Carver County Society is collecting old buttons for a display in the museum. The Society announced anyone having rare old buttons will confer a favor on the Carver county button gatherers by forwarding same to Mrs. Susie Hansen, Carver, Minnesota.

SMILEY

Happy New Year, folks!

The Smiley Community Club meets this Friday evening, Jan. 2 at the hall. A simple but interesting program has been arranged by a committee headed by the Jim McCrum family, the Newton Nelson family, and the Loretta Weckwerth family. Refreshments will be served by the Sivert Brekkes, the Mark Olsons and the Leonard Helgelands. A jovial and cordial welcome to all.

Christmas Feasts

To do justice to this gay season, a large number of family "get-togethers" were enjoyed on and about Christmas Day. The largest gathering was held at the Adam Lendobeja home when the Jacobson clan of twenty-six met there for much merriment Christmas Day. They were Mr. and Mrs. Landobeja and Dianne, hosts; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jacobson and son Bernhard, Mrs. Alla Jorde and family of Stephen, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnson and children of St. Hilaire; Mr. and Mrs. Steve Jeanette and children of Stainer, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Jorde.

The Christ Larson home was the scene of a small family dinner that day also honoring their son, Louie, home from the army. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Björnson and son Loren, of Mankato, Charles Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Olson (Violet Larson) and Clara Swanson of Numedal.

Guests at the Jim McCrum Christmas day were Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Olson, son Wayne, Orton and Clara Olson and Will McCrum. Evening guests were Mr. and Mrs. Donald McCrum and two children of Chicago.

Hosts to a dinner Christmas day were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Peterson when they entertained Mrs. Loretta Weckwerth and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Erickson and family, and the Clarence Weckwerth family as guests.

The first ten minutes of each meeting will be spent in "filling in" the project records.

Christmas eve, the St. Pauli church choir of about fifteen voices, accompanied by Rev. A. Skibarud the pastor and leader made the rounds in the community singing Carols very beautifully for about ten minutes at each stop.

Word has been received from the Frank McClains (Constance Nelson) at Portland, Oregon that a nice big baby girl arrived Dec. 19 and will be named Carol Frances. They have a boy over eight years old, Ronald.

Callers at the Mark Olson home Friday were Winton and Florence Waller of Numedal, Mr. A. Waller of Brinsmade, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson of Thief River Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson of Thief River Falls. Mr. Waller remained at the Olson home for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Oden Bolstad of Minneapolis visited at the Henry Bolstad home Wednesday.

Word has been received by the Ted Markus' that their sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Bjella of Bemidji were nicely en route to Phoenix, Arizona. They wrote from a stop in Portales, New Mexico. They had had a wonderful visit in Council Grove, Missouri with Mrs. Markus' and Mrs. Bjella's sister and family, the William Henrys (Theresa Aakre). The Bjella's have a trailer house with them and plan to spend the rest of the winter in Phoenix. They are having a grand time.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McCrum and two youngsters arrived the day before Christmas for the holidays at the Ray Kiland, the Will and Jim McCrum homes.

4-H Meeting

About twenty young folks and guests attended the 4-H meeting of the Smiley-Silverton unit at the Art Knutson home Friday evening, a week ago. The main topic, headed by the leader, Mrs. Adam Lendobeja, was the planning and arranging of the yearly program for this coming year.

The 4-H members decided not to have a Christmas party due to the fact there are so many other events during the Holidays, but the next meeting will be promptly at 8 P. M. at the Adam Lendobeja home Friday, Jan. 8. All members are urged to be there as this is an important meeting.

Church Program

The St. Pauli Sunday school pupils presented a lovely program for their parents and guests Friday at twilight. A scripture reading and prayer by Rev. A. Skibarud opened the program followed by "Greetings" by Arlene Thune; recitation by Marlyn Peterson; Pageant "The Light of Christmas" by upper grades accompanied by special music and choir; "I Like to Think of Christ, the Lord" by Lorraine Peterson; "O, Come, Little Children" by Mae Odegaard; recitation by Ronald Finstad; "Christmas Ladder" by five children; "Christmas Symbols" by four children; "My Gift" by Louise Mae Finstad; play, "We Are Led to a Little Child" by lower grades; "Good Night" Beverly Thune; Song by the choir, "Deiliger er Jorden"; "Thanks" by seven girls; closing prayer by Rev. Skibarud.

Mrs. Ted Markus left Saturday evening by train for the cities where she will visit relatives and receive medical examination at the University hospital.

More than a hundred building permits issued by the city during the past year represent a construction total in the neighborhood of $300,000, and considering the fact that no public construction was included in these figures, 1941 probably came close to being a record year for private improvements. Commercial development accounts for about half of the total and it is significant that nearly all of the business improvements have been made by firms already established here. The average cost of the thirty-eight new dwellings built within the city limits exceeded $3,000, which means that substantial homes are being built. Encouraging too is the total of fifty-eight miscellaneous permits, providing largely for improvements to older property, calling for an average expenditure of more than $350. In a period of discouraging headlines, the 1941 building record is especially gratifying.

We know now that this matter of curtailed supplies is a reality and not just something to theorize about. For the first time in the lives of many of us, we are going to be denied the right to buy and sell as we please. In a machine age, this land of machinery faces a machine famine. So what? The answer, they tell us, is that we are going to have to get more service out of our old machines. Well if that were the war's worst horror then there would be little reason to complain. It is not likely that the government will restrict the distribution of machinery to the point that necessary production in any field will be seriously retarded. During the coming months a steadily increasing portion of our national energy is going to be directed into the building of a war machine. The supply of energy that will be put into the war machine will not be taken from that source that is essential to economic production. It will be taken as much as possible from that source that has maintained our pleasures. There will be those who will suffer in the adjustment. All of us may be hurt to some extent. Its justification, however, is simple. It is necessary. [illegible] human beings would [illegible] for among themselves. [illegible] thing well for us [illegible] the people, individually and collectively, [illegible] make a mess of our affairs. [illegible] pride ourselves on being the reasonable creatures of the earth.

Come to think of it, this is the week we're supposed to say Happy New Year, so Happy New Year. [illegible] the coming year [illegible]. It looks like the near future [illegible] to bring us more than our average share of sorrow. Many of our pet plans are going to be sidetracked and some of our hopes are going to be wrecked—smashed all to bits. According to the official [illegible], we are going to travel thru the Valley of Adversity. [illegible] It need not be. We are not the first to start out on such a journey. Many have survived experiences just as trying as those we will be called upon to face. And we have suspected sometimes that those who have experienced the greatest hardships have also known the greatest happiness. It is possible that the two are related. On the hunch that this may be true, and in the belief that happiness may be one of the rewards of outstanding achievement, we'll extend to you our sincere wishes for a lot of real happiness, especially the kind of happiness that comes with the realization that an extremely difficult task has been well performed.

Principal change that the new year will bring to the official life of the city will be in the Mayor's office. In the retirement of Mayor Prichard the city loses the services of a good official, but when Harry Kinghorn becomes Mayor Kinghorn, the loss will have been offset. To Mayor Prichard, a round of cheers for the good job he has done. He hasn't hit a home run every time he has swung at the ball but, year after year, his batting average has been consistently high. And to Mayor Kinghorn, a vote of confidence along with our best wishes for a successful administration. Our city has been well governed in the past. We have no doubt but that under the leadership of its new officials it will continue to be well governed.

After the fine Fall we have been having, we are not going to complain about the Winter regardless of how tough it gets from here on in—providing of course that the cold weather will not be as late in leaving as it has been in arriving.

Surprising to us has been the calmness with which Americans have accepted unfavorable war reports. It is not the calmness of indifference or resignation. There is intense interest in what is happening and certainly no questioning as to what the final results will be. Americans are confident of ultimate victory. But that really is what makes their present calmness so surprising. Americans are not, by nature, a patient lot of people. They react to most things as [illegible] and the one thing [illegible] have been pretty badly banged up in the first innings of the war we have been expecting more complaints from the fans about the management. But the fans have remained calm. That is both surprising and gratifying.

Hardy Hansen Weds Shirlie Fry in Pretty Ceremony

Amid a beautiful setting of cedar and poinsettas, Harding Bertram Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hansen of Strandquist, a former Viking boy, was united in marriage on Tuesday, Dec. 23, to Miss Shirlie Adair Fry, daughter of Mrs. Esther Fry of Grand [illegible]. The ceremony took place [illegible] P. M. at the Zion Lutheran church at Viking with Rev. [illegible] O. Peterson reading the service uniting the couple. The church had been beautifully decorated for the occasion. The altar was banked with cedar and poinsettas among which was placed candelabras with alternate colored candles of white red and green.

The costume chosen by the bride consisted of a white brocaded satin gown with a fitted bodice and full skirt. A full length illusion veil was fastened with a tiara of pearls and orange blossoms. A golden locket, a gift from the groom, and a bouquet of white carnations completed her ensemble.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Mildred Haggart and Blossom Docken. Their gowns were of peach and aqua brocaded satin with fitted bodice and full skirt and they carried colonial style bouquets. The little Misses Shirlie Ann and Carol Nelson, nieces of the groom were the flower girls. They wore peach colored taffeta dresses and carried white baskets filled with rose pedals which they scattered along the aisle as the bride entered.

Gwendolyn Hanson, sister of the groom, played Lohengren's wedding march and also sang two songs, "At Dawning" and "Because". Her gown was of coral taffeta. Marjorie Tornell accompanied her at the piano.

The groom was attired in a dark brown suit and wore a white carnation boutonniere. He was attended by Kenneth Peterson of Fonley, N. Dak., who also wore a dark suit and carnation boutonniere.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors for the bridal party and approximately 45 guests.

Harding is a graduate of the Strandquist high school and of the University of North Dakota from where he graduated as an electrical engineer. Mrs. Hanson has also been a student at North Dakota University.

The couple will make their home in West Allis, Wisc., where Mr. Hanson is employed as electrical engineer by the Allis Chalmers company.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ranum and children of Shelby, Mont., visited relatives here over Christmas.

On Friday, the 19th the pupils of Poplar Glen school and their teacher Miss Norma Ortloff had their Christmas program. On the evening of Friday the 26th the Sunday school program was given at the Clearwater church. The program was especially well prepared by the committee, the Mmes. A. Blackstad, C. Haugen and S. Urdal and was enjoyed by the congregation.

GRAND RAPIDS IS COMING TO OPPOSE PROWLERS FRIDAY

Visitors Seeking to Avenge 25-23 Defeat Suffered Last Year

Coach Harry Newby's high school Prowlers will conclude their pre-district basketball play Friday night when they tangle with the Grand Rapids quint on the local floor. Last year, in a game played at Grand Rapids, the Prowlers eked out a 25 to 23 victory.

After enjoying a week of vacation the Prowlers, since Monday, have been sent through two-a-day practice sessions by Coach Newby. The morning drills have been devoted to basket shooting, with the afternoon workouts concentrating on team play. Coach Newby announced that he plans on starting the following Prowlers against the Range team: Johnny Campbell and Lenny Lorentson, at the forwards; Jack Melby, center; and Milt Iverson and Gordy Prestby, at the guards.

Prestby, a junior, has revealed possibilities, and Newby is anxious to discover the youngster's reactions during a game. Mark Leverson, Don Berg, Orlin Gernes, Bob Powell, and Homer Matheson, are other Prowlers that are slated to see considerable action Friday night.

The preliminary game will have Jay Jechort's Climax Vikings meeting the Prowler reserves.

Traffic Kills as Many Children as 8 Diseases

Traffic accidents alone last year killed as many Minnesota children as died from eight of the most feared communicable childhood diseases combined.

This one comparison in itself, according to the Minnesota Editorial Association's "Save 100 Lives" committee, points to the great need for stressing traffic safety every day of the new year we are about to enter.

A total of 54 children, ranging from less than a year to 14 years of age, died as a result of auto accidents. The identical number of deaths in this same age group were reported resulting from eight diseases commonly associated with childhood—scarlet fever, measles, septic sore throat, infantile paralysis, diptheria, chicken pox, dysentry and spinal meningitis.

The editors' committee, in its first safety message for 1942, asks every parent to be thorough and convincing in teaching children not to play in streets; to cross streets only at proper intersections; to walk on the left side along rural roads and highways—facing oncoming traffic and to avoid running into streets or roads from behind parked cars.

Midget Hockey Players to Practice Saturday

Players in the midget hockey league, coached by Walt DePaul, will start practice sessions on the arena ice Saturday morning between the hours of 8:30 and 10:40, it was announced today. JUNIOR HOCKEY SIX MEETS CROOKSTON SEXTET SATURDAY

Cathedral High School Will Compete with Local Aggregation

The season's first official body-checks will be handed out Saturday night, Jan. 3, at 7:45 when coach Walt DePaul's Hornets, composed of Lincoln high school hockey players and sponsored by the 40 & 8 voiture, will meet the Crookston Cathedral team on the arena ice. The game, which is the first on the locals schedule, opens a season which finds the Hornets aiming at participation in the state high school hockey tournament, which is slated to be played on the Roseau ice February 26th and 27th.

For the past week coach DePaul has been sending the squad thru intensive drills in an effort to organize the Hornets for their opening game. It is probably that DePaul will send the following Hornets, all veterans, on the ice for the opening face-off: John Robarge, goalie; Marlyn Dorn and Bob Protz, defense; Mouse Efteland and Doug Snelling, wings; and Lloyd Johnson, center. Bob Baker will perhaps center the second line, with Johnny Baker and Johnny Efteland playing the flanks; and on the third line, Don Wange, Les Vignes, and Lukey Langevin will see action.

The Hornets will journey to Williams on Jan. 9th for a game; and will play the fast-skating Williams aggregation in a return game on the arena ice, Jan. 17th.

The Salvation Army has been gathering waste paper for more than sixty years but never has the need to do so been more urgent than now, Captain Anderson stated today. Call The Salvation Army if you have any waste paper, metal, or rags which you can donate. Heretofore, all clothing received has been redistributed to the needy. That policy will be continued but even unusable garments will be welcomed as salvage material during this emergency."

Keeping Score

.... With BUCK OLSON

Junior Hockey Saturday Night

The Hornets, upon whom we will have to rely for most of our hockey entertainment this year, will open their season's schedule Saturday night, meeting the Crookston Cathedrals. The Hornets, with veterans in all positions, should come through with a win, by about a 6 to 2 score. It's easy to find six Hornet scores—Lloyd Johnson (if Jean is in the crowd) will score twice; Mouse Efteland, perhaps twice; and Jug Snelling and Bob Baker once each. And Johnny Robarge, in the Hornet goal, if he continues the fine play he has exhibited during the week's practice, will hold the Cathedrals to not more than 2 goals. That is, if he gets any assistance from his defense. And watch the actions of Crookston's young Jimmy Medved. His hockey play, the way he dribbles the puck, his method of skating, are all reminiscent of Chet LeDoux's style. Young Medved is very nifty.

Prowlers vs. Grand Rapids

It's back to the basketball wars for the Prowlers tomorrow night. One of these nights Harry Newby's young Prowlers are going to play two first halves of basketball, and then they'll come up with another win. Maybe the Prowlers are due for such a game Friday night, when they exchange points with Joe Malkovich's Grand Rapids team.

The Prowlers didn't appear very impressive in their offensive drills Monday afternoon. But very few state college teams would have looked impressive against the outfit the Prowlers maneuvered against. Here's the defense that was set up to face the Prowlers: Ray Lee, Don Lorentson, Bones Stadum, Eddie Flasch, and Johnny Hasket with Russ Garness spelling off Stadum while Bones was working with the reserves. The alumni used a zone defense for the purpose of giving the Prowlers experience in setting up their plays against such a formation.

Joke-of-the-Week Dept.

In that category is Jesse DuChamp's statement that he is going to enlist in the air corps. Jess, you know, is the fellow that crawled half way up the Mud Lake Game Refuge's observation tower, then heard a buzzing in the ears, saw spots before the eyes, felt a funny feeling in the stomach, and crawled right down again. When Jess is called on for service, and it'll be soon, I have an idea that he'll be assigned to a bomb shelter crew.

Mid-season Bowling Averages

In spite of the fact that a number of top-ranking keglers are no longer bowling on the city's lanes—Gay Strong, Carlo Columbo, Lynn Booren, Walt Ekeren, Morky Jaranson, and Ray Elden, among others, are missing—the bowling averages compare favorably with last season's figures. For instance, in the City league we find cigar-puffing Wally Carlson, of the Pharmacy team, rolling a 181 average, for top honors. Cal Colvin, anchoring the Times, and Les Boyd, of the league-leading Schmidt's, trail Wally closely, each having a 180 average. John "Snort" Langseth, the Schmidt's anchor man, has a 178 mark; and John "City" Jaranson, of the Coca-Cola's, has a 176 average.

Moving into the Commercial league, and that league has witnessed some fine pin-busting this year, you notice that Owen Scramstad's 191 average is the top mark, but Owen, the newly-wed, has only rolled in six games. The qualified leaders in the league are the Quality Dairy's Les Boyd and the Hartz Bakery's Carl Lasch, each of whom has a 182 average. Lasch, by the way, is a member of that famed all-southpaw bowling team in Grand Forks. Wally Carlson, also a member of the Hartz Bakery quint, is right up with the leaders with a 179 average. Kammy Berg, new ball, new delivery, and all, is lugging a 173 average for the Royal Bohemians; followed by Nickie Drees, also of the Bohemians, and Jimmy "Strikeball" Dryden, of the Quality Dairy, with 172's.

The Kiewel's Emil Dostal, posting a 177 average, is setting the pace for the Business league pinmen. The Hartz Office team has "City" Jaranson, with 175 average, in second place. Boyd of the Poppler's Furniture has a 173 mark; and Walt "Back-up ball" Peterson, rolling with the Creamery, is hitting a 172 average. George Mostue, of the brown-shirted Oen's five, carries a 170 average.

Topping the Service league bowlers with a fine 182 average, finds Emil Dostal, of the Elks, in first place. George Mostue of the C & C. has a 168. Lanky Clarence Hallstrom, of the Eagles, and Bill Dahlquist, of the C. & C., are clipping the maples for a 167 average. Frank Kobliska, of the Catholic Men, and Harold Eide, the Joe DiMaggio of the Elks, each have 166 averages.

The Classic league, bowling their schedule over the DuChamp alleys, has Wally DuChamp, of the Fitger's team, as the high average bowler. Wally has compiled a 179 average to take a substantial lead over "City" Jaranson and "Snort" Langseth, also members of the Fitger's team, who have marks of 165 and 164 respectively. The Palm Garden's Jesse DuChamp has a 169 average; while Lenny Helquist, of the P & G. and Bob DuChamp, of the Club Cigar five, each have 156's.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

While admitting that the outlook on past New Year's Days has been brighter than now, let's not forget that it always has stopped raining and the sun has always shone again.

If we say to ourselves, there's nothing but trouble ahead, and lie down on the job and do nothing, then we'll really have trouble.

So, in 1942, let's resolve to:

Keep our faces forward.
Keep our courage up.
Continue to plan ahead as before.
Keep our confidence in the future of this community and this nation; they're the BEST in the world.

Let's earn our happiness this year by overcoming the obstacles that face us. It can be done!

Sincerely yours,

Bill Prichard

ACHIEVEMENTS OF WPA IN MINNESOTA PAST YEAR LISTED

Agency Has Shared in Home and National Defense Projects

WPA accomplishments in Minnesota during the past year show a definite trend toward national and home defense activities, a report by S. L. Stolte, state WPA administrator, revealed today.

Expenditures for the program in the state were $42,795,120, of which more than $12,000,000 was contributed by sponsoring groups. Employment averaged 40,464 persons per month.

First in the line of defense activities was airport construction work which was carried on in every section of the state. Work completed this year included improvements of landing areas and runways, construction of hangars, administration buildings, and concrete aprons.

Another important phase of WPA's defense program was its training and re-employment program which sent nearly 1,000 men into defense industries after training them in trades vital to defense manufacturing. Classes are being conducted in 60 locations throughout the state, with more than 600 men now enrolled.

WPA'S extensive nutrition program, considered vital to national defense from a health standpoint, was carried on in a larger scale than ever last year through its housekeeping aide and school lunch programs. Approximately 6,000,000 nourishing noon lunches were served to some 70,000 pupils in 700 schools throughout the state.

Physical accomplishments during the past year brought to an impressive total the work completed in Minnesota since the program started six years ago.

Some of the major accomplishments are the completion of nearly 80,000 miles of new or improved roads; construction of 115 new schools and repairs to more than 900 others; more than 280 recreational buildings and four new hospitals and additions to four others.

50-Pound Waste Paper Quota Asked Per Family

Waste paper is needed to carry on the war against the Axis powers, and Northwest families and every family in America is called upon for 50 pounds of waste paper a month. Two newspapers a day, plus whatever magazines, wrapping paper and old boxes that can be mustered, will make up a monthly bundle of 50 pounds or more, defense officials explained. Waste paper is the raw material of corrugated paper boxes used for shipping war supplies. Waste paper may be sold to local dealers or given to charitable and welfare organizations that make collections.

NEW PARITY PLAN OFFERS FARMERS GREATER RETURN

Trovatten Favors Formula Advanced by Farm Leaders

Contending that the basis for parity prices on agricultural products advanced during the past year by federal officials gives the farmer too low a return, R. A. Trovatten, Minnesota commissioner of agriculture, in an address this past week, expressed the belief that this plan has been defeated and that a more favorable basis will be adopted if price control legislation is enacted.

"Early last spring, a drive was made by Leon Henderson, Bernard Baruch, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau and others," Trovatten said, "to freeze prices of agricultural commodities at 85 per cent of a so-called parity, one based on conditions that existed over thirty years ago. Modern conveniences and improvements were not taken into consideration by the U. S. Department of Agriculture in figuring parity. The method used is out of line with 1941 conditions.

"If they had fixed the prices last spring on this basis, it would have meant that the price of butter would have been frozen at 31 and a fraction cents a pound, eggs at a little over 25 cents a dozen, milk at $1.88 a hundred pounds and wheat at $1.03 a bushel."

Trovatten expressed the belief that the fight made against this proposal by the state commissioners of agriculture and farm organization leaders, started when they appeared before a Senate sub-committee on agriculture last October, has defeated it. A committee appointed by this farm group to draw up an up-to-date parity formula has just made its report, he said.

"Our committee figures parity on the basis of conditions that existed on October 1st, 1941, taking wages, conditions of industry and modern conveniences into consideration," Trovatten said. "On this basis parity for butter on October 1st, 1941, would be a trifle over 54 cents a pound, eggs would be a trifle over 41 cents a dozen, and grade A milk would be $3.52 a hundred. Wheat would be $1.77 a bushel."

MUNICIPALITIES GAIN FROM STATE HIGHWAY FUNDS

Spend More than $2,300,000 in an Average Year, Report Shows

The State of Minnesota spends more money for construction on trunk highways within municipalities than the municipalities spend for construction on all their streets and alleys, according to data gathered by the Highway Planning Survey, a joint project of the department of highways and the federal public roads administration. Apparently the municipal thoroughfares over which the trunk highways are routed are those which carry the heaviest traffic and therefore require greater expenditures for widening, relocation, new paving, new bridges and other modernization.

In municipalities of more than 1,000 population the state spent $2,398,230 for construction of trunk highways in a typical year. Total expenditures by those municipalities for construction, including rights-of-way, on all their streets and alleys in the same year, were $1,714,801, including outlays where they shared in the cost of improvements on trunk highways.

In villages of 1,000 population or less, the state spent $501,918 for trunk highway construction, while total expenditures by all villages in this population group for construction of streets and alleys the same year were $88,591.

For maintenance the same year, municipalities of more than 1,000 population spent $2,483,362 on all streets and alleys, while the state spent $397,336 to maintain the trunk highways within these municipalities. Both figures include snow removal. While the state outlays for maintenance totaled much less than outlays by the municipalities, they were 75 per cent greater on a per mile basis.

Expenditures by all villages of 1,000 population or less for maintenance of all streets and alleys totaled $203,944 for the year, while the state spent $320,112 to maintain trunk highways within the corporate limits of villages of 1,000 or less.

COUNCIL MAKES APPOINTMENTS, SETS SALARIES

New Members Assume Duties at Organization Meeting Tuesday

DR. HULBERT NAMED 4TH WARD ALDERMAN

Salary Increases Approved for Majority of City Employes

In a harmonious organization session Tuesday evening, the newly elected city council made appointments to the various city positions, and fixed the salaries of employes, granting increases averaging $10 a month in the majority of cases.

Sworn in as new members were A. B. Stenberg and Harry Severson, aldermen-at-large, and Robert Peterson, second ward. Emil Griebstein, first ward, was reelected council president, and John Baker, third ward, was named vice chairman, while P. G. Pederson was reappointed city clerk.

A letter was read from F. A. Rinkel stating that he would be unable to qualify for the position of fourth ward alderman owing to a conflict with his duties as a state employe.

A petition signed by a large number of residents of the fourth ward was presented by Rev. V. L. Peterson urging the appointment from the fourth ward of Arthur O. Erickson, who was a candidate in the last election.

After considering the matter the council unanimously elected Dr. A. E. Hulbert to fill the vacancy. Dr. Hulbert, who also had general support in the fourth ward, has been active in civic affairs, serving effectively as a member of the park board and holding the office of adjutant of the local American Legion post the past several years. He has resigned his position as a member of the park board.

Unanimously reappointed were Theodore Quale, city attorney, and Ole Legvold, superintendent of the water and light department, while Dr. H. H. Hedemark was named city physician. J. E. Quist, who has served as acting city engineer, was appointed city engineer and street commissioner at a salary of $175 a month, and John Jaranson was named street foreman. City Assessor T. M. Thronson was reappointed, as were all other present city employes.

The council confirmed appointment by Mayor H. W. Kinghorn of Dr. O. F. Mellby as city health officer, and of Wesley Burrell as mayor's secretary. Also confirmed was the reappointment by City Clerk P. G. Pederson of Miss Effie Hamry as his deputy.

It was voted to advertise for bids for city depositories and official city paper, bids to be opened February 10.

Previous to the convening of the new council, members of the retiring body met for a short session to dispose of unfinished business, including authorization of payment for the new fire truck in the amount of $3,430 less a two per cent cash discount.

Members of the council who retired from service Tuesday were Clarence Sande, alderman-at-large; S. Salveson, second ward, and E. O. Iverson, fourth ward, in addition to H. W. Kinghorn alderman-at-large, who was elevated to the office of mayor.

135 ARRESTS FOR DRUNKENNESS IN CITY DURING 1941

Police Chief Makes Report on Activities in Past Year

A substantial increase in the number of arrests for drunkenness in this city in 1941 as compared to 1940 is revealed in a summary of activities of the police department prepared by Chief L. W. Knadle. The total increased from 101 in 1940 to 135 last year, while arrests for all causes numbered 241 compared to 223 the previous year.

There were 20 arrests for drunken or reckless driving last year, compared to 29 in 1940, while 17 speeders were taken into custody. The past year saw 17 arrests for petit larceny and burglary, compared to 25 the year before. Three arrests were made for car theft in 1941, compared to five in 1940.

Various other offenses made up the remainder of the total.

Power Plant Produces 4,597,600 KWH in '41

The Thief River Falls municipal power plant in 1941 set an all-time record for output of electric current, producing a total of 4,597,600 kilowatts, it was announced today by Ole Legvold, superintendent of the water and light department.

The total compares with 4,172,2[illegible] kilowatts produced in 1940, and represents an increase of approximately nine per cent.

Featuring the 1941 record is the fact that, owing to a more plentiful supply of water in Red Lake river, nearly half the aggregate output, or 1,903,400 kilowatts was produced by the water turbines, compared to 1,594,700 kilowatts from this source in 1940, a previous high mark for recent years.

Aside from the water power, the greater part of the load in 1941 was carried by the McIntosh & Seymour unit, which produced 1,411,000 kilowatts, followed by the smaller Busch-Sulzer unit, which turned out 884,300 kilowatts and the new 1,700 horsepower Busch-Sulzer unit, which yielded 398,900 kilowatts.

Reflecting the steady growth in output, the local plant produced a total of 3,857,000 kilowatts in 1939, 3,489,000 in 1938 and 2,032,000 in 1931, ten years ago.

FARM MACHINERY MEETING SLATED ON JANUARY 20TH

Sponsors Plan for Record Turnout at Session in Auditorium

Plans for the farm machinery day to be held in Thief River Falls on January 20 are now nearing completion, County Agent Ernest Palmer, said today. The meeting which is scheduled for the city auditorium, will take in the entire trade territory of Thief River Falls and other towns of Pennington county, and is scheduled to commence at 10:00 A. M.

Representatives of the state agricultural extension service, University Farm, the Northwest Farm Equipment association of machinery manufacturers and distributors, and county machine dealers will participate in the program.

Those heading arrangements for Farm Machinery Day expect a record turnout. The meeting has the backing of the county extension service, the local USDA defense board, the AAA, implement dealers, local editors, local farm organizations, the state agricultural extension service and U. S. Department of Agriculture.

"The situation is one which not only vitally affects every farmer individually, but is a patriotic challenge as well, since agriculture must keep production at full capacity to feed this country's allies as well as its own fighting men and civilian population. Steel must be released for tanks, planes and guns, but meanwhile farming must "carry on" with even less labor than usual.

$289,000 SPENT ON WELFARE IN COUNTY IN 1941

Total Includes Estimated $90,000 Expended on WPA Labor

COST TO PENNINGTON COUNTY WAS $44,883

County Share Includes Poor Fund Reimbursements for Prior Years

Including an estimated $90,000 spent by the WPA, a total of $289,587.57 was disbursed for public welfare in Pennington county in 1941 under the supervision of the county welfare board, it was revealed in a year-end report by John X. Lynskey, executive secretary.

The total compares with $264,611.22 for 1940, it being explained by Mr. Lynskey that much of the increase during the past year is accounted for by the fact that in 1941 poor fund reimbursements for prior years were made by the county to its subdivisions in the aggregate amount of $13,621.32.

Of the 1941 disbursements, an aggregate of $44,883.08 represented county funds, while $42,993.59 came from the state treasury, and $182,480.12 represents federal funds. Allowing for the poor fund reimbursements, the county's share for current outlay was virtually the same as the 1940 total of $30,206.37.

Making up the gross disbursements for the year were old-age assistance, $80,565; aid to dependent children, $25,737; poor fund, $10,219.63; administration, $7,815.93; WPA, $90,000; social welfare fund, $2,169.85; surplus commodities (five months) $20,801.08; food stamps (seven months), $25,728; student aid (six months), $480; aid to the blind, $4,721; and war veterans' relief, $2,050.26.

Expenditures for old-age assistance were $1,115 less than in the preceding year, while the outlay for aid to dependent children was 109 more, and administrative expenses were about the same.

Commenting on the report, Mr. Lynskey stated, "CCC and NYA disbursements are not included because of the small amount of control which the welfare board exercises over these two programs, and also because they are no longer strictly relief projects. It should also be pointed out that the welfare board has very little control over WPA expenditures, since its only function in this respect is the determination of eligibility. Finally, the poor fund, too, is not entirely under the control of the welfare board, since it is administered in part by the board of county commissioners".

Families receiving aid of various kinds in 1941 were numbered as follows: Old-age assistance, 410; aid to dependent children, 90; WPA, 212; surplus commodities, 474; food stamps, 175; student aid, 28; aid to the blind, 16; and war veterans' relief, 13.

In 1931, ten years ago, receipts were $27,004.17.

Receipts by quarters for the past two years were as follows:

	1940	1941
March	$ 9,740.36	$10,032.08
June	10,189.48	11,170.07
September	9,736.64	10,805.22
December	13,547.91	14,158.98
	$43,214.39	$46,166.30

A total of $52,200 in United States defense bonds was sold thru the postoffice in 1941, Mr. Anderson reported, in addition to a large quantity of defense savings stamps, of which $850 worth were sold in the month of December.

Sjolander Reports on Activities of Employment Office Here

Reflecting a nation-wide trend toward increased employment opportunities due, in part, to the National Defense program, the Thief River Falls office of the Division of Employment and Security showed a sharp increase of total placements in 1941 over the previous year, according to a report made public today by C. H. Sjolander, manager of the Thief River Falls office.

A total number of 1587 placements were made last year as against 784 in 1940—a gain of over 100 per cent. Approximately 70 of these placements were farm placements, the majority of which were made by the Division's volunteer officers in Red Lake Falls, Warren, Oslo, Argyle, Stephen and Hallock. These volunteer officers, who serve without pay, played a very important part in aiding farmers to secure needed harvest hands this fall.

An interesting side light of the Division's 1941 activity is the number of non-local placements made. Several men have been sent from this locality to work at army and navy air bases in Newfoundland and the British West Indies and over a hundred young men from this area have been placed with the Lockheed Aircraft Corporation and the Vega Airplane Company at Burbank, Calif. as trainees for skilled factory work of various kinds. Many referrals were also made in 1941 to the Federal Civil Service Commission.

The area served by the Thief River Falls office comprises the counties of Pennington, Red Lake, Marshall, Kittson and Roseau.

Willie, we apologize. When we offered a coal with as little ash as BLUE DIAMOND COAL we had no intention of adding to the unemployment problem. Of course there is a little ash, but we'll admit it doesn't cause a chore.

NEW COMMODITIES ALLOCATION BOARD FOR COUNTY NAMED

did not arrive from Washington. Until the forms arrive, no tires can be sold, Ted G. Driscoll, state director of commodity allocation said. The forms were expected momentarily, however, and sale of tires under the new plan was expected to get underway during the week.

Appointment of the local commodity allocation boards was made by Governor Stassen from names supplied by Major G. Schilbred chairman of the local council of defense; Herman A. Kjos, judge of probate; and County Attorney Paul Lundgren.

Instructions forwarded the local board by Mr. Driscoll asked that arrangements be made at once for a headquarters. One of the first tasks given the board is to make arrangements with approved tire dealers and garages who will make the inspection required. First step of the car owner seeking authority to purchase a new tire will be to take his tire to one of these dealers for inspection. If the dealer reports that the tire cannot be repaired, the car owner then will be required to file an application with the allocation board. If his request is approved, the board will issue a certificate allowing the car owner to buy from his usual dealer.

Purchase of new tires will be limited in general to vehicles used by doctors and nurses, ambulances, fire fighting and police service, law enforcement, mail service, garbage disposal, buses transporting passengers, school busses, farm tractors and trucks transporting materials and equipment for utilities and various commercial industrial and defense purposes.

Sales of new automobiles have been stopped, and it was expected plans would be announced for allocation of such sales as are permitted similar to the tire rationing. The local commodity allocation boards, it is contemplated, will handle this and allocation of other articles that may later be placed on the restricted list.

The Marshall county allocations board includes Fritz Larson, Warren, chairman; H. G. Ostbye, Stephen; and Mrs. Elizabeth Haugen, Newfolden. In Red Lake county the board includes H. B. Lane, Red Lake Falls, chairman; and Theodore Christenson and Mrs. Angela Olson, both of Red Lake Falls.

Don't Take Letters When Crossing Canada Border

C. J. Houska, deputy collector of United States customs at the international bridge at International Falls, has received instructions from Washington of interest to every person who plans to go into Canada, reports the Grand Rapids Herald Review. Briefly, it is definitely ordered that no letters, maps, notes or other tangible forms of communication may be taken across the border in either direction. The order gives custom officials authority to search both persons and vehicles, whether coming into or going from the United States. Even old, opened letters are barred from crossing the border. This ban on international communications affects all United States border points.

President Roosevelt has given us a rough idea of what the war is going to cost us during the next year and in spite of the fact that the expenditures will be tremendous, there will be no inclination on the part of Americans to complain. Whether or not the war will leave us bankrupt is not now of first importance. The immediate problem is to win the war and the American people will cheerfully make whatever sacrifices are necessary toward that end. In the fast spending of such huge sums of money it is inevitable that many mistakes will be made. There will be waste and there will be graft. All that can be hoped for is that waste and graft will be reduced to the lowest possible minimum; that inefficiency will be penalized and corruption punished. As one important safeguard against these things, a well organized minority can still be useful in our national government. While we are united in our present national purpose, within reasonable limits national policies and practices should still be subjected to scrutiny and criticism.

The war is now a month old and in the nearly five weeks that have passed since the surprise attack on Pearl Harbor the Japs have made some gains. But considering the advantage they had in choosing the time and place to strike, the slight progress they have made during these five weeks must be discouraging to the Japanese high command. So far all our forces have been able to do is to fight a delaying action and in this they have been successful. It may be necessary to continue that delaying action for months to come. It will take a long time to move a well equipped army into the Far East and it would be folly to strike back until we are ready. Waiting for that time will tax our patience. We will have to adjust ourselves to the expectation of discouraging reports. That very important factor, time, is on our side however, and we can afford to be patient.

In the war of nerves President Roosevelt scored a victory with his speech to Congress this week when he outlined the production quotas for the next two years. You can bet a new hat that his speech was the most discouraging news Berlin or Tokyo has heard in a long time. This year's totals will be 45,000 combat planes and 45,000 tanks, along with a lot of other miscellaneous material. But our production program won't really get under way until next year.

We are getting a few samples of price control that serve as an indication of what may be ahead of us in the exchange of all commodities but so far only a few of the most important items of consumable goods have been regulated. In the meantime the general price level is moving upward. Retail prices have not advanced as rapidly as wholesale prices but they will follow as old stocks are depleted. If ceilings are not established the vicious spiral will continue indefinitely. Better to put the brakes on now. Then it won't hurt so much when the bottom caves in.

What we need now is a few days of forty below weather. Then we would be comfortable when it warmed up to twenty below.

From a source usually reliable—the days are now getting longer again.

State officials are looking forward to problems with which we will be confronted when the war ends and plan to build up cash reserves with which to finance public work programs. That would be a good thing for us to do. When the war ends we will have a serious unemployment problem again and now is the time to prepare for it.

There will be no highway improvements in Minnesota during the war except those that are necessary for defense, Governor Stassen has decreed. Highway funds will be used to pay debts and to build up reserves for construction in the post war era when public work projects will be necessary. That plan has much merit. Anyway it looks like we are not going to have much need for highways for some time to come.

ALL-STARS DEFEAT HOTTENTOT QUINT OF DETROIT LAKES

Former Prowler Stars Score Victory by Decisive 73-48 Count

The Thief River Falls All-Stars, a team composed of members of the state champion Prowler basketball squad of 1938, and with two former all-state players, Roy Lee and Bones Stadum, in the line-up, handed the undefeated Hottentots of Detroit Lakes a 73 to 48 trouncing in a game played on the Laker floor Friday.

The All-Stars played a nifty and smooth-passing game, setting up the plays that sent Roy Lee and Eddie Flasch in for close shots, and with Don Lorentson and Bones Stadum and Gordy Caldis controlling the rebounds, the locals out-played the Laker quint. The former Prowlers broke into a scoring rush in the first period to run up a 20 to 8 score, and continuing their fine play in the second period, the All-Stars held a 35 to 18 lead at the half.

The Hottentots played their most effective brand of ball in the third period, outscoring the All-Stars, 19 to 10, to cut the Thief River lead to 8 points, the score being 45 to 37. The All-Stars, applying pressure, poured in 28 points in the final quarter while holding the Tots to but 11 points, for a final score of 73 to 48.

Roy Lee and Eddie Flasch led the scoring for the locals, with Roy collecting 19 points and Ed garnering 18. Ray DeBerry, Detroit Lake's center, registered 19 points for the Hottentots.

Arrangements are being completed for a return game to be played on the Thief River floor in the near future.

The summary:

Crookston Will Meet Prowlers Here Friday

Bob Oftelie's under-the-basket shot, after picking off Erskine's rebound, in the last four seconds of play gave Grand Rapids a 25 to 24 win over the Prowlers here Friday night. The gritty Prowlers, after trailing during the greater part of the game, and by a 21 to 16 score at the end of the third period, made a fourth quarter rally that saw the locals go into a one point lead, 24 to 23, with two minutes of play remaining, Jack Melby's tip-in-shot, following Bob Powell's free throw attempt, boosting the Prowlers into the lead.

The Prowlers will begin their district competition Friday night when they play the Crookston Pirates on the local floor.

Lenny Lorentson's three field goals, with Jack Melby setting up two of the baskets, and Campbell's free throw, gave the Prowlers their seven first-period points, to knot the game at 7-all. Bob Oftelie, Grand Rapids captain and center, with a field goal and a free throw, and Dave Holum's field goal and two free throws, accounted for the Grand Rapids points.

Free throws by Campbell, Powell, and Lorentson, brought the locals half-time score to 10; while field goals by Dick Sisler and Bill Felosi, and free throws by Oftelie, Holum, and Felosi, added seven points to the Grand Rapids total, and gave the visitors a 14 to 10 lead at the intermission.

Powell opened the second half with a free throw. Rollie Boehnlein added a free throw for Grand Rapids, and then followed with a one handed field from out on the court. Oftelie and Boehnlein connected with gift tosses. Lorentson, fouled by Holum, made good on one of his two free throws; and when fouled by Black, Lenny dropped in another free throw. Berg looped in a free throw. Boehnlein recovered a rebound and counted a field goal; and just as the period ended, Berg took a tip from Jack Melby and scored on a close shot.

Johnny Campbell and Milt Relerson pumped in long shots, into the east basket, to cut the Grand Rapids lead to one point, 21 to 20, early in the final period. Sisler scored for the visitors, but Campbell, on a long dribble, went in for a push-up shot. Jack Melby, after several tries, tipped in a field goal to give the Prowlers the lead, setting the stage for Oftelie's game winning goal.

In the preliminary game the Climax Vikings, with Bobby Nelson and Gus Olson going on a fourth period scoring rampage, defeated the Prowler "B" team, 31 to 19.

The summary:

40 & 8 HORNETS WHIP CATHEDRAL HOCKEY TEAM 5-1

Local Sextet Shows up Well; Will Play at Williams Friday Night

The 40 & 8 Hornets, the junior hockey team coached by Walt De Paul, opened their season's schedule Saturday night with a bang-up 5 to 1 win over the Cathedrals of Crookston in a game played on the Arena ice.

The Hornets journeyed to Williams on Friday for a game with the fast-skating border town aggregation. Williams will play a return game here on Jan. 17th.

Cathedral's diminutive center-ice player, Jimmy Medved, opened the scoring in Saturday night's contest with a shot from the blue-line that found the Hornet goal. Bob Baker, hooked a pass from Don Waage, and back-handed a shot into the Crookston net, to knot the score at the 8:30 mark. Lloyd Johnson's long shot from the side-boards beat goalie Theroux to give the Hornets the lead at the ten minute mark.

After a scoreless second period, the Hornets whipped in three goals in the third stanza to push the game beyond the reach of the blue-and white clad Cathedrals. Jug Snelling picked up Mouse Efteland's rebound and drove an angle shot into the nets; and a moment later Jug, on an assist by Johnson, plinked another flat shot past the Crookston goalie. Mouse Efteland concluded the game's scoring taking a pass from Marlyn Dern and beating Theroux on a shot from the red-line.

The contest became a fracas in the final minutes of the third period when, after Lloyd Johnson and Cathedral's goalie, Ken Theroux, in a mix-up around the Crookston nets, had come to grips and exchanged blows, the two teams joined in a rolling, boiling mass of hockey players. After several minutes of Donnybrook Fair the officials, Ade Lorentson and Bill Gray, restored order, handed out a major penalty to Lloyd Johnson and a minor to Cathedral's Mullins.

The summary:

Thief River (5)	Pos.	Crookston (1)
Robarge	goal	Theroux
Dern	defense	Mullins
Prate	defense	Leguer
Snelling	wing	Prudhomme
M. Efteland	wing	W. Sullivan

.... With HUCK OLSON

They Chilled the Hottentots

Several of the 1938 Prowlers, state high school basketball champions—Bones Stadum, Roy Lee, Don Lorentson, Eddie Flasch, and Gordy Caldis—made a motor trip to Detroit Lakes Friday night for a game with the Detroit Lakes Hottentots to the score of 73 to 48. I must have been quite a battle, for it is reported that Bones had 13 personal fouls called on him.

But the former Prowlers gave themselves a chilling, too, for on the return trip, sometime in the morning hours, they ran out of gas. They surely picked a cool Saturday morning for running out of gas.

Bones, by the way, isn't returning to the "U" this quarter; and neither is Don Lorentson. Roy Lee has been classified as 1-A on the selective service list, and his order number is 941, but he was advised to return to the "U", at least for the next quarter.

Oen's Chilled Bjorkman's, Too

In a city recreation basketball game last Tuesday night the Oen's team, with Russ Garness and Bones Stadum in their line-up, upset the fair-haired boys of city basketball by handing the Bjorkman's Toggery team a 30 to 20 defeat, in as wild and rough-house a game as the Auditorium floor has ever witnessed. The way the boys were delivering body checks you would have thought that the two teams were playing hockey.

Postponed to Jan. 12th

That epic bowling match between the Catholic Men and Elks Club, the results of which will determine whether Walt Larson will be without a moustache or Joe Zavoral will wear a moustache will be rolled next Monday. The match had been booked for the 5th, but the Elks boys needed a week's practice to iron out the kinks they developed during the holidays.

The Honeymoon Is Over

For the Prowlers—and it's been quite rough—and tomorrow night, when they meet the Crookston Pirates, they get down to the business of bringing home the district basketball bacon. The game, which will be played on the local floor, should give an inkling as to the possibilities the Prowlers have of successfully defending their district title. Crookston has dropped a close decision to East Grand Forks, on the East Side floor; and East Grand and Warren have played a nip-and-tuck game. Consequently, it can be assumed that Crookston, East Grand, and Warren are on a par. Perhaps Warren, with Dana Allen, Jack Gilbertson, and Henry as its hotshots, should be given an edge. If the Prowlers can knock off the Pirates tomorrow night, well, then the locals' prospects will be given quite a boost.

Walt Scheela, who replaced L. Tygeson as basketball mentor at Crookston, is developing his team around a group of speed boys. In the Pirate line-up, playing at a forward position, is the eighth region's 100 and 200 yard sprint champion, little Bill Ericson. Bill will have lettermen Glen Simpson and Jim Laurent as team-mates, and the other two posts will probably be filled by Roy Winchester and Maw Brandt.

Lose Heartbreaker

The Prowlers lost a heart-breaking game Friday night when Grand Rapids eked out a 25 to 24 win. It's only stating a fact to say that the Prowlers could as easily have had a 6 point victory as the 1 point defeat, for the locals missed at least four set-up shots. Once during the first half, Jack Melby broke up a Grand Rapids play and dribbled in for a push-up shot, but Jack must have been thinking of the malted milk that he would win from Al Holzknecht if he made the basket, for his shot bobbled off the rim. And Johnny Campbell, in the second half, dribbling in the east basket, and all alone, must have spied a cute, blonde number in the bleachers, for he put on the slack as he neared the basket and his shot didn't clear the rim. Lenny Lorentson, too, roared in for a set-up, but his shot didn't connect. Yep, they were like the Three Musketeers; but they were shooting blanks.

Plenty of Excitement

The hockey fans that were in attendance at the Arena Saturday night certainly received full value for the 15 cents admission fee that was charged. It was the opening game of the season for both clubs, the Hornets and the Crookston Cathedrals, and the boys played surprisingly fine hockey. Lloyd Johnson, who had had a chip on his shoulder all night, finally got in a mix-up with Cathedral's Kenny Theroux, and before it was ended both teams were mixed in the brawl.

The Hornets play at Williams on Friday; and travel to Grafton on Sunday for a game with Sid Foy's junior team. The next home game is slated for Saturday night, Jan. 17th, when Williams will play a return game.

[illegible] Hypnotism [illegible] on Student

For information on the phenomenon of hypnosis, students in most college psychology courses are referred to textbooks. Prof. Harold A. Swenson, however, provides classroom demonstrations for his students at the University of Chicago. An amateur magician, he learned hypnotism 15 years ago. When the question is raised, Professor Swenson calls a likely student to the front of the room, puts him quickly into a trance. While the student performs hypnotic feats of memory and endurance, Professor Swenson continues his lecture, explaining that under hypnosis, the subject's mind is free of all external stimuli except the suggestions of the hypnotist.

RESERVISTS NOW SUBJECT TO CALL FOR ARMY DUTIES

Minnesota Selective Service Board Explains Their Status

Selective service state headquarters has received word from the commanding general, Seventh Corps Area, that "reservists"—men who have been released from active military duty—are now subject to immediate recall. The announcement was made by Lt. Col. J. E. Nelson, state director.

All men released from active duty because of dependency, overage, or hardship were transferred to a reserve group. The term "reservist" is intended to include members of the enlisted reserve corps, regular army reserve, and enlisted men of the National Guard not in federal service.

In general, the order will affect those enlisted men released from active duty for one of the following reasons: dependency; considered necessary for the national health, safety or interest; "key men" essential to national defense; and those over 28 years of age.

Re-assembling these released men will be carried on through the agencies of the selective service system. When orders are issued for reservists to report for active duty, they are to report to the local board. The local boards will provide transportation to reception centers.

It was emphasized that if dependency of a critical nature still exists in the case of a man released because of dependency, he may apply directly to the commanding general, Seventh Corps Area, for deferment. Such applications must be accompanied by affidavits from two disinterested, reputable citizens who have personal knowledge of the case.

However, only those cases in which dire necessity exists will be deferred, it was pointed out. Deferred cases will be subject to review from time to time.

It was also announced by state headquarters that Class 1-H cases (deferred classification for those over 28 years) will be reconsidered, in accordance with recent congressional legislation.

On July 1, 1941, a law became effective which required all selective service registrants over the age of 28 to be put in Class 1-H, unless they were otherwise deferred. Now registrants will no longer be deferred because of age.

This recent legislation has the effect of beginning the classification process over again for such men. They will be given the same consideration as other registrants, it was announced. Dependency, physical qualifications, and occupations will be considered. Only if such men are not qualified for deferment in any other classification will they be placed in Class 1-A (immediately available for induction).

WAGES IN STATE UP $78,000,000, GOVERNOR SAYS

Workers' Earnings in 1941 Are 15 Per Cent Above Previous Year

Wages paid in 1941 to Minnesota workers who are covered by "job insurance," will total approximately $652,000,000—an increase of about $78,000,000, or 14 per cent, over 1940—it was announced today by Governor Harold E. Stassen, after study of a report submitted to him by Victor Christgau, director of the employment-security division.

The report, prepared by the research and statistics section of the division, is based on information received by the division from employers throughout the state.

In the third quarter of 1941, Governor Stassen said, payrolls amounted to $171,000,000, or approximately 18 per cent more than the $146,000,000 payroll for the third quarter of 1940. Increases were also shown in the first two quarters of the year. Indications are that this upswing was maintained during the closing quarter, which fact provides the basis for the estimate that there will be an increase of approximately 14 per cent over last year's Minnesota "covered" payrolls of $574,000,000.

The figures do not include wages of agricultural workers, domestic servants, public employees, and other groups not covered by the employment and security act.

BAN IS PLACED IN FORCE ON SALE OF NEW AUTOMOBILE

Production of Cars, Light Trucks to be Halted Shortly

The government Thursday prohibited purchase, sale or delivery of new passenger cars and trucks pending establishment of an automobile rationing system and disclosed simultaneously that production of new automobiles and light trucks would be stopped entirely "within a few weeks."

The order, issued by Donald M. Nelson, OPM priorities director, is effective immediately.

Stoppage of production, in line with a policy adopted Thursday by the supply priorities and allocations board, will compel the establishment of a rationing system, OPM said, and it is expected that purchases of new cars and trucks will be limited under the plan to government, lend-lease, and the most "essential" civilian users.

Price Administrator Leon Henderson, who is administering the entire ration program effective January 5, also will supervise the automobile rationing which is expected to become operative about January 15.

OPM estimated that at the present time more than 450,000 passenger cars are in stock with dealers. No figures were available as to the stocks of light or heavy trucks.

Nelson said action would be taken to permit completion of conditional sales, chattel mortgage and similar automobile purchase contracts if delivery was made prior to Thursday. The orders also will be amended to permit repossession of cars under such contracts in accordance with laws governing such repossessions.

Officials said, further, that it was possible that additional modifications might be permitted to cover particular hardship situations.

Farmers Attention!

As you all know, we are at war, and on account of that we will not be able to supply you with tractors and new automobiles, so you know that you will have to use your old car and tractor as long as the war lasts and possibly for some time after the war.

Don't you think it would be good policy to look over your machinery and car and see what is needed in the line of repairs? We have one of the best shops in town, also good mechanics and up to date tools. We will be glad to estimate your job, at reasonable figures.

At present we carry a full line of repairs, and can take care of most anything. But we don't know how long this will last. So, if you have planned on overhauling your car or tractors, don't wait too long. Do it now.

Don't ruin your good car and wear out your tires by pulling trailers on icy roads.

We have about 15 cars that will answer that purpose, and at this time, when you can't buy a new car or new tires you should not hesitate in buying one of these cheap used cars. They are all good for many rough miles.

State Director of Selective Service Announces Details

LOCAL DRAFT BOARDS TO HANDLE DETAILS

To List Names of Men from 20 to 45 Not Previously Registered

Mayors of all communities in Minnesota will be asked to aid local draft boards in handling registration of an expected 210,000 men February 14, 15 and 16, Lieutenant Colonel Joseph E. Nelson, state selective service director, said Monday.

Orders issued by his office provide that local draft boards shall have responsibility for handling the registration of all unregistered men between ages of 20 and 44 inclusive, and request mayors of incorporated cities and villages to take responsibility for organizing set-ups in their respective communities, under draft board jurisdiction.

Mayor H. W. Kinghorn Tuesday announced the appointment of L. W. Rulien as registrar in Thief River Falls to cooperate with the local draft board in arranging for the registration.

The local boards also have authority to establish additional places outside of incorporated municipalities when necessary to make them convenient for registrants.

In the third selective service registrations, all men who have not yet registered previously, and who were 20 years old by December 31, 1941, and who will not reach their 45th birthday by February 16 will be required to sign up.

The registration offices will be open from 1 P. M. to 6 P. M. February 14 and 15, and from 7 A. M. to 9 P. M. February 16. The two days additional to the February 16 date set by the federal order were decided upon to give farmers and laborers opportunity to meet registration requirements without interrupting work, Nelson said.

POSTOFFICE WILL SELL AUTO STAMPS LATE THIS MONTH

No Supplies Yet Received at the Thief River Falls Postoffice

The internal revenue bureau decided Monday to put the federal auto tax stamps on sale at postoffices and revenue collectors offices this week, but officials explained there would be some points in the country which would be unable to get the stamps immediately.

The Thief River Falls postoffice has not yet received a supply of the stamps, it was announced here this morning, but they are expected momentarily.

The original plan was to put the stamps on sale beginning the week of January 26, but the bureau decided to move the time to this week.

This, said Internal Revenue Commissioner Guy T. Helvering, was for the convenience of motorists and to avoid congestion at the sales points. The initial $2.09 tax is payable not later than February 1. The stickers for the first tax are good until July 1, when new ones will be sold at the rate of $5 a year for motor vehicles.

George W. Werstlein, chairman of the Pennington county commodities allocation board, said today in reference to the Farm Machinery Day program next Tuesday, "The only duty of the allocation board at the present time is to ration tires. If it is necessary to conserve rubber, however, it should be equally important to conserve other materials. For that reason farmers should attend the farm machinery meeting at the Auditorium, Tuesday, January 20, and learn why it is better to repair and use their present machinery, rather than to discard it and purchase new, thereby taking that much steel and other materials out of production for war needs."

At the same time he urged every effort by citizens to adapt themselves to a war economy and to carry on productive work, so that the national income may be maintained and the financing of the war effort made possible.

On motion of H. O. Chommie, Club President E. S. Amesbury was instructed to send messages to President Roosevelt and Governor Stassen volunteering the services of the club in any needed capacity.

Farm Machinery Day Here Tuesday, Jan. 20

Farmers Invited to County-Wide Meeting Next Tuesday

TO OPEN AT 10 A. M. IN CITY AUDITORIUM

To Help Farmers Meet Shortage in Farm Equipment and Parts

Three speakers who will headline the Farm Machinery Day program at Thief River Falls, Tuesday, January 20 have been announced by County Agent Ernest A. Palmer, who says preparations have been completed. The event will be staged at the city Auditorium beginning at 10:00 A. M.

Representing the state agricultural extension service at University Farm will be C. H. Kelehan, while Ralph E. Stirrott, machinery expert, and Ray Peach, tractor expert, will represent the Northwest Farm Equipment association of machinery manufacturers and distributors who have joined with the state agricultural extension service and county machinery day sponsors to help farmers deal with the shortage situation in equipment and parts brought on by war demands for steel and iron.

Carl Anderson, chairman of the county USDA defense board, will make the opening statement. C. H. Kelehan will then discuss the farm equipment situation, its effect on farmers and what they can do. On the afternoon program, Mr. Kelehan will speak on safety in the use of farm equipment, a topic of special timeliness because women and children may have to operate machinery to offset a labor shortage.

Repairing and adjusting farm machinery will be discussed by Ray Peach, with special attention to plows, cultivators, grain binders and other implements most used in this area. During the afternoon a similar talk dealing with farm tractors will be given, stressing care and operation to prevent common troubles, make the tractor last longer and give better service. Both these talks will be illustrated by lantern slides, and the speakers will answer questions.

Ways and means farmers can use to solve machinery shortages which may occur on some farms will be discussed by Ralph E. Stirrott, including such matters as exchange of machinery, joint ownership, custom hiring and the like. Several local speakers will make brief statements regarding the local situation and plans for meeting it. The county agent will preside. The program will be entirely free and every farmer is urgently invited to come.

Free lunch will be served to those in attendance.

Kitty's Komments

R-r-r-ring The alarm chimes out in the cold still darkness of an early winter morning.

An answering grunt from the snug, warm regions of a comfy bed—a couple of feet reluctantly slide into the chill expanse of carpet slippers; arms slide into the cold sleeves of a robe, and in the dim night light a figure slowly descends a stairs.

The shaking down of grates, and soon the sound of wood cheerily burning. A delicious aroma of coffee soon wafts its invitation upward.

"Hey! Kit, wake up!".

"Oooh! It's too cold yet". A speculative toe peeps out from under the warm coverlet. "It is too cold!"

Again, more imperative, "Kit! It's warm down here".

"Well, I suppose if I must, I must." A hurried thrust into slippers, a rush down the stairs.

"It is warm, here in the kitchen".

Friend husband is enjoying a steaming cup of coffee. "It must be over thirty below this morning."

One difference between a difficulty and an "impossibility" is that it takes a little longer to do

CIVILIAN RESPONSIBILITIES

Subject of discussion at one of the luncheon clubs this week was, "What can a civilian do to help win the war." Nothing particularly dramatic was suggested so we concluded that except in case of an actual invasion the war-time role of civilians isn't apt to be particularly exciting. It is important however and for that reason it is not out of order to give some thought to the things that should be done.

Of first importance is the citizen's responsibility for doing an extra good job of his routine chore. Each one of us must do our bit in keeping the economic machine operating as smoothly as possible under the circumstances. Some will be called upon to make difficult adjustments. Few of these adjustments, however, will require a greater sacrifice than is made by many of the fellows who will carry a gun for less than a dollar a day.

There are two reasons why we should try extra-hard to do well in our respective tasks. One is that the tasks be done. The other is that we may gain the means with which to buy defense bonds and pay taxes. Our most important contribution to the success of the war will be to pay as large a portion of the cost as possible. Some of the cost will have to be carried along to be paid at a later date. Buying bonds will help in this respect. But the more we pay in taxes now the easier it will be to pay back what we now have to borrow.

During the war civilians will be called upon constantly for contributions for various activities and for co-operation with defense agencies. We must give and we must co-operate. Some of the things we will be asked to do will seem unreasonable. Some of them undoubtedly will be unreasonable. Mistakes will be made and fault finding will be easy. But in spite of mistakes we will have to give what we can and do what we can.

Boiling it all down, as civilians we will have to work hard, save, eliminate waste, co-operate as much as possible with all government agencies and grumble as little as possible.

School officials are wondering whether or not air raid drills should be practiced in the schools. Air raids are so remote a possibility that preparation for them seems like a waste effort. What to do? Our guess is that if defense officials recommend air raid drills in the schools then the schools should have air raid drills. Certainly they would do no harm and teaching the youngsters what should be done in case of an air raid is a good way to instruct all of us. And there always is the possibility of an actual raid. The one thing the war should have taught us by now is that we should be prepared for the unexpected.

At a meeting next Tuesday farmers of this county will be urged to repair their machinery now and this is one bit of advice that farmers can't go wrong on. There is a possibility that repair parts will be plentiful all through the summer. The war may end and any amount of new machinery may be available. But the war may not end and new machines and repair parts for old machines may be hard to get. That is more likely to be the condition. Not all repair needs can be anticipated. Farmers cannot know now all the parts they may need as the season goes along. But many replacements can be made now and that is the purpose of the "Repair Now" program.

How large a portion of the war cost could we pay as we go along? The answer is, "all of it." It is possible for a nation to carry on a war indefinitely without going into debt and we could do it more easily than most nations because we are most self-sufficient in raw materials. Less than a fourth of our population can produce all the raw material we need for food and clothing. Half the population is sufficient to convert the raw materials into finished goods and supplies, and distribute them to where they are needed. The remaining fourth could be the war machine. Germany and Japan are now operating on such schedules to a large extent and if they succeed in tapping supplies of the raw materials they are short of they can fight indefinitely. Under such a system all citizens are soldiers and all the activities of a nation are harnessed to the war machine. If our war lasts very long we too will adopt that system, not by choice but of necessity. So far our war has seriously affected but few of us. We have been merely inconvenienced.

Topics of the Times

By N. A. H.

Paradoxically, the government starts collecting a use tax on automobiles at the same time it makes it difficult for folks to use them.

Something more to worry about. When the rationing of news print paper commences, this column may be crowded out of the Times.

Take a tip from the clock, advises a commentator. It passes the time by keeping its hands busy.

Now is the time to take waste out of waste paper.

Remember not long ago when we poked fun at the Japanese?

Have you bought yourself a bicycle yet?

The nation's railroads are accepting with fortitude the news that motoring is to be greatly curtailed.

Something to ponder—More U. S. citizens lost their lives in traffic accidents in December than were killed at Pearl Harbor.

After all, ladies, it is only natural that girdles should be due for restriction.

With municipal liquor store sales of more than $100,000 in 1941, Detroit Lakes folks had no reason to be thirsty.

This nation, we are informed, will spend at the rate of a billion dollars a week for defense during the coming year. Dig, brother, dig.

Japan is now returning to this country with interest the scrap iron and high test gasoline obtained here during the past several years.

John Munt Visited King Tom

To John Munt of the local police force, war news from the Philippines is like news from home. For a period of three years, until June of 1938, he was stationed at Corregidor as a coastguardsman and the scene of the present heavy fighting near that important island base is familiar ground to him. He has an interesting collection of pictures, one of which is shown above. While visiting in Pampanga Province he visited King Tom, chief of the Balugas, one of the native tribes, who recently made important news by his declaration that he and his warriors would fight the Japs. In the picture King Tom is demonstrating his skill with a long knife, his tribes most important fighting weapon.

NEWFOLDEN

FUNERAL RITES TO BE HELD SAT. FOR WALDRON BOYS

Pat Waldron returned home on Tuesday morning on the train with the bodies of his two sons from Elko, Nevada. The boys were instantly killed, Jan. 2 in a car accident near that place. Herbert and Raymond and Herbert's wife were enroute home from California for a visit with their parents when the accident occurred. Herbert's wife is still in a serious condition, but is expected to recover. Their new Ford was damaged beyond repair. Pat who has been at the scene of the accident reports that the road was straight but very icy, who was at fault was hard to determine due to the condition of the girl, and he could not get in touch with the driver of the truck. The funeral for the boys will be held in the Swedish Mission church at Viking on Saturday. Adolph Johnson and Clarence Jorgenson who accompanied Pat to Elko returned home Monday evening. Adolph, Clarence and Pat stated that it was a partly head-on collision with a big semi-van with a four wheel trailer behind.

The shipping association will ship stock Tuesday, Jan. 20.

The Newfolden High School basketball team lost their first game of the season to Roseau on Tuesday evening by a score of 17 to. The Newfolden boys started to click in the last quarter and began to find the hoop just before the final gun. They missed two shots which could easily tied the score, but their shooting was ragged through out the entire game. They only made 6 of 15 free throws. Roseau has not yet lost a game. Newfolden plays their next game at Badger next Friday evening.

HAS RARE BIRD MOUNTED AND IS HALED INTO COURT

Detroit Lakes—Forest Bradbury of Lake View shot a woodduck last fall and was so impressed with the beauty of the bird that he decided to have it mounted. Not until a game warden called at his home and hauled him into justice court did he realize the law prohibits shooting this bird. The warden had seen the bird in the taxidermist establishment. The justice fined Mr. Bradbury $10 for shooting it but tempered his order with cool justice and suspended the fine.

HORNETS SEXTET BREAKS EVEN ON TILTS PAST WEEK

Junior Hockey Team Defeat Grafton and Loses to Williams

After playing three "road" games the Hornets will return to the home ice Saturday night when they meet the Williams high school team. At Williams Friday night the locals dropped a 7 to 6 overtime decision, and playing at Grafton on Sunday they trounced the Foy's Junior team, 7 to 0. The Hornets journey to Crookston tomorrow night for a contest with the Cathedral sextet.

Wally Lindgren's goal in the overtime period gave Williams a 7 to 6 win over the Hornets in game played on Williams outdoor rink Friday night. Walt DePaul's team knotted the score in the third period, after [illegible] Clarence Schmidt had given Williams the lead, when Bob Baker rammed home his second goal of the game to force the frost-bitten contest into overtime.

Outskating and out-manouvering their heavier opponents, and playing such an effective back-checking game that goalies Robarge and Weflin had but 8 stops, the Hornets piled up a 7 to 0 score on the Grafton Juniors in a game played at Grafton Sunday. Jug Snelling's two goals in the first period sparked the locals to an early lead, and the Hornets, on goals by Moose and Johnny Efteland and Lloyd Johnson, increased their lead to 5 to 0 in the second period. In the second period the Grafton team did not get a shot at the Hornet goalie, Johnny Robarge; and in the final stanza, with Ronnie Weflin in the nets, Grafton had but three chances at the goal. Johnny Efteland and Johnny Baker scored the Hornets sixth and seventh tallies.

The locals resume their district competition this week, moving to East Grand Forks tomorrow night for a game with the Little Green Wave.

The Prowlers and the Pirates were plagued by basket-wild shooting Friday night, with both teams bobbling their set-up and close-in shots. Crookston's margin of victory was due to the Pirates effectiveness from the free throw line, for Coach Schoeh's team connected with 9 of their 17 tries. The Prowlers hit the basket only 3 times in their 17 free throw tries.

Bob Powell took Orrin Pederson's game-opening tip and dropped a push-up shot into the west basket, for the game's first points. After the Pirates Omer Larson had scored on a set-up shot, Powell, taking a pass from Mark Lorentson, racked up another field goal, on a close shot. Roy Winchester dropped in a Crookston free throw; and speedy little Bill Gibson circled his guard and lifted a shot into the net. Lenny Larson, on a scramble under the basket, tipped in a rebound, to give the locals a 6 to 5 first period lead.

Lorentson flipped a pass to Pederson, and Milt counted on a close shot. Glen Simpson dribbled in from the left side of the court and dumped in a one-handed shot. Don Berg looped in one of the three free throws that the Prowlers scored. The Pirates' Bill Morlan, the stocky veteran who sparked the Crookston team to their win, lofted a one-handed shot into the net; and then followed with two free throws. Chunky Cal Morken, who shared Pirate starring honors with Morlan, swished a long shot, from the south sideline, into the basket, and the Pirates held a 12 to 9 lead at the half.

The first two minutes of play in the second half saw Crookston's Winchester and Larson leave the game on fouls. Ericson picked off a looped ball and dribbled in for a close shot. Berg, for the Prowlers, and Simpson, of the Pirates, worked up free throws. Jack Melby, who was the game's high point man, took a pass from Lenny and worked in a field goal, and after Simpson had made a free throw, Melby scored again for the Prowlers, on a tip-in shot. Morken pumped in his second long shot, and Ericson increased the Pirate margin by dribbling in for a set-up. Milt Rene[illegible]son came in from the left side of the floor and swished a one hander into the net.

Simpson and Morlan, on free throws, increased the Pirates' lead to 20 to 16 as the final period opened. [illegible]

LOCAL WRESTLERS LOSE SIX TILTS AT CROOKSTON, WIN 4

N. W. Aggie Mat Men Have Advantage of Greater Experience

A group of ten wrestlers from Thief River Falls lost a closely contested match with the Crookston Aggies on Tuesday evening, January 13, winning four matches and losing six. This was considered a creditable showing in view of the fact that most of the local boys had never wrestled in competition before while most of the Aggies have been wrestling up to two and three years in regular competition.

Winning the matches for Thief River Falls were Roy Oftedahl, 108 pounds; John Ofstedahl, 145 pounds; Paul Rustan, 175 pounds; and Orrin Pederson, heavy weight. All four wins by local boys were decisive in that they had a clear cut superiority over their opponents.

Those losing their matches were Herbert Claify, 111 pounds; Bill Nelson, 121 pounds; Gerald Flattum, 128 pounds; Gene Nelson, 135 pounds; Roman Paulson, 155 pounds; and Harold Hanson, 165 pounds. Bill Nelson and Gene Nelson were very close to winning their matches and lost out only in the final minute.

The Aggies are scheduled for a return match to be held in Thief River Falls on February 12.

Keeping Score

He'll Need a Mustache Cup

Joe Paveral's team-mates certainly let Joe down Monday night. Joe, you know, had a wager with Walt Larson of the Elks, that the Catholic Men, Joe's team, would take the series when the two teams met on the Mint alleys Monday night. If the Catholic Men lost Joe was to grow a mustache. Here are the results, with the Elks team sweeping the three game series: Elks, 782 [illegible]; Catholic Men, 710 798 761. Harold Ude, reacting under the pressure like a Joe DiMaggio, paced the Elks team with games of 167 175 203. Frank K[illegible] did his bit to keep Joe bare-faced by rolling scores of 169 167 112, to lead the Catholic Men.

Watch This Big Defense Man

Williams high school will furnish the opposition for the Hornets Saturday night, and the fans, and the Hornets too, should keep an eye on Clarence Schmidt, the northerners nifty stick-handling defense man. I think he'll be wearing sweater No. 12, or No. 16. You will be able to identify him for he'll be the big boy that makes all the rushes. It gives the boys a headache to think that he's only a junior in high school and will be hanging around for another year of hockey.

Leonard "Erick" Helgeland says that I should have been [illegible] when Jesse DuChamp rolled that 258 score last week. According to Erick, it should have been a 300 game. Erick it should have been a 300 [illegible] three nine pin counts.

Here's the Reason

That the so-called "second" five started for the Prowlers against the Crookston Pirates Friday night. In a scrimmage last Wednesday afternoon Coach Newlo made the promise that he would start the team that scored the most points, and Bob Powell, Mark Lorentson, Orrin Pederson, Orlo [illegible], and Goody Pr[illegible], by a 7 to 5 score, out-pointed the "first" "seconds" and won the starting [illegible].

Miscellany

It'll be good news for the 1942 Prowler football team to learn that East Grand Forks' chunky Ken Kennedy, the best backfield man in the eight region, has enlisted in the navy. Kennedy was eligible for a fourth year of high school competition, but he decided to pull a Lee Ben Anderson and see the world by joining the navy.

Crookston's Willie Morlan, a fine dribbler and play-maker, will play only one more game for the Pirates. Morlan will become ineligible in a couple of weeks, when he reaches the 20 year age limit.

Continuing their point-a-minute play, and their supremacy over the Senior Bums, the High School Faculty rallied in the final period to defeat the Bums, 54 to 52, Saturday afternoon. Harry Newby collected 20 points, to pace the Faculty scoring, while Owen Borchert's 15 points topped the Senior scoring.

KJOS AT CONVENTION OF PROBATE JUDGES

Probate Judge Herman A. Kjos left Tuesday evening for Minneapolis where he is attending the annual convention of the Minnesota Association of Probate Judges, which concluded [illegible] today at the Radisson Hotel.

105 Cases Filed in 1941 in Office of Pennington County Judge of Probate

A total of 105 cases of all kinds were filed during the past year in probate court, compared to 85 in 1940, Probate Judge Herman A. Kjos stated today. Included were 67 new probate cases, and 13 cases of insanity, feeblemindedness and inebriacy, in which ten commitments were ordered, while two were restored to capacity. Nine child delinquency and two dependency cases were heard, and 11 guardianships were opened. Judge Kjos performed 11 marriage ceremonies during the year.

PLANS NOW TAKING SHAPE FOR WINTER SHOWS FEB. 2 TO 6

President McCall Gives Details of Programs at Crookston

Plans for the 1942 Red River Valley Winter Shows in Crookston Thursday 2 to 6 are now complete according to T. M. McCall, president of the Winter Shows board of managers. President McCall states, "War-time demands for crops and meats have aroused more than usual interest in the showing of all breeding stock, poultry, and farm crops."

The home of the Winter Shows, the three large buildings owned by the Red River Valley Livestock Association, will be filled to capacity with livestock, crops, poultry, industrial and educational exhibits.

New and improved quarters have been provided for the poultry show staged by the Northern Minnesota Poultry association. The new poultry show rooms have been built in Annex A. The second floor of Annex B, formerly occupied by the poultry show, has now been reserved for much needed concession space for industrial exhibits. Annex B will now be used exclusively for industrial exhibits of machinery, seeds, and feeds, and other products of interest to Valley farmers.

Valley-wide organizations will hold annual meetings during Winter Shows week. The Red River Valley Livestock Association will hold its annual stockholders meeting on Monday, February 2. The livestock association treasurer, A. A. Habedank of Ada, reports that the association now has its $50,000 property free from all indebtedness. Appropriate ceremonies will be held at the annual meeting in disposing of redeemed mortgages.

Township and district weed inspectors and members of the Red River Valley Crops and Soils association and county agents from Valley counties will meet on Tuesday, February 3. Officers and directors of the Red River Valley Dairymen's association and the Ninth District Horticultural Society will meet on Thursday, February 5. Meetings scheduled for Thursday, February 5, include the annual meeting and banquet of the Red River Valley Development association, the Valley Potato Improvement association, and the Northern Minnesota poultry association. The sales of purebred cattle, sheep, and swine are scheduled for February 5 and 6.

OWL TURNS OUT TO BE BALD EAGLE

Buffalo—Martin Block, Buffalo farmer, shot and winged a young bald eagle on his farm recently. It had been molesting his fowls. Mr. Block thought it was an owl, and could not distinguish its features in the dark. Eagles are quite scarce and it caused considerable curiosity. Game Warden Dechaine of Annandale was notified and he verified its variety. The eagle measure seven feet from its wing tips although a young bird. The game warden took it with him to make such disposal of the bird as he decided was proper.

BIBLES OVER 130 YEARS OLD OWNED AT CAMBRIA

Lake Crystal—The display of Bibles at the Baptist church on Universal Bible Sunday, and the story in the paper about the Bible belonging to John R. Jones, have aroused interest in old Bibles. Mrs. Ruth Roberts of Cambria reports that she has one which has been in the family since 1810, when it belonged to her grandfather. This would make the book more than 130 years old. The text of this Bible is in Welsh, as is the one owned by Mr. Jones. It seems quite possible that the two belong to the same edition. Mr. Jones' Bible bears the date 1807.

FIVE-YEAR-OLD GIRL SAVES LIFE OF PLAYMATE

Mahnomen—Bobby, five-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Shambaw, owes his life to his five-year-old playmate, Betty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Person, who saved him from drowning recently. A group of children were playing on the river near the Person home at Beaulieu, when the sled on which Bobby was sliding overturned near an air hole and he was thrown into the water. With quick presence of mind little Betty crawled to the edge of the ice, grabbed Bobby's head, while a younger sister cried for help, and Wayne, an older brother, who was playing nearby, dashed to the water and pulled Bobby to safety. Although perhaps too young to appreciate the fact that she is a heroine, Betty took her deed as a matter of course.

Seventy-one students from Red River Valley counties have been given honor roll and high scholarship ratings for the fall term at the Northwest School of Agriculture at Crookston. R. J. Halvorson, Registrar at the Northwest School, lists 25 students on the honor roll with Gunhild Nesland, junior, of Grygla, taking first honors with a rating of 2.93.

More Die in Traffic in U. S. in December Than Was Pearl Harbor Toll

America's greatest naval disaster—Pearl Harbor—resulted in almost 2,000 soldiers, sailors and marines losing their lives. But in the month of December more than 3,000 men, women and children lost their lives in traffic accidents on the supposedly peaceful streets and highways of our country.

Because of the great loss of life at Pearl Harbor the entire United States rose up in arms, vowing that this dastardly attack would be avenged. Recruiting offices of the army, navy, marines and coast guard were swamped with applicants eager to defend their country in its hour of peril. "Remember Pearl Harbor" became the battle-cry of the nation as it girded itself for the tremendous task ahead as we prepare to make the invaders atone for the death and destruction they caused.

But what of the 3,000 civilians who came to untimely deaths in traffic mishaps last month, asks the Minnesota safety council? Why has no spontaneous all-out campaign risen to avenge them? Why have not motorists and pedestrians formed long queues awaiting their turns to enlist in the war against traffic accidents?

"If all the suffering, death and property destruction in the United States caused daily by automobile accidents were caused by Hitler—instead of by ourselves—think how everyone would cooperate to stop them!

"What must each one do to help reduce this unnecessary, wasteful destruction? Simply this — just press a little more lightly on the accelerator; making certain to dim your lights when meeting another car at night; having brakes, tires and lights checked more frequently and postponing that alcoholic drink until a time when not driving a car.

MOUNTED ALBINO DUCK PROUDLY DISPLAYED

Clinton—Conservationists say it occurrs only once in a million years, but "Buster" Tate is a lucky hunter having shot an albino duck last fall. The duck is a perfect white and so beautiful and rare that he has had it mounted in full flight. At present it is being displayed at a local cafe.

POCKET GOPHER DIGS HIMSELF OUT

Good Thunder—With the ground unfrozen many farmers in this locality were plowing up to the first of the year. Probably the most unusual experience for December was experienced by Fred Wingen who tells of noticing a mound of black dirt on top of the snow north of town, where a little pocket gopher was working in the unfrozen dirt.

Origin of 'Hack'

Hack is an abbreviation of the word hackney, which was originally a riding horse from the French haquenee, an ambling horse or mare especially for ladies to ride.

FRASER FARMER PLOWS ON DECEMBER 21ST

Fairmont—Julius Peyman, Fraser township farmer, found plowing fine on December 21. He went out on that day with four horses hitched to a gang plow and worked for two and a half hours on the latest date he can remember plowing since he has been farming.

"I felt like I've got to get the work done when I can," he said, "as help is going to be short next year and it's going to be hard to get work done." Last year Mr. Peymann had all he could do to get back and forth from house to barn at this season of the year without any thought to plowing.

MINNESOTA DRAFT BOARD CITES RULE AS TO DEFERMENT

New Regulations Are Now in Force, State Director Announces

Minnesota selective service headquarters have just completed the distribution of part of an amended set of selective service regulations to all local boards, boards of appeal, government appeal agents, and other Selective Service agencies, Lt. Col. J. E. Nelson, state director, announced today.

There are a number of changes in the new regulations over those which have been in effect for the past months, of which the most drastic are those governing deferment by reason of dependency. The new regulations are much stricter regarding dependency deferments. They provide that no registrant shall be deferred by placing him in Class III-A, (1) if he acquired such status on or after September 16, 1940, and before December 8, 1941, unless he is able to present information which convinces the local board, or the board of appeal (if an appeal is taken), or the President (if an appeal is permitted to be taken), when classifying him, that such status was not voluntarily acquired at a time when his selection was imminent or for the primary purpose of providing him with a basis for Class III-A deferment.

In the cases of registrants who acquired dependents on or after December 8, 1941, the regulations are even more rigid. They provide that no registrant shall be deferred if he acquired such status on or after December 8, 1941, unless he is able to present information which convinces the local board, or the board of appeal (if an appeal is taken), or the President (if an appeal is permitted and is taken), when classifying him, that such status was acquired under circumstances which were beyond the registrant's control.

Registrants who will be most affected by these changes are those who married after September 16, 1940. Local boards are now required to re-examine these cases to determine those who were married when their induction was imminent or impending. Those who married after December 8, 1941, have no claim for dependency whatever, unless the dependency status was acquired under circumstances which were entirely beyond their control.

ODD CATTLE POISONING INCIDENT DISCOVERED

Anoka.—Owen A. Larsen who lives on route 8, Minneapolis, had an unfortunate experience shortly after Thanksgiving when he lost 23 head of cattle out of a herd of 25, with lead poisoning. Mr. Larsen reports that pellets from a gun club shoot had dropped over into his cornfield and lodged in the corn and was finally put in the silo unknown to him. Dissection of the animals in a refining plant showed the cause of the loss of his live stock. Mr. Larsen warns all farmers to look out for any lead material as it is a deadly weapon. Even paint left in pails has caused the same trouble, as animals lick it and it takes very little to cause poisoning in any domestic animal.

WAR PUTS STOP TO 11 MILLION STATE HIGHWAY PROGRAM

Savings Will be Placed in Post-War Construction Reserve Fund

State Highway Commissioner M. J. Hoffman this week officially announced that stringent war-time restrictions in conformity with the new federal highway policy, will limit 1942 trunk highway construction in Minnesota to a basis of acute necessity, and consequently several millions of dollars worth of normally important highway improvements, previously programmed for construction this year, now must be deferred.

However, in line with the policy recently proclaimed by Governor Harold E. Stassen, state highway revenues which would have been used to build them, and which is dedicated to highway purposes, will be placed in a postwar highway construction reserve so that the deferred projects may be gotten underway without delay when the emergency has passed.

Three million dollars, which under normal conditions would have been used to place under contract early this year projects for which plans and specifications already were nearing completion, already have been earmarked in this post war Reserve fund. Other funds not required for defense construction, maintenance operations, fixed charges and operating expenses, will be added to this fund as revenues accrue.

The ultimate size of this postwar reserve depends primarily upon how heavy are the demands for defense construction, what increase in maintenance cost load may result from the suspension of planned construction projects, and how deep are the inroads upon state highway revenues resulting from the ban on tire and new car sales, reduced use of gasoline and general lowering of travel volume due to war-time conditions. In any case, however, it is the plan of both the governor and the highway commissioner that the deferred highway improvement projects, together with all of the funds that can be set aside to finance them, will be placed in a large reservoir of meritorious public works projects for post-war construction. Preparation of surveys, plans and specifications for these deferred projects will continue during the emergency so they may be ready for the "green light" when present restrictions are lifted.

Such a program, Mr. Hoffman said, will serve a dual purpose. It will not only help the state to overcome the war-time set-back in the normal place of highway improvement and meet vital transportation needs, but as a work program it will also cushion the anticipated post-war economic shock by stimulating employment and industry at a time when it may be most needed.

Commissioner Hoffman recalled that as early as July 1, on the strength of legislation then pending in Congress, he cautioned that overshadowing defense requirements might necessitate postponement of many long planned and already programmed improvements, regardless of their desirability.

Now, under actual war conditions, restrictions in effect are even more drastic than was at that time anticipated. They are expected to rigidly limit trunk highway construction to: the building of necessary access routes to military and naval establishments or defense industries; correction of specific defects in Minnesota's 1,632 miles of strategic network routes and to such future work as is necessary to protect highway sections under stage construction from wasteful deterioration. The restrictions constitute virtually a complete ban upon any federal aid secondary projects on state or county roads.

WHEN AUTO LICENSE PLATES COST $1.50

Cokato.—On the wall of a room in Gust Akerlund's photograph studio hangs a Minnesota auto license number for the year 1910. The number is 101, and Gust used it on a Ford runabout he drove in those days. An auto license 30 years ago cost only $1.50, the Cokato photographer recalls. Minnesota did not issue license plates until 1909, according to Gust, who was one of Cokato's first three auto owners. His first machine was a 1903 Oldsmobile, and was powered by a one-cylinder motor.

371 ENROLLMENT AT WINTER TERM OF N. W. SCHOOL

Number Is Eight Less Than Was Registered One Year Ago

The winter term of the Northwest School of Agriculture at Crookston opened on Monday, January 5, with an addition of 9 new students, making a total enrollment for the year of 371 as compared to an enrollment of 379 for 1941. The acute labor shortage on farms of the Red River Valley area caused an eight per cent loss of students enrolled in the fall term.

Registrar R. J. Halvorson states that all vocational courses in agricultural engineering such as electric arc and acetylene welding, shop work, gas engine, and tractor work, field machinery, blacksmithing, and carpentry are filled to the limit.

Superintendent T. McCall announces that work on the new dormitory for girls will be postponed until such time as construction will not interfere with our nation's war effort.

AIRPORT PICTURES CAUSE INVESTIGATION

Breckenridge — Albert Zarske had a very odd experience last week. He answered a knock at his door to find two soldiers standing in front of him. They asked where he had been Sunday. He informed the soldiers he had spent part of the day with his mother-in-law and the balance at work for the Great Northern Railway. Asked if he owned a 1929 Ford car, Zarske answered in the affirmative and that the license number presented by the soldiers was his own. But when the soldiers told him that it was a black colored car he told them they were on the wrong track. His car is gray and the battery was in his basement. After checking all facts the soldiers informed Mr. Zarske that someone had taken a picture of the Alexandria airport on Sunday. His car license had been turned in and they expressed regret they had caused him any inconvenience.

MOSQUITO BUZZES ON CHRISTMAS EVE

Brainerd—While sitting quietly at home admiring the Christmas tree on Christmas Eve Ralph Purdy was disturbed by an unusual buzzing sound for this season of the year. On closer inspection Ralph discovered that a live and hungry mosquito was out looking for a meal. The insect lit on Ralph's arm and quick as a flash it was killed and is now on exhibition to prove the fact.

GOVERNOR MAKES PLANS FOR HUGE AFTER-WAR FUND

Stassen Stops Expenditures Not Needed Now for Defense

Preparing a cushion to help the people of Minnesota over the difficulties of the re-adjustment period that will follow the war, Governor Harold E. Stassen this past week took initial steps to set up a post-war construction reserve fund which he expects to reach $15,000,000 by the time it is needed.

The Governor directed that $4,000,000 be set aside at once from funds now available and mapped out a program calling for additions from time to time that will build the fund up to $15,000,000 or more, the amount depending upon the length of the war.

The program is in line with policies recommended by the Council of State Governments, of which Governor Stassen is the president. Minnesota, it was disclosed, is the first state to develop a comprehensive program of this kind. Main purposes prompting the governor's action were given as:

1. To curtail non-defense spending now, stopping competition with defense requirements and tending to curb inflationary effects.

2. To develop a pool of completed plans and available funds for a construction program to furnish employment in the post-war period.

Governor Stassen set aside $3,000,000 in state trunk highway funds and directed that it be held as part of the post-war construction reserve. During the war, he directed, expenditures for highways will be limited largely to improvements vital for defense purposes, roads leading to agricultural processing plants important for war-time production, completion of present contracts and highway maintenance.

Governor Stassen also ordered that $1,000,000 already appropriated for state building construction by the legislature be placed in the post-war reserve and construction of the buildings deferred. Only major exceptions to this postponement of authorized building are additions to the Faribault School for the Feeble-Minded and Gillette Hospital for Crippled Children.

FAKE INSPECTORS ARE AT WORK AT GLENCOE

Farmington—Fake inspectors appear to be making the rounds these days. A stranger recently called on a farmer near Glencoe and made a slight adjustment on one of his machines. Upon completion of the work the farmer was asked to sign a statement indicating the man had made the inspection for the machine company. The statement came back as a bank check for $140 and the farmer was stuck.

Over 6,000 Lose Drivers Licenses in '41; Drunken Driving Is Main Offense

More than 6,000 Minnesota motorists suffered revocation or suspension of their driver's licenses during 1941, according to a report of the year's activities of the driver's license division of the highway department made to Commissioner M. J. Hoffman. Of this record-breaking total, 2,770 were outright revocations and 3,249 were suspensions for varying periods of time.

Convictions for drunken driving led all causes for revocation, with 2,411 drivers being deprived of their permits for ignoring this cardinal rule of the road—"If you drink, don't drive; if you drive, don't drink." Chronic inebriates were next high in number of revocations, with 123 losing their licenses. Other major causes for revocation were: driving a stolen car, 99; speeding, 70; failure to stop and disclose identity, 36; reckless driving, 20; driving without driver's license, 19, and criminal negligence, 11.

Speeding brought suspensions to 1,379 drivers in 1941, the report revealed, with other leading violations being reckless driving, 634; failure to show financial responsibility, 280; intoxication, 269; ignoring signs and signals, 131 and refusing to take a required driving test, 103. Thirty-day suspensions were meted out to 1,487 violators, sixty-day suspensions to 310, ninety-day to 264, six-month to 205 and indefinite to 652.

Youthful drivers under 20 years of age led all others in the number of suspensions enforced against them, with 1,197 being deprived of their driving permits. Everybody Come!

Time Waits for No Man

THE farmers of America have a tremendous task before them . . . if our country is to become the "breadbasket of the democracies." To accomplish this herculean job our farmers must be prepared . . . their plans must be made . . their machinery must be ready. The farm equipment manufacturers, whose dealers are represented on this page, must be able to anticipate the demand for repairs. This means that our farmers must order their repairs NOW to insure delivery before the spring rush begins. Meetings are being held all over the country, with local defense boards, county agents and farmers, all stressing the urgent need for ordering repairs now so that vital farm machinery will be ready.

Let us be sure that farmers of our community will be ready. Let us bend every effort to being prepared when America's greatest agricultural emergency reaches the field next spring. Every dealer listed on this page pledges his wholehearted cooperation in furnishing you the repairs needed to produce abundant supplies of life giving food, which Secretary Wickard says will "win the war and write the peace."

NOW is the time to repair our tools and implements needed so urgently to carry out Uncle Sam's Food-for-Defense program. The distant goal ahead is a better-fed, happier world. No one has so great an opportunity of helping America reach that goal as has the farm family—farm families like those living in this community. We can meet the challenge IF WE DON'T DELAY.

Never let it be said the people of our community forgot the time-proven truth, "Time waits for no man."

Order Repair Parts Now!

The following Thief River Falls implement dealers are co-operating to the utmost in maintaining an efficient repair part service during the emergency.

STATE HIGH COURT HOLDS FOR KRATKA IN COUNTY ACTION

Upholds Township in Action Involving Losses in Closed Banks

The Minnesota supreme court Monday handed down a decision upholding the action of district court here in ruling in favor of the Town of Kratka, which had instituted mandamus proceedings against the auditor and treasurer of Pennington county to compel them to pay over money representing taxes collected for the township, covered by the tax settlement of October, 1939.

Auditor A. M. Senstad had pointed out that he had acted under the directions of the state public examiner in withholding the funds because of a greater amount claimed to be due from the township because of losses sustained in consequence of the insolvency in 1925 and 1926 of certain county depositories.

The high court's opinion stated, "In our opinion the county auditor improperly adopted the suggested expedient to raise the question of which, as between the county and the township, should stand these insolvency losses."

The amount due the town of Kratka, which was represented in the action by Theodore Quale, is more than $400. Other county subdivisions also are affected by the ruling.

TRINITY LUTHERAN ANNUAL MEETING ATTENDED BY 200

Theodore Quale Reelected Vice President of the Congregation

Nearly 200 voting members of Trinity Lutheran Church attended the annual business meeting of the congregation Tuesday evening. The ladies aid served dinner in the banquet room at 6:30, after which the meeting was called to order by the president, Pastor G. S. Thompson.

In his pastoral report he thanked the members of the congregation for the cordial welcome accorded him and his family upon their arrival from St. Paul December 2. Upon his suggestion a letter of greeting will be sent to the Rev. R. M. Fjelstad, former pastor of the church, under whose guidance the work of 1941 was conducted.

I. E. Quist, C. M. Oleson and E. A. Yonke were elected unanimously to succeed themselves as members of the board of trustees for a three-year term. Theodore Quale was re-elected to the office of vice-president of the congregation for a term of one year. Dr. O. F. Mellby succeeds himself as a member of the board of deacons. Severt Benson was elected chairman of the board of ushers. Stanton Dahlen and Milton Larson were appointed tellers for the voting.

Dr. O. F. Mellby presented a joint resolution from the Church Council recommending the adoption of the "Common Service" as the order of worship for the morning services of the congregation. After an explanation of this step toward greater unity among Lutheran synods of this country, and a discussion by various members, a motion was carried to adopt this resolution, no dissenting votes being cast. It was pointed out by the pastor that the service will be thoroughly rehearsed and explained before being put into formal use.

C. M. Oleson, chairman of the board of trustees, reported a proposed budget for 1942, including local and synodical expenditures, of $6585.00. W. N. Morell, treasurer, with a series of graphic charts, presented an analysis of the plan and, upon motion, the budget was adopted. The campaign for pledges was then begun, to be completed by the end of January.

CROP INSURANCE APPLICATIONS DUE BEFORE MARCH 1

190 Pennington Co. Farmers Have Made Application up to Date

Pennington county farmers are urged to mark a red ring around February 28 on their calendars. That's the final day that they can protect income from their 1942 spring wheat crop by taking out a policy with the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation.

"We have received applications for crop insurance on the 1942 crop from 190 farmers in the county," Carl R. Anderson, chairman of the local AAA committee, said today, in pointing out that a federal crop insurance policy insures the farmer up to 75 percent of the normal production of his farm in case of crop failure from any natural hazard.

In 1941 391 farmers insured their income from wheat by taking out this protection, Mr. Anderson pointed out. Cash equivalent to 2976 bushels of wheat went to 108 farmers in the county that reported losses. To obtain this protection, these men paid cash equivalent to 862 bushels of wheat.

BOOK DRIVE FOR SERVICE MEN IS UNDER WAY HERE

May be Left at the Library or Girl Scouts Will Call for Them

The Victory Book Campaign, a nation-wide drive to collect books for use of men in the Army, Navy and Marines, began this week in Thief River Falls, Mrs. Hazel Halgren, in charge of the campaign locally, stated today.

Local residents having books they wish to donate are asked to bring them to the public library. Otherwise they may be left at the postoffice lobby, and arrangements also have been made for Girl Scouts to call for them if notice is given Mrs. Halgren at the library.

Books of all types are needed and should be in good condition. Magazines are not wanted because of the difficulty of transportation and because they get out of date so rapidly.

Fiction, [illegible] fiction, [illegible], sports stories, and westerns, are in great demand with the boys. Biographies, books on travel, and books of history are also popular. Because many of the men are carrying on studies while in the service, informational books of all kinds are needed. Recent technical books will be especially useful.

RECREATION HIGHLIGHTS

The recreation program is sponsored by the city council in cooperation with Work Projects Administration recreation leaders.

During times of war and world conflict there is need for wholesome and entertaining recreation activities. Realizing this need, local recreation officials plan to go all-out in endeavoring to satisfy the leisure-time needs of Thief River Falls parents and children. Already numerous activities for all age groups are available on the present program. Until further plans materialize, everyone is encouraged to take part in activities now in operation.

Winter Activities

Although the weather during the past week or so has been good on the fuel bill, it hasn't helped skating and tobogganing activities. However, all facilities are still operating at a minimum. When colder weather arrives (?) adults and children alike are encouraged to get out and skate and use the toboggan slide at Lindolph Park. All boys interested in midget hockey are asked to report to the arena on Saturday morning. Walt DePaul is in charge of the practice sessions.

Puppetry

Next Thursday's puppet show will be "The Three Little Pigs". Other short features will support the main attraction. The show starts at 4:20 o'clock and is held in the arena upstairs. The puppet construction room is open to all. Camille Dostal's library of funny books has gone over big. These books, along with other reading material, are available in the arena game room.

Miscellaneous

Adult men over 21 years of age are invited to reduce the waistline and have a good time at the high school gym on Wednesday nights. Basketball, volleyball, and badminton are all played. There is no charge made for participating.

Growing With Your Child

Institute of Child Welfare, University of Minnesota

What Is There to Do, Mother?

Alice stood disconsolately at the window, watching the snow being whirled about by wind that must have come straight from the north pole, it was so bitterly cold. She scratched aimlessly at the frost on the pane, until her mother said, nervously, "Alice, do stop that! Haven't I told you it makes dirty marks on the window?"

"What shall I do, mother? There ain't anything to do," complained the four year old in a whiny tone.

"Oh, goodness, don't bother me now. Run and find something. I'll be cutting out two sleeves for the same arm if you keep at me that way!"

All around the room were strewn toys — Alice's doll, its clothes and carriage, crayons and scribbled pictures. It was not for lack of things to play with that Alice was discontented. What was the matter?

There are several possible explanations of Alice's plight. First of all, many a child becomes listless and dissatisfied with playing alone because she has had too constant companionship. That is, he has never learned to play contentedly alone, has never learned to depend upon his own ideas and resources, but has always had someone to make suggestions. Every child should learn to amuse and occupy himself independently, and not lean either on his mother or on other children for constant stimulus. A child who from early babyhood has been left to himself for short periods of time, with appropriate materials, develops his imagination in a way that is denied the child whose mother devotes herself to playing with or talking to him.

Note that I say "appropriate" materials. For some children, while they do not lack play materials, haven't the right kind. Thus, a doll that a child can dress and undress easily offers much more for the child to do than one whose clothes are put on with tiny buttons that the child can't manage. The little boy who is given tinker toys or a mechano set before he can manipulate the intricate, small parts, becomes discouraged, and so does not learn the exhilaration of accomplishment, as he would with a set of blocks that he could really build with.

Another child may become bored because he has too many toys. They provide such a multitude of distractions that he can't settle down to enjoy any single thing. It's a good thing to put away some of the Christmas toys soon after the holidays, so that they may have a fresh attraction later on when the possibilities of those that have been in use are temporarily exhausted.

German generals are dying off sufficiently fast to justify the suspicion that their honorable retirement in this manner is quite convenient to the wishes of the high command. But granting that there is dissension in the ranks of the leaders, there still is no reason for the hope that Germany is on the verge of collapse. On the contrary there is every reason to believe that we have a long, hard fight ahead of us that will tax to the limit our endurance as a nation. The one best bet to safeguard our standard of living and keep it from going into a nose dive is to work harder. A large portion of our energy must be directed into the building and maintenance of a war machine. This means that less of our energy will be available for the production of those things we have become accustomed to consider necessities. By applying extra energy we will be able to retain more of these so-called necessities. Less leisure and more efficient production is the only sensible answer to the problem.

Japan continues to score victories in the war of the Far East but we can see no reason for discouragement with the results at the end of the first month and a half of fighting. Several of the thousands of islands controlled by us and our allies have been captured, true enough, but only several. At the rate they are proceeding it would require years for the Japs to take all of them. And so far everything has been in their favor. The element of surprise, along with unquestioned supremacy in all branches of combat, has given them an advantage which is steadily diminishing. Each week now adds to the difficulty of their problem. While we are fighting a defensive war thousands of miles from our bases, it must also be remembered that the Japs are conducting offensive campaigns hundreds of miles from their bases, and that their lines of communication and supply are very vulnerable to attack. Considering the slight gains they have made with all the odds in their favor, the present prospects in the Far East are far from unfavorable.

American cheese makers have now succeeded in manufacturing an excellent imitation of Swiss cheese, holes and all. Minnesota made Roquefort has definitely established itself on the market. Necessity is the mother of invention and if the war lasts much longer American ingenuity may yet find a satisfactory substitute for Lutefisk.

We have a hunch that there is a lot of rough weather ahead of us—or is this going to be one of those seasons that will be the exception to the rule.

Topics of the Times

Nowadays folks look back enviously at the dear depression days of the 1930s.

Seed catalogs are coming in, and it would be a good idea to give special attention to the vegetable section this year, when a shortage of tin cans impends.

In current parlance, as the St. Cloud Sentinel suggests, a million is a mere drop in the budget.

When you donate books to that drive for the benefit of the service men, give something more appropriate than a digest of the census returns for 1910.

Now that the use of automobiles is being curtailed, folks may get around to reviving that bygone custom of getting acquainted with their next-door neighbors.

Suggested by a Detroit Lakes man as a slogan for the new year is 42d—fortitude to you.

M. J. Hoffman, state highway commissioner, is going to defer road improvements for the duration of the war. County boards might well follow suit.

More than 2,400 drunken motorists in Minnesota had their drivers licenses revoked in 1941. They just wouldn't take good advice.

Have you applied yet for a job as checker-upper on those who fail to buy their federal auto stamps?

Golfers may like it, but you don't hear any loud cheers from rural folks over the introduction of daylight saving.

Reports indicate that defense production still is lagging. The war seems to have caught the U. S. with its plants down.

"Happy New Year"

by James V. Barton

THE sun shone bright through the half-frosted windows of the Perkins' hotel room. On his chair in the corner Ralph squirmed uneasily and avoided looking at Sheila.

Sheila and Ralph were troupers. On the stage they were billed as Seabee and Perkins, but in private life they were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Perkins.

Sheila watched her husband thoughtfully for a few moments. Then she edged over and planted herself on his disengaged knee. "I don't know whether to laugh or cry," she whispered running her fingers through his curly locks. "Friday we start. Ten solid weeks of straight booking. How much money have we, dear?"

Ralph removed Sheila from his knee and stood up. "Thirty three dollars," he announced solemnly after a careful inventory of his pockets. "And thirty of that goes for the hotel bill when we check out Friday."

"I can't ask for an advance until we've played at least one performance. That leaves us three dollars to live on for three days."

"The check," Ralph said casually. "I'll pay it now."

Before Ralph could question her or ask what she was going to do, she had popped one of the dollars into her purse and disappeared into the hall.

In a half hour she was back laden with supplies. "There," she said exultantly. "Liver sausage, bread, butter and pie. Enough for lunch and dinner."

Ralph stared and then suddenly began to laugh hysterically.

His wife was indignant. "What's the joke?" she demanded tartly.

Ralph finally got his breath and gave her a hug. "Darling, I couldn't help it. I was just laughing at the irony of the thing. How are we going to eat all this stuff? We haven't a knife, a fork, a spoon, a plate or a tablecloth. As a matter of fact, we haven't even a table."

Sheila gave one weak little moan and threw herself on the bed. Ralph watched her stupidly for a moment and then suddenly his face began to light up slowly like a beacon. "I've got it," he roared. "Sheila, how much did you spend for all this?"

His wife looked bewildered through her tears. "Seventy cents," she faltered.

"Fine," Ralph beamed. "Coffee is fifteen cents in the dining room downstairs. No matter what you order they send up a table with all the trimmings. We'll just ring up room service, order two cups and for thirty cents we can have our feast!"

Sheila caught on right away. Carefully she concealed the food under the bed and Ralph phoned down for room service.

In a few minutes the waiter appeared and laid the cloth. When he had finished he presented the menu.

"Just two cups of coffee." Ralph gave the order carelessly.

The man nodded mechanically and disappeared into the hall. In a short while he was back with a fragrant, steaming pot of coffee. He poured it into the two cups and retired.

Ralph and Sheila held their breath until his footsteps faded away down the hall, then they locked the door and dove under the bed after their supplies.

Finally, when they had disposed of all the pie and sandwiches they could hold and after they had carefully boxed the remainder to keep until supper time, Ralph phoned for the waiter.

He knocked softly at the door, entered and began to stack up the plates and remove the table.

"The check," Ralph said casually. "I'll pay it now."

"The check?" The waiter looked bewildered.

"Yes, the check," said Ralph nervously. "Didn't you bring it?"

"Why, there are no checks today," said the waiter. "This is New Year's day. Everything is on the house. And do you know," he added in a sudden burst of confidence, "you're the only people in the hotel that didn't order the whole menu." He shouldered the portable table and started down the hall. "Happy New Year," he called.

Sheila and Ralph stood huddled together in the doorway. "Happy New Year," they murmured faintly.

15 MILLION STATE ROAD BUILDING IS NEW RECORD MARK

State Department Finances Extensive Program with State Revenue

Regardless of how drastic wartime restrictions throttle down highway programs "for the duration", Minnesota at least will enter this period with the advantage of having just completed a year distinguished by the largest trunk highway construction program ever undertaken out of current revenues in the state's history.

Even with the financial aid of large bond issue proceeds there have been only two previous years in which the amount of trunk highway improvement work placed under contract has exceeded 1941. These were 1931, the peak construction year under Minnesota's $11,335,000 trunk highway improvement bond issue, and 1936, when funds from the $8,500,000 federal aid matching bond issue were available.

If $1,563,000 of federal aid secondary construction on county roads, contracted under the state highway department's supervision but not utilizing trunk highway funds, are included, then the department awarded during the past year $14,622,000 worth of construction contracts. This does not include $1,140,000 in maintenance contracts under which periodic maintenance and roadway betterment operations were performed.

Confining the figures strictly to construction division contracts involving trunk highway improvements, the total work performed or under contract at the end of the past year totalled $15,180,000. These improvements and their status are as follows:

Work carried over Jan. 1, 1941	$ [illegible]
Contracts awarded during 1941	[illegible]
Total carried and contracted	$15,180,000
Completed and paid for during year	11,[illegible]
Carried over for completion in 1942	$ [illegible]

These totals do not include $222,000 worth of new construction on which lettings were held late in the year, but on which no contract awards have been made pending approval by defense authorities.

The projects involved in carry-over and 1942 contracts included 632 miles of grading, with temporary gravel surfacing and other construction incidentals; 220 concrete box culverts; 5?5 miles of various types of stabilized base; [illegible] miles of new bituminous surfaces and 120 miles of concrete pavement. In addition 40 new truck highway bridges, including stream crossings, railway overheads and underpasses, and traffic separation structures were completed during the year, and 28 more are under construction or under contract but cannot be completed until this year.

The concrete pavement mileage in the 1941 program was in itself the second largest ever undertaken in any one year without the aid of bond issue money. Ten miles of paving under contract will not be completed until the coming season, but the funds are encumbered out of last year's revenues to pay for the entire cost, as is the case with all work carried over on 1941 contracts.

The bride chose for her wedding a beautiful gown of the traditional white satin with matching veil. Her accessories were gold. Mr. Sparby was attended by the bride's brother, Reno Parent of Argyle and his own brother, Alton Sparby of Grygla. Another brother, Cleon Sparby of Grygla served as usher.

Minnesota Creameries Adopt Plan for Buying of U. S. Defense Bonds

The defense bond program was extended to the dairy farmers of Minnesota this week in a spectacular new phase of the plan for regular purchase of bonds.

Through the cooperation of the creameries of the state, farmers are offered a chance to sign up for regular purchase of bonds by deductions from their monthly cream checks, and the plan is already in operation in dozens of creameries of the state.

Biggest of the creamery organizations to sign up under the new plan is the Twin City Milk Producers association, the cooperative agency which serves dairy farmers in a [illegible] mile radius around the Twin Cities, providing milk for Minneapolis and St. Paul.

Letters went out this week from the Twin City Milk association to its 7,500 members, offering to handle the deductions from their monthly checks on request of the members. Each member was sent an authorization blank, designating the amount he will have deducted. The association will handle the records and arrange for purchase of bonds as the funds accumulate for each member.

FRESHMEN DUMP SOPH QUINTET BY MARGIN OF 36-29

Freshman Billy Bye Is High Scorer in Game with 13 Points

Playing a nifty brand of basketball, setting up their plays for push-up shots, and scoring goals from out on the court, the Freshmen dumped the Sophomore, 36 to 29, Thursday night. Virg. Evenstad, Art Forsberg, and Billy Bye were the spear-heads of the Frosh attack, with Bye's 13 points being the high total of the game. Billy McKechnie, Norm Furuseth, and Bruce Paulson were the chief scorers for the Soph team.

IWVA TO CONDUCT 1942 REUNION IN THIEF RIVER FALLS

Decision Reached at Meeting of Board of Directors in Winnipeg

Expansion of the International War Veterans' alliance to cover all veterans' organizations in Canada and the United States, was urged at a meeting of the I. W. V. A. board of directors in Winnipeg over the week-end, and a committee was appointed to make recommendations on how this could best be done.

On the committee is Elmer Eid, of East Grand Forks. Eid, along with Dallas East and W. W. Betcher, Crookston, and Dr. A. R. Hulbert, Thief River Falls, were the only Americans present. Tom Rowan, Thief River Falls, president of the organization, was unable to come owing to illness.

The meeting decided to hold the 1942 conference at Thief River Falls on June 13, 14, 15, to coincide with the convention of the ninth district of the American Legion.

A committee was named to compile the history of the I. W. V. A. and appointed to it were Frank Webb, of Grand Forks, and Dr. Hulbert.

Prowlers Defeated by East G. Forks 42 to 32

After playing hang-up ball in the first half, leading 12 to 7 at the end of the first period, and with the score knotted at 17-all at the half-time intermission, the Prowlers faded before the second half drive of the veteran East Grand Forks team and dropped a 42 to 32 decision to the Green Wave in a district game played on the East Grand floor Friday night.

Tomorrow night, on the Warren court, the Prowlers will meet the team that has been installed as the district title favorites, the fast-stepping Warren Ponies.

On a center jump play, with Lorentson taking Melby's tipped ball and then dribbling into the free throw lane to drop in a close shot, the Prowlers scored in the first second of Friday night's tussle. Powell's free throw, and Milt Reierson's neat one-handed goal gave Thief River a 5 to 0 lead before Bennet Larson, the East Grand Forks captain, scored the first Green Wave points, counting on a pivot shot.

Free throws by Clyde Babcock and Harold Harney, and Larry Worden's field goal on a rebound shot, shoved the Green Wave into a one point lead. Jack Melby's gift toss tied up the game, and free throws by Lorentson and Powell carried the Prowlers to an 8 to 6 lead. Harney flipped in a free throw. In the final minute of play of the first period Melby, taking a pass from Lorentson, pivoted in for a close shot; and Lenny, on an assist from Reierson, dropped in a one-handed shot, to give the Prowlers at 12 to 7 lead.

Melby connected with a free throw to open the scoring in the second period. Lanky Ray Martin popped in a one-handed toss, and after Harney had scored a free throw, Larson, on an under-the-basket shot, scored a field goal. On the niftiest passing play of the game, Campbell's pass to Reierson and Milt's quick toss to Melby, Jack scored on a push-up shot. Harney's gift toss and field goals by Babcock and Larson, with Larson recovering the rebound after his long shot try, East Grand tied the score at 17 to 17 at the half.

East Grand Forks won the game in the third period, out-scoring the Prowlers, 16 to 7. Larson did fine work in setting up the plays, and Martin's red-hot shooting, paced the East Siders in their scoring spurt. Bob Powell's two rapid-fire one-handed plunkers, mid-way in the period, were the only field goals scored by the Prowlers in the quarter. Campbell, Lorentson, and Gjernes added points on free throws.

Last minute baskets by Gjernes, Matheson, who broke up a Green Wave play and dribbled in for close shot, and Pederson's tip-in shot, sliced the East Grand Forks lead in the final period, after the Green Wave had built up a 41 to 26 score.

"Gus" Paulson and Honor Matheson, with 6 and 5 points, respectively, led the Prowler "B" team to 19 to 13 win over the East Grand Forks "B" team in a preliminary game.

Schmidt's Bowlers Whip DuChamp All-Star Team

A blistering final game, which found the DuChamp's All-Stars totaling 960 pins, fell six pins shy of overcoming the 65 pin lead the City Club quint had piled up in the first two games, and the DuChamp's dropped their total pin match bowled on the Mint alleys Sunday. The All Stars were the winners of the series, for they had rolled up a 151 pin lead bowling on the DuChamp alleys last week. Sunday's match was highlighted by the duel between Wally DuChamp and Les Boyd, with Wally edging out his City Club opponent, 581 to 578.

HORNETS LOSE TO WILLIAMS; MEET G. FORKS SUNDAY

Northerners Nose out Local Junior Hockey Boys in Last Period

A large crowd of fans were in attendance at the Arena Saturday night and saw the white jerseys of Williams high school tally three goals in the final period to score a 4 to 3 win over the Hornets in a fast and well-played hockey game. The victory was the second one-goal win that Williams had scored over the local sextet this season.

Sunday afternoon, on the local ice the Hornets will meet Grand Forks' top-ranking junior hockey team, the Coca-Colas.

Louis Norquist's sharp angle shot, which ricocheted off goalie Robarge's stick, gave Williams a 1 to 0 lead in the first period. The Hornets took the lead in the second period, the first goal being scored at the 9:00 mark when Mouse Efteland's slow shot from the side-boards slid past the Williams goalie into the net. Mouse marked up the Hornets second goal when, on a penalty shot after Johnny Efteland had been tripped, he lifted a hard drive into the upper left-hand corner of the net.

With Williams short-handed, Olson being in the penalty box, Denny Charlton intercepted a Hornet pass and broke in on the local goal and beat Robarge for the tying score. Clyde Turner, after a neat bit of stick-handling, came in for another close up shot, to score Williams third goal. Happy Lindgren, left uncovered in front of the Hornet goal, took a pass from Olson and scored easily. Mouse Efteland counted the game's final tally when Jug Snelling laid a pass on Mouse's stick, and the Mouser rammed the rubber home for his third score of the contest.

Big Clarence Schmidt and Clyde Turner, both defense men, played outstanding games for the winners. While the Hornets play was sparked by Mouse Efteland, Bob Baker, Jug Snelling, and Marlyn Dorn. Dorn being particularly effective in doling out body checks.

Here's a Believe It or Not

Golf in January? Certainly, for on Monday, January 19th, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Ekeren, that's the senior Ekerens, played seven holes of golf. Mr. Ekeren was hitting the ball so well that he wished that he had had Ed Carlson along for a bit of syndicate.

Way Back When

When East Grand Forks beat the Prowlers in basketball last Friday, 42 to 32, it marked the first time since Feb. 15th, 1935 that the Green Wave had triumphed over the locals. That was the year the East Side outfit had the two Raymonds and Butch Kimblin in its lineup, and the year that East Grand upset Crookston, after Crookston had upset the Prowlers, and won the district championship. Gil Mickelson, Lawrence Nicholson, Van Pelt, Hermanson, Wayne Kielty, and Carl Lee were the 1935 Prowlers that dropped a 32 to 30 decision to East Grand Forks.

And if the Warren Ponies would beat the Prowlers tomorrow night, and they are heavily favored to do so, it will be the first time since 1934 that a Warren basketball team has defeated the Prowlers. On Feb. 7th, 1934, inaugurating play in the new Auditorium, and before a capacity crowd, the Ponies eked out a 20 to 19 win in two overtime periods. Since that time Warren has been on the short end of the score, although in 1938, the year the Prowlers copped the state title, Warren nearly upset the locals in a season game, losing by one point. Among others who were on the Prowler team that dropped that one point decision in 1934 were Paul Dahl, Jack Ward, and Snort Langseth.

Shorty's Doing All Right

Earl "Shorty" Tripp, goalie for the Fargo-Moorhead Comets last year, was in town this week, enjoying a days vacation at his home here. Shorty is playing goalie, and according to all reports, is having a big season with the Marquette team in the Northern Michigan Hockey League. Hodge Johnson, who also was a Fargo Comet last year, is a member of the Marquette team, too, and Shorty states that Hodge is playing fine hockey. The Marquette team, and it is the league leader, was managed by Ching Johnson last season; but this year one of the hockey players, [illegible] Plebans of Eveleth is directing the play. Shorty reports that the play in the circuit is heavier than in the old league, with more body checking. And the fans there are more vigorous in their support of the teams, becoming so riled at times that they shower pop bottles on the umpire and linesman when they feel an unjustified penalty has been inflicted.

Frank Deagle, who played a lot of hockey for the local team several years ago, is also in the Northern Michigan circuit, being a member of Taffy Abel's American Soo team.

He Suspects Too Much

Crookston's Walt Grinols charges me with attempting to build an alibi when I gave the reason for Coach Newby's starting of his so-called "second" five in the Pirate game a week ago. Not so, I was stating a fact, and stating it for the information of the local fans who were curious as to why Newby selected those boys as the game starters. I'm not so nuts that I'll try to alibi the Prowlers, because before this season is over I'll be running out of alibis. Frankly, though, one of the big reasons why the Prowlers lost to the Pirates, and why they have lost most of their games, is because they lack basketball legs.

Fair Warning

Those hockey fans who aren't in attendance at the Hornet games are really missing some fine entertainment. Last Saturday night's 4 to 3 game with Williams was a crowd pleaser, and I heard a number of fans expressing surprise at the fine brand of hockey that the Juniors exhibited. The next home game on the Hornets schedule is with the Grand Forks Coca-Cola Sunday afternoon, starting time for the game, 2:30 p.m.

A Fine Job

Jimmy Dryden did a neat job of anchoring the DuChamp's to their total pin win over the City Club. I didn't think that he could stand the pressure; but I guess that Jim's as pressure-proof as a new boiler.

391 LOCAL BOARDS DEFER PROJECTS AS WAR MEASURE

Minnesota Taxpayers Ass'n. Cites Wide Response to Request

One of the most extraordinary stories of unified public sentiment has just come to light and is revealed in the statewide response from public officials just made public by the Minnesota Taxpayers Association.

In Minnesota 391 local governing units have revealed to the taxpayer group that they are "laying on the table" all proposals for public projects for the duration, while also curtailing budgets. Reports already have been received from 158 cities and villages, 48 county units, and 185 school districts.

Such projects as new county garages, road construction, school buildings, and other major expenditures are being "held in abeyance" until victory for the nation is assured.

The purpose of all this, it is explained, is— (a) To divert financial strength to the Federal government in the present crisis. (b) Remove local units from competing with the Federal government essential materials. (c) To retard inflation. (d) Enable counties, cities, villages and school districts to acquire a stronger financial position to meet the postwar situation.

"All local projects should be 'out' so that we can go 'all-out' for victory. This summarizes the efforts of governing units all over the state", said James P. McDonnelly, president, in analyzing the results.

"U" Farm Man Suggests Small Grains Adapted for Use in Minnesota

Increasing numbers of Minnesota farmers are turning to their county agents and experiment stations for advice in selecting small grain varieties suited to their conditions says W. W. Brookins, extension agronomist at University Farm. More than half of the cultivated farm land in the state has been sown annually to small grains during the 10-year period 1931-40.

A useful guide for Minnesota farmers is Extension Bulletin 228, "Small Grains in Minnesota", which makes recommendations based of field trials conducted over the state. Varieties of wheat, oats, barley, flax and rye have been tested for a three-year period and approved by agronomists, plant breeders, plant pathologists and cereal chemists of the Minnesota experiment stations.

Thatcher wheat, which outyields Renown when leaf rust is not a factor, ranks as the highest yielding spring bread wheat variety at all stations over a period of 10 years. Other wheat varieties recommended are Rival, Mindum (durum), Minturki (winter wheat), and Marmin (winter wheat).

Extensive tests have shown that early and midseason oats are best adapted to Minnesota. Rough bearded types of barley have been largely replaced by smooth-bearded varieties in the last few years.

More profitable grain crops can be grown, says Brookins, if high quality seed of adapted varieties are chosen and through the application of good cultural practices. Use of disease resistant varieties is recommended as one of the most practical methods for controlling small grain diseases.

Copies of Extension Bulletin 228 may be obtained from the local county agent or by writing Bulletin Room, University Farm, St. Paul.

Employment Office Asks Men for Newfoundland

Additional job openings for skilled workmen in Newfoundland were announced this week by the government's 37 local employment offices in Minnesota.

The offices are taking applications from fully qualified men in the following positions: assistant general carpenter foreman, carpenter foreman, finish carpenter, pipe layer (pipe setter and calker), roofers, plumbers, steamfitters, sheet metal workers.

Wages range from $66 to $100 for a 60-hour week with no loss of time. Room and board can be obtained for $8 to $10 per week, and workers are not allowed to bring their families to Newfoundland.

MINNESOTA RURAL CREDIT FARMS NOW NEARLY ALL SOLD

George C. Jones, Conservator, Submits Annual Report to Gov. Stassen

In three years 3,554 of the Minnesota home folks bought farms from the state, which had acquired them, unwillingly, by foreclosing rural credits department mortgages.

Only 410—a little over 10 per cent—of the 3,964 of the farms sold in the three years went to residents outside the counties in which they were located.

This was one of the striking features of Rural Credits Conservator George C. Jones' annual report to Governor Harold E. Stassen last Thursday.

Further analyzing this phase of his report, Jones, who was put on the job by Stassen in 1939, said 894 of the farms were bought back by former owners or their children; 1,621 by local tenants of the farms and 1,039 by local farmers—in many cases men owning adjacent farms and generally for their children.

He said $345,861.00 had been added to the tax revenue by putting these farms (totalling 590,234 acres) back on the rolls—$14,000 in Clearwater county alone, for example.

Back in 1923 Minnesota undertook the rural credits experiment—an experiment that has been such a terrific drain on the state treasury with the $60,000,000 cost in money loaned on thousands of farms, in delinquent interest that the state had to dig up on the rural credits bonds and in the expense of administration.

In the last three years, the Jones report shows $4,577,356.27 has been paid the state for the 3,964 farms sold—$1,354,046.36 of it in full 100 per cent cash sales.

When Jones took over in 1939 the state had 3,886 farms on its hands—farms it had to possess on foreclosures. In the three years several hundred others were acquired the same way.

Now only 778 of these farms remain and Jones said he expected, because of sales records of 1,025 in 1939, of 1,403 in 1940 and 1,536 in 1941, the 778 would be sold by next July 1.

This means that 32 cents of every dollar commission collected by the Central in 1941 will be refunded to its member patrons, besides six per cent interest on the outstanding stock held by members. INCOME TAX FACTS

Supplied by the Bureau of Internal Revenue

Forms for filing returns of income for 1941 have been sent to persons who filed returns last year. Failure to receive a form, however, does not relieve a taxpayer of his obligation to file his return and pay the tax on time—on or before March 16 if the return is made on the calendar-year basis as is the case with most individuals.

Forms may be obtained upon request, written or personal, from the offices of collectors and from deputy collectors of internal revenue in the larger cities and towns.

A person should file his return on Form 1040, unless his gross income for 1941 does not exceed $3,000 and consists wholly of salary, wages, or other compensation for personal services, dividends, interest, rent, annuities, or royalties, in which event he may elect to file it on Form 1040A, a simplified form on which the tax may be readily ascertained by reference to a table contained in the form.

The return must be filed with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the taxpayer has his legal residence or principal place of business on or before midnight of March 16, 1942. The tax may be paid in full at the time of filing the return or in four equal installments, due on or before March 16, June 15, September 15, and December 15.

In making out your income tax return read carefully the instructions that accompany the form. If you need more information, it may be obtained at the office of the collector of internal revenue, deputy collector, or an internal revenue agent in charge.

Remember that single persons or married persons not living with husband or wife, who earn as much as $14.43 a week for the 52 weeks of the year, and married persons living together who have aggregate earnings of as much as $28.85 a week for the year, are required to file returns.

How the War Is Affecting the Telephone Business

The War Has Caused:
1. An unprecedented increase in the demand for local and long distance telephone service.
2. Acute shortages of materials needed to provide additional telephone lines and equipment.
3. Substantial increases in taxes and other telephone expenses.

The Result Is:
1. War needs for telephone service are being met first—promptly and fully.
2. In many communities, it is not always possible to provide, for civilian use, just the type of telephone service that is wanted.
3. Long distance calls placed by the general public may sometimes be delayed.
4. Telephone earnings are lower in spite of a much larger volume of business.

We thank you, the users of our service, for the fine cooperation you are giving us, and we pledge ourselves to continue to provide the best telephone service that is possible under existing conditions.

GRYGLA

Large Crowd Attends P. T. A.

A large crowd was present at the meeting of the Grygla P. T. A. held last Friday evening at the school house. The meeting was opened by Mrs. Elmer Hylland, president, and after the disposal of the routine business a discussion was launched on plans for raising money for the P. T. A. treasury. It was decided that a home talent play be given some time in the near future with a carnival to complete the evening. A committee was named to take charge of arrangements for the play and included M. K. Ellingson, chairman, Thelma Johnson, Viola Berger, and Edith Anderson. Lars Nygaard, Elmer Hylland, and Mrs. Harold Bush were appointed on a committee to have charge of the carnival. As it was decided to sell lunches also the regular hospitality committee, Mrs. Henry Holte and Mrs. John T. Johnson, were asked to arrange for this.

Mrs. Hylland read a communication from the county superintendent of schools concerning the plans of this county for next years hot-lunch project. A county garden project will be carried out on land rented near Argyle and using W. P. A. labor, and the vegetables raised will be canned. These canned vegetables will be made available to the school in the county at a nominal cost. An open discussion followed on the advisability of the Grygla school continuing the hot lunches with many opinions expressed by the parents.

Following the business meeting an excellent program was presented. The topic for this meeting was "Social Hygiene, Narcotics, and Alcohol, and the round table discussion led by A. Hendix Isaacson and participated in by Floyd Wurscher, representing the home, Edith Anderson, speaking for the school, and Viola Berger speaking for the P. T. A., proved very interesting."

Other numbers in the program included several selections by the Tonette band of the Glenwood School led by the teacher, Margaret Sersland, two tonette solos, each by Dennis and Clinton Erickson, and two songs by Oscar Wiseth, who played a banjo accompaniment. The final number was a short act entitled, "Fire Trouble" by A. Hendix Isaacson and a group of his pupils.

After a social hour which consisted of contests, lunch was served by Mmes. Floyd Wurscher, Ed Chanley, and L. A. Knight.

The February meeting will commemorate Founders Day and the program will be planned by Mrs. Henry Holte, Viola Berger and C. M. Lunde.

Betty Crocker KITCHEN CLINIC

"A BAKED DISH WITH ASPARAGUS IN IT"

"I'm going to a luncheon where I have to take a 'covered dish' . . . you know . . . a baked dish," the voice on the telephone explained. It further developed that asparagus was a "must" among the ingredients for that baked dish. The woman had such a quantity of lovely asparagus in her garden she felt she must use it on every occasion. "But I can't find a baked dish that calls for asparagus," she added plaintively.

Fortunately we were able to supply her not only with one . . . but with two recipes for baked dishes with asparagus in them.

ASPARAGUS AND HAM AU GRATIN

4 cups soft bread crumbs
1 cup grated strong American cheese (¼ lb.)
¾ cup butter, melted
2 cups cooked asparagus stalks
¼ cup minced onion
¼ cup butter
6 tbsp. flour
3 cups milk
2 tsp. salt
¼ tsp. pepper
2 cups diced cooked ham

Mix the bread crumbs, grated cheese and ¾ cup melted butter together. Place half of this mixture in the bottom of a two quart casserole or baking dish (about 10 inches in diameter and 3 inches deep). Arrange the asparagus stalks over the top of the crumb mixture.

The Other Fourth-Cup Butter

Now brown the onion in the other ¼ cup butter. Blend in the flour, salt and pepper. Yes, you've guessed it! This is to be a white sauce.

Add the milk slowly and cook for 5 minutes, stirring all the time to keep the sauce from getting lumpy. Blend in the ham, and pour over the asparagus and crumb mixture in the baking dish.

Spread the remaining crumb mixture over the top and bake 25 minutes . . . until the top is brown . . . in a moderate oven, 350° F. It makes 8 good servings.

ASPARAGUS AND ALMONDS

1 tbsp. butter
1 tbsp. flour
1 cup milk
½ tsp. salt
⅛ tsp. pepper
1 cup grated American cheese
1½ lb. freshly cooked asparagus
½ cup blanched almonds, chopped
Paprika

First make your white sauce by melting the butter, stirring in the flour, adding the milk and allowing the mixture to cook about 10 minutes . . . stirring constantly. Add the salt and pepper, and blend in the grated cheese. Stir to make a smooth sauce.

Alternate Layers of Asparagus and Almonds

Place alternate layers of asparagus and almonds in a buttered baking dish until all are used. Pour the white sauce over all. Sprinkle paprika over the top and bake 20 minutes in a moderate oven, 350° F. This makes 6 servings.

WINTER SHOW START MONDAY AT CROOKSTON

Big Livestock Exhibits in Prospect for Annual Valley Event

NOTED LECTURERS TO SPEAK EACH EVENING

Valley Citizens to Present Pan-American Pageant Next Tuesday

Plans for the 32nd annual Red River Valley Winter Shows and Northwest School Farmers' Week, February 2-6, are now complete and copies of the program have been given wide circulation. Card posters with announcements of the main events on the program for the week and large sheets advertising the livestock sales on February 5 and 6 have been distributed throughout the Red River Valley counties.

Superintendent T. M. McCall of the Northwest School, who is president of the Winter Shows board of managers, in speaking of the 1942 Shows, states "Prospects are unusually bright for a record number of high quality exhibits in all of the livestock, poultry, and farm crops classes. In spite of the record demand for purebred animals, livestock breeders are bringing in their herds and flocks to demonstrate that the area is fast becoming a supply source for breeding animals. Many new breeders will appear in the show ring this year."

Several improvements have been made in the livestock barns this year. The most important change made has been the re-arrangement of the swine barn to make room for the poultry show. The second floor of Annex A which formerly housed the poultry show has been given over to concessions such as feed and exhibitors who were formerly crowded for lack of space.

Speakers of national and international fame have been secured

WERSTLEIN, E. BENSON ARE VICE PRESIDENTS

Directors Vote to Proceed with 50th Anniversary Celebration

Following completion of balloting last Thursday noon, announcement was made of the election of six directors of the Civic and Commerce association to serve two-year terms.

Those elected include Roy Oen, Morris Bye, E. B. Benson, H. A. Baumann, Bill LaFave and N. H. Holzknecht. The group met Monday afternoon with the six holdover board members and organized for the ensuing year, reelecting Mr. Oen for a second term as president. Other officers named include George Werstlein, first vice president; Mr. Benson, second vice president; and L. W. Rulien, secretary.

The board decided to select for its major project this year the staging of a fiftieth anniversary celebration, commemorating the extension to Thief River Falls in 1892 of the Great Northern railway. The most successful similar event previously held here was the Pioneer Days celebration in 1932, noting the fortieth anniversary of the coming of the railroad. It was announced that a general chairman for the coming event would be named shortly.

Action also was taken by the board to recommend to the membership at today's meeting that, instead of meeting each Thursday, the association hold evening sessions the second Wednesday of each month, with the directors meeting monthly at intervening periods.

At last Thursday's meeting E. B. Benson, chairman of the merchants committee, announced that local stores February 9 would start operating on the daylight saving schedule sanctioned last week by an act of congress.

Favorable action was taken on a request submitted by Dr. E. S. Amesbury, Lions club president, that the association name two men to serve on an inter-organization committee to provide for giving remembrances to departing selective service registrants and for other joint action involving the groups sharing in the plan.

DEFENSE BONDS DRIVE OPENS IN CITY NEXT WEEK

To Open Campaign for Voluntary Deductions from Payrolls

PROJECT EXPLAINED AT MEETING MONDAY

More than 200 Business Places to be Solicited by March 1

Plans for a campaign to be inaugurated in the city next week to encourage employes of local business places to purchase U. S. defense bonds on a weekly or monthly voluntary payroll deduction plan were outlined Monday evening by Paul A. Lundgren, county chairman of the campaign, at a well attended meeting in the Civic and Commerce association rooms called by Mayor H. W. Kinghorn, local chairman, who presided.

Mr. Lundgren stated that an effort will be made to complete the canvass of the more than 200 local business places by March 1, and that pledge cards and explanatory literature will be available the first of the week. The city, it was explained, has been divided into three districts, which will be canvassed by Morris Bye, Mrs. C. W. Vorachek and Lincoln Arnold, members of the local committee.

No definite quota of bond purchases has been set for this community in the current drive, unlike the situation in the first World War, buying of bonds being entirely on a voluntary basis, Mr. Lundgren said. He pointed out, however, that President Roosevelt has declared that we are in an all-out war, and said that if the present campaign does not yield satisfactory results, the national administration may be forced into virtual conscription of wealth and savings in order to finance the tremendous cost of the war effort.

It was announced that up to last week-end 95 per cent of the employes of the local Land O'Lakes plant had signed up under the payroll deduction plan, and E. O. Peterson, president of the Union State bank, stated employes of that institution had signed up 100 per cent, while E. B. Benson, Penney store manager, added that employes of the store had been participating in a U. S. bond purchase plan for the past two years or more.

Mayor Kinghorn said all city employes were being asked to cooperate in the plan, and county employes are also being solicited.

Supt. Morris Bye announced that the defense stamp sale plan would be inaugurated in the local school system today, adding that Thursday of each week will be Defense Stamp Day. No pressure of any kind will be brought to bear on the pupils, he said, the plan being entirely voluntary. He expressed the belief that the campaign in the schools would teach a valuable lesson in thrift and Americanism.

Chinese Explode Firecrackers

China is the great home of the firecracker. It seems to have been the first place where the little noisemaking things were made.

The greatest firecracker day is the Chinese New Year. It is celebrated when the first new moon comes after the sun is seen in a certain part of the sky, the sign of Aquarius. The date is somewhere between January 21 and February 19.

The old Chinese calendar dates back 4,633 years. A Chinese who followed it might say, "This is the year 4639," instead of using our plan and saying, "This is 1942."

It costs you money every time you don't read these want ads.

Owners of Boats 16 Feet or More in Length Must Pay Federal Tax in 1942

Collector of Internal Revenue Arthur D. Reynolds, St. Paul, reminded boat owners today that a new tax on the use of boats will become effective February 1, to be paid by the owner of the craft.

The term "boat" means all boats propelled by machinery, sail or both, measuring sixteen feet or more in over-all length, owned by a citizen or resident of the United States. The payment of the tax will be evidenced by stamps which may be procured only from offices of collectors of internal revenue. The stamps are green in color and must be affixed to the boat in such manner as to be readily visible for inspection by any internal revenue officer.

In order to procure a stamp it will be necessary to make application on Form 752, which may be obtained upon request from the collector's office. Instructions for filling out this form appear on the back of the blank. The first stamp to be purchased by owners of boats will cover the period from Feb. 1 to June 30, 1942, and will cost purchasers 5/12 of the yearly tax rate, which is $5 for boats with over all length 16 feet or over but not over 28 feet.

JANITOR SWEEPS 121 ACRES FLOOR SPACE

Atwater—G. A. Rotan, faithful janitor of the local school, has seen many classes come and go during his 21 years of service and has followed countless pairs of feet with his efficient broom. G. J. sat down one evening and surprised himself with these startling figures. In 21 years he swept 5,[illegible] sq. feet of floor [illegible], which divided by 43,560 sq. feet (number of square feet per acre) makes a total area of 121 acres swept.

Ample Binder Twine to Care for State Farmers Is Available for 1942

The attack launched against the United States by Japan and her allies will not keep Minnesota farmers from getting all the binder twine they need for the 1942 crop season, Carl R. Swanson, director of institutions for the state of Minnesota, reported this week. The Minnesota prison industries have enough twine and fibre on hand or on order, with assurance of safe delivery, to meet all needs for the 1942 crop season, Swanson said.

The prison industries had 2,635,500 pounds of binder twine and 10,719,500 pounds of fibre on hand at the last inventory in December. Fibre on order but not received at that time totaled 16,959,000 pounds. Of this, only 275,000 was Manila fibre, and all but 55,000 of this since has been received.

A shipment of 220,000 pounds arrived on the Pacific Coast the day after the attack on Pearl Harbor. The remaining fibre on order comes from Central and South America, and no difficulty is expected in getting it.

Why the rationing of sugar? Here are a few of the reasons as presented by Business Week. Normal consumption of sugar in the United States is about 7 million tons, of which, roughly, two-thirds is imported from Cuba, the Philippines, Hawaii and Puerto Rico. Domestic production will be increased this year but probably not enough to offset drop in imports. Hoarding is another reason for rationing. In recent months the more than normal supply on the market has vanished into the attics of American homes and into the warehouses of American manufacturers. The supply probably will be near enough to ample so that no one need suffer. Hence the real reason for rationing seems to be to assure as nearly as possible an equitable distribution to protect the hand-to-mouth buyers from the hoarders.

The automobile industry has gone out of business. Production has stopped and the present stock of 650,000 new cars will have to last us through the war. That means that ordinary folks like us may have to get along without a new car for years to come, and if we want to have an automobile to drive we will have to take mighty good care of the one we have. Incidentally the country's automobile sales organizations are the first group to be adversely effected by the war. The manufacturers will continue to manufacture, but the salesmen will have nothing to sell. In some instances the necessary adjustments will cause real hardship.

It does seem strange, of course, that American soldiers would be shipped to North Ireland, where there is no war, when they are so badly needed in the Pacific, but there may be plenty of justification for the action by those who know the answers. We could think of a few good reasons. The boys who are going to Britain are still recruits, very much in need of additional training. If by the aid of American recruits the British are enabled to send more of their seasoned soldiers to the several places where more seasoned soldiers are needed then certainly the transfer is a wise one. Then too, moving a few American troops into Europe might have great propaganda value thruout all of Europe. We may take for granted that Hitler has told his people American soldiers would never again set foot in Europe, and we can be sure that the arrival of American troops, just a handful of them, is more disturbing to Hitler than his Russian campaign, not because he fears the handful but because he fears what that handful represents. And we'll bet a new hat that a lot of folks up in Norway felt good about it when they heard the news.

When the Japs spend a billion dollars for airplanes they get 800 million dollars worth of planes and 200 million dollars worth of Subsistence for the Japanese people. When Uncle Sam spends a billion dollars for airplanes he gets 200 million dollars worth of planes and 800 million dollars worth of American standard of living. This is the way a friend of ours has summed it up and in this observation may be found the main reason why the Japs are doing better than we had expected they could and why our performance has fallen short of our expectations. Except for the men in the ranks, our "all-out" war effort so far has required little sacrifice. But the sacrifice is ahead of us and the more "standard of living" we add to the cost of operating our war machine the greater is going to be our poverty when we pay the bill.

Which front of the many-fronted war is most important and where should we concentrate our defense? The battle of Russia is important. The fight in the Philippines is important. The campaign in North Africa is important. The defense of Singapore and all of the Islands of the South Pacific is important. Assistance to China is important. All of these fronts are important along with a hundred and one other areas that may be under attack tomorrow. Shall we rush reinforcements to the Philippines and the East Indies or shall we strengthen our defense of Alaska and the entire west coast? Where will the enemy strike next, Panama or Dutch Harbor, Turkey or Gibraltar? Someone must make the decisions and whatever decisions are made, some of them will be wrong. It will take many months to build a military machine that is adequate and until we are strong enough to maintain a sustained offensive that will force the enemy to concentrate in defense, we will have to spread our forces out in a very thin line. There are well informed observers who predict that before we will be prepared to resist effectively we will be driven out of the South Pacific and probably will lose Alaska. While that may not happen, we must be prepared for it if it does happen. The war may end tomorrow, but we must prepare for a war that will last many years.

Dollar-a-year men, a congressional committee suggests, are not necessarily the cheapest.

Our Wahpeton colleague cites the progress of the auto industry thus: 1940, no running boards; 1941, no gear shifts; 1942, no automobiles.

The manufacture of gin has been halted to release alcohol for defense needs. This war is causing a lot of headaches, but it also is preventing them.

Sign of the times—Minneapolis milk distributors announce they will reduce the number of deliveries.

One benefit that may be expected to result from the war is to teach U. S. citizens the crime of wasting useful materials. If only the government agencies would set a good example.

The harassed motorist would welcome a well-tired feeling.

In view of the imminent invasion of Australia, you can't blame folks over there for squawking about the fact that most of their soldiers are stationed in England, Africa and Singapore.

Speaking of hopeless jobs, consider the folks who tried to build an ice palace in St. Paul with the mercury up around the 50 degree mark.

Weather prediction—We're due for some cold weather next week. The reason is that the Valley Winter Shows then will be in progress in Crookston.

With supplies from Hawaii and the Philippines cut off, that beet sugar factory at East Grand Forks should be assured of an active market for its product this season.

Borrowed Plumage

By MARJORIE AMES

(McClure Syndicate—WNU Service.)

ONCE more Jean read through the letter which had arrived to find her in a mood of despondency most unusual. Like a gleam of sunshine it had brightened the gloomy prospect of a Christmas away from home. To be sure, living with one's step-aunt didn't make much of a home, but even that was better than the dismal, deserted campus and the empty dormitory whose walls still echoed with the jolly laughter of departing girls.

And then had arrived this charming note from one of the university's most attractive graduates:

"My Dear Miss Gray:

"It will afford us the greatest possible pleasure to have you spend the holidays with us. We are entertaining most informally and will expect you Christmas Eve.

Cordially yours,

Marjorie Holden."

"Most informally!" Jean's brow clouded. Instinct told her that those two words had been inserted to intimate that her hostess did not expect her to come equipped with evening gowns and opera capes. Only—Jean had so much less than that!

"I—can't—go!" Jean winked back unaccustomed tears and stared hard at a picture on the wall in front of her. As her vision cleared she became aware that she was gazing at the group photograph taken after the last dramatic society play. What fun she had had! For one brief evening she had been a "star" and worn truly becoming clothes.

If only—Jean sat suddenly upright with eyes that sparkled. "I'll go to Mrs. Holden's and wear those clothes!" she cried ecstatically. Jean's inspiration was born of the fact that the dramatic society had issued a recent edict. Clothes worn in the annual plays were to be purchased and become the property of the organization and so be always available for future performances. Jean was property mistress and held the key to the wardrobe that contained them.

"If Mrs. Holden had not been abroad when we gave 'Nancy's English Cousin,' this little stunt might have been impossible," mused Jean, as the following day, she folded and packed the smart little serge dress she had worn in the third act. Three changes there had been, noted respectively in the stage directions as "a one-piece serge," "a simple party frock" and "a striking outdoor costume." Jean took all three.

Late Christmas eve found Jean sinking blissfully to rest, prepared to dream of the coming good times with the jolly crowd which had met her so hospitably at the station.

But the following morning at the gay, holly-decked breakfast table Mrs. Holden unsuspectingly turned Jean's happiness to ashes. "My brother, Jean, who came after you had gone upstairs last night. Why, you know each other!"

"Of course, we know each other!" smiled a singularly attractive young man. "I coached the play in which Miss Gray played a demure little English girl—and well do I remember her in the part!"

Yes, it seemed that Cary Fredicott, who had made "Nancy's English Cousin" the success it had been, was Mrs. Holden's brother. Jean had known him simple as the popular young assistant professor, from a neighboring boys' college. And he remembered her well in the part. So, of course, he would remember the "one-piece serge" and the "simple party frock" to say nothing of the "striking outdoor costume"!

It seemed to her that she could read his very thought, could imagine him saying:

"Ah, yes, the young lady took advantage of the fact that the girls were away to tog herself out in stage properties. How did she expect to get away with it?"

But whatever the young man's inner thoughts, his outward attitude was one that any girl might have approved.

On one of the very last days of vacation the crowd set out on snowshoes across the hills. Cary had managed matters so that he and Jean lagged far behind the others. Suddenly, in a snowy but sheltered hollow, as the rest topped a distant summit and disappeared, Cary turned right about face and held out his arms. "Jean, darling, will you be my wife?" The abruptness of his words did not rob them of effectiveness.

Jean flushed furiously. "I—oh—why, how can you—after—after these clothes?"

Assistant Professor Fredicott's face expressed nothing beyond utter mystification. Then he shook his head. "I'm afraid—maybe I'm dense, but—"

And Jean had to explain her still hands clutching themselves within the old little English muff which was part of her striking outdoor costume.

When she had finished Cary just stood for a moment regarding her ever so gently, ever so tenderly. Then, "Didn't you know, you funny girl, that men can love with clothes year in and year out and never notice them? It's the people that wear them that count!"

And happy Jean, snuggled close in his arms, knew that he had spoken the truth.

SAVES PENNIES TWO YEARS BUYS BONDS

Hastings —Six thousand pennies, which she has been dropping in a five gallon glass pickle jar for safe keeping over a period of two years, was invested in United States Defense Bonds, recently, by Mrs. M. F. Williams. With the $60 in pennies, Mrs. Williams has also saved $18 in silver dollars and $24.30 in nickles, dimes and quarters and the small coins, she said, were also once pennies in the pickle jar had she not dipped into it for change. Her savings total $102.30 and by adding a small sum she plans to buy six $18.75 defense bonds at $112.50 for which the government will pay $150 in 10 years.

CHICKEN THIEF CAUGHT WITH THE GOODS

Blooming Prairie —A Steele county chicken thief was captured last week a few minutes after he had raided a farmer's hen house and was attempting to make off with some of his choice hens. John Burkee, the farmer, captured the thief before he was able to leave the farm when his car became stalled in the lane of the Burkee farm. Mr. Burkee sensed something was wrong and investigated the stalled car to discover 75 of his hens. The county sheriff was called and the young man apprehended. He will now have to answer to the court for his wrong deed.

BARBER HALTERS PORKER THEN LOOKS FOR OWNER

Wadena—Barber Evan Johnson saw a stray pig in his back yard the other evening and in a jiffy had grabbed one of its hind legs and pushed it into his garage. Being an honest man Evan presented himself to the local newspaper office the next morning intending to insert an ad notifying the owner of the porker that it could be had on presentation of proper ownership. News soon spread that Mr. Johnson was harboring his winter's pork, maybe, but in no time, and before the newspaper could collect on the ad, the owner came in with proper credentials and took the pig home.

Do Not Delay Checking on Machinery Repairs, County Agent Advises

Don't wait until next fall to check over your farm binder to learn what repairs will be needed to put it in shape for harvest. Check your binder and other machinery now and go to your dealer to place the order for parts. That's the advice from County Agent Ernest A. Palmer, who has been conferring with dealers and farmers on adequate machinery for Pennington County farms in the face of the steel shortage.

It is important to get an order for repairs now, he explained, because manufacturers won't have orders on the books to get the needed steel for parts. [illegible]

Pygmies in America?

The late Dr. Henry Fairfield Osborn, noted scientist, claimed that there existed in North America about the middle of the Pliocene period, a high form of Anthropoid, with a leaning to the human side, to which he gave the name Hesperopithecus.

Great Indian migrations of prehistoric tribes, shown on mapped illustrations of the Smithsonian institution, might have some bearing on the race of people from which this specimen came. These maps reveal the routes by which prehistoric tribes marched for generations from west of the Mississippi toward the Atlantic ocean, pioneering in exactly the opposite direction taken by the whites.

Houses Bombproof

Houses built in dry, warm caves 12 miles southwest of Birmingham are bombproof, and the dwellers defy Nazi raiders. The caves were shelters for all sorts of queer people during the Middle ages. The fronts were built of rough stone and the parts of the roofs projecting from the front of the caves were covered with heavy stone slabs. [illegible]

HORNETS DEFEAT HALLOCK AND TIED BY G. FORKS TEAM

Locals to Play Aggie Six Saturday; Grafton Team Here Sunday

During their week-end of hockey, the Hornets, on Saturday night, took the measure of the Hallock team, 6 to 1, in a game played on the Hallock rink, and then returning to the Arena ice the Hornets, on Sunday afternoon, were held to a 2-all tie by the scrappy Coca-Cola aggregation of Grand Forks. The Hornets travel to Crookston on Saturday for a game with the Aggie sextet, and then meet the Grafton Millionaires on the local ice Sunday afternoon.

After a slow first period, which found the score deadlocked at 1 to 1, the Hornets sliced through the Hallock team for four goals to clinch Saturday night's contest. Mouse Efteland, who tallied two goals and had an assist, and Jug Snelling, who also marked up two goals and assisted on another goal, were the spearheads of the Hornets attack. On defense the play of Marvin Dorn was outstanding, the bulky defense man being especially effective in body checking the Hallock forwards as they broke over the blue-line.

The scrappy Coca-Colas of Grand Forks fought themselves into a 2 to 2 tie with the Hornets in Sunday afternoon's game. After two scoreless periods of play, Lloyd Johnson picked up Snelling's rebound and poked the puck past Grand Forks stellar goalie, Dick Justice. Roy Feist scored the goal that sent the contest into overtime when he roared in from the side-boards and beat Robarge with a shot that hit the corner of the net. The first minute of the overtime saw Johnson, again on a rebound, scoring the Hornets' second goal; but the Coca-Cola's M. Bertsch, on an angle shot from inside the blue line, tallied the game tying goal.

Local Bowlers Grab 3 Matches from Visiting Teams on Mint Alleys

Local teams were victors in three total pin matches bowled on the Mint lanes Sunday afternoon. The Royal Bohemians, with Kenney Berg totaling 626 pins and Clarence Hallstrom racking up a 619 total, scored a 62 pin win over the high ranking Dr. Peppers of Crookston. Jimmy Dryden piloted the Hamm's team to a 2568 total, and a 206 pin margin over the Grain Belt team of Crookston. BOWLER'S HONOR ROLL

[illegible]

The Warren Ponies ended eight lean basketball years Friday night by defeating the Prowlers, 33 to 24, in a game played at Warren. A scorching first period, in which Warren outscored the Prowlers, 17 to 4, and lanky Bill Rogers, who tallied 15 points during the contest, were the Pony factors that gave the locals their sixth successive defeat.

The Prowlers, striving for their first district win, will meet the surging East Grand Forks team Friday night on the local floor.

Four field goals by Rogers, a couple by Dana Allen, a one-handed shot by Henry Hanson, and free throws by Culver and Lindberg; while the Prowlers could only mark up field goals by Jack Melby, who tipped in a rebound, and Johnny Campbell, who drove in for a push-up shot, sent the Warren Ponies into a 17 to 4 lead in the opening period of Friday night's game.

Shifting from a man-to-man to a zone defense in the second period, the Prowlers checked the Warren attack, and the Thief River offense also began to function. Campbell stole the ball from Culver and dribbled in for a set-up; Johnny followed with one handed shot from the circle; and Guernsey Gjernes barreled in for a rebound shot. Johnny Zerold connected for a Pony free throw; and Rogers hooped in a field goal. Bob Powell lifted a long shot into the net. Allen's two free throws gave the Ponies a 22 to 12 lead at the half.

The Prowlers opened the final half with a spurt that carried them within five points of Warren. Powell, on a pass from Lorentson, plumped in a one-hander; Campbell marked up a free throw and then connected with a one-handed hoist from the free throw line. Warren, after taking time out, sent Jack Gilbertson, their injured guard, into the game. Hanson, recovering a rebound, scored a field goal; and Rogers, on a jump ball play, broke in for an under the basket shot. Allen flipped in a free throw, and Warren held their ten point lead, 27 to 17, as the period ended.

A field goal by Rogers, and a field goal and a free throw by Culver, added five points to the Warren score before the Prowlers tallied a point, on Melby's free throw, during the first minutes of the fourth period. Gjernes scored two free throws, and after Allen had counted a Warren free throw, Melby, on a rebound shot, and Peterson, on a one handed shot, collected the final points of the game.

Bud Eide's red hot basket shooting, scoring three field goals, fired the Prowlers "B" team to a 24 to 14 conquest of the Warren "B" team in a preliminary game.

PROWLERS LOSING STREAK GOES ON AT FOSSTON TUESDAY

Luckless Lincoln Quintet Loses Again by Score of 38 to 28

The luckless Prowlers, continuing in the basketball depths, dropped a 38 to 28 decision to the Fosston Greyhounds in a game played on the Fosston floor Tuesday night. The Prowlers, except for a few minutes in the first period when they ran up a 7 to 2 lead on the Greyhounds, were a "cold" team, with Johnny Campbell being the "feist" of the Prowlers. Time and again Johnny would break into the free throw lane for a one-handed push-up shot, but the ball would rim the basket and fall away. Fosston, too, was off on their close shots, but the Greyhounds ability to sink their shots from out on the court brought them the win.

Two field goals by Milt Ekerson, singles by Bob Powell and Johnny Campbell, and two gift tosses by Campbell, gave the locals a 10 to 9 lead at the end of the first period. Porky Thompson's two field goals, and baskets by Russ Hagen and Kieth Marshall, accounted for Fosston's total.

Jim Colligan's under-the-basket goal sent Fosston into the lead as the second period opened; but Orrin Pederson, on a close in shot, gave the advantage to the Prowlers. Hagen counted for Fosston; and Colligan dumped in another push-up shot. Merle Larson gave Fosston a 17 to 12 lead on a field goal. Jack Melby dribbled into the free throw lane and looped in a one-handed shot; and followed with a tip-in, to cut the Fosston margin to one point. Hagen's field goal and Colligan's free throw gave Fosston a 20 point total at the half; while Campbell's free throw brought the Prowler score to 17.

Jack Melby's two baskets from the floor, and Campbell's gift toss, were the only points racked up by Thief River in the third period. Fosston collected six points, to hold a 26 to 22 lead as the final period opened.

Campbell broke up a Fosston play and dribbled in for set-up, to bring the score to 26 to 24. Porky Thompson dropped in a one-handed shot from the corner of the floor; and popped in another one-hander from the sideline. Colligan broke in for close shot, and after Matheson had counted a Prowler free throw, Colligan scored on a "sleeper". Matheson picked off a rebound and pivoted in for close shot, but Fosston's stellar guard, Thompson, swished in a one-handed shot from out on the floor; and Colligan ended the Fosston scoring on a close-in shot.

Marvin Thompson, Russ Hagen, and Jim Colligan were the outstanding players in the Fosston line-up, with Thompson the game's high point man. Campbell, Melby, Peterson, and Matheson performed the best for the Prowlers.

.... With HUCK OLSON

Look 'Em Over

Tomorrow night the win-starved Prowlers tangle with one of the best Green Wave teams that East Grand Forks has had for a number of years. In fact, the best team they've had since 1935. By tournament time this improving East Grand outfit should be the club to beat for the 31st district title. I realize that the Warren Ponies have taken the measure of East Grand twice this season, but it's not always an advantage to win the regular season games, especially when the teams are as evenly matched as East Grand Forks and Warren appear to be.

And since their defeats by Warren Coach Wilson's team has been strengthened considerably by the addition of Pete Hunt to their line up. Scrappy, black-haired, bow-legged Pete was a letterman two years ago, and he has given the Green Wave the "lift" they needed. At the forwards are lettermen Larry Worden and Clyde Babcock. Worden is very fast and a fair shot; while the spectacled Babcock is an aggressive ball hawk. At center East Grand has Bennett Larson, a three year man. Larson, who captains the team, has a fine pivot shot, and is an able play-maker. At the guards, Wilson has Hunt and Ray Martin. Martin, a lanky kid who transferred to the East Grand high school from St. James Academy, has a loose and careless shot, but he can get into a streak of hot shooting. These five players give the Green Wave an all-veteran outfit, and, just as a guess, I'll say that they will represent this district in the regional at Fosston.

Not only will this winter be remembered as the winter without much snow, but it will also be remembered as the winter when the Prowlers had difficulty in winning more than one game. Last Tuesday night, and it's been in the same pattern all year, the Prowlers made hard work of losing to Fosston. Regardless of the opposition, the Prowlers appear to play just well enough to lose by about 8 or 10 points. They simply haven't the stuff this year, and that's for sure.

They'll be Hard to Move

The Eagles team won the odd game of their series with the Red Owl Monday night and went into undisputed possession of first place in the Service league, being two games in the lead of the runner up Elks. And it's going to take some doing to dislodge that Eagles team. Take a look at the bowlers they have on their roster, and their average: Emil Dostal, with a 179; Jim Dryden, 169; Rasher Hallstrom and George Comstock, each with 166; and Ferd Elstad, with 149. These bowlers and these averages are going to give the Elks' Walt Larson quite a headache before the season is over.

I Hope I'm There

When Don Wange of the Hornets scores his first goal. Don hasn't made a goal in five Hornet hockey games, and he's the only high ranking forward player that hasn't scored. Jug Snelling and Lloyd Johnson have each tallied 7 goals, Mouse and Johnny Eftelard have scored 4 goals each, and Bob Baker has popped in 3 markers; but "Scoreless" Wange has only 3 assists, no goals, to his credit.

An Object Lesson

Young Walt Kavanaugh is hobbling around town on a pair of crutches. And he's lucky that he's able to hobble. Walt was out hunting rabbits the other day, and he leaned a loaded rifle against a tree. The rifle fell, discharged, and the bullet punked Walt's leg. The bullet passed between the two bones below the calf of his left leg, and it's Walt's good fortune that he had 22 shorts in his rifle and not a high powered long rifle cartridge.

Lincoln Soph Quintet Whips Freshmen 35-27 in Contest Saturday

Led by their scoring aces, Billy McKechnie and Norm Furuseth, the Sophs defeated the Freshmen, 35 to 27, Thursday night, and went into a two games to one lead in their series with the Frosh. "Kercher" scored 11 points, while "Oats" collected 9 points.

Virg Evenstad high-lighted the Frosh scorers, connecting for six field goals; while stocky Billy Bye directed the floor play of the Freshmen in an able manner.

Standard Oil Dealers Hold Conference Here

Plans to assist the public to keep motor cars and trucks in operating condition were discussed last Wednesday at a conference of Standard Oil sales executives and dealers in Thief River Falls. Speaking for the company, C. M. FARM SECURITY TO MAKE MACHINERY REPAIRING LOANS

Eligible Borrowers Can Get Assistance, Thelander Announces

The Farm Security Administration will lend money to pay for repairing and conditioning farm machinery belonging to its borrowers or to other farmers who meet the requirements for FSA loans, Mr. H. W. Thelander, county supervisor, announced today.

"These loans are to insure that production of needed food by families cooperating with the FSA will not be curtailed next year because of farm machinery that is in bad shape," Mr. Thelander said. "The 'Food for Victory' program must not fail because it is just as essential to defense as is the industrial program at our factories.

Farmers must bear in mind too that with farm prices higher than they have been in years, they must make the most of their opportunity to produce in abundance. Machinery will become scarcer, and, no doubt, prices of new machinery and parts will be higher, so it will pay each farmer to check his equipment now and make the necessary repairs. Machinery should be put in good condition now, even though it might last another season."

Mr. Thelander said that eligible borrowers also will be loaned money for the purchase of machinery if necessary, although joint purchase and use of new equipment by several families is being urged to meet anticipated shortages and price increases in new machinery next spring.

Two Kittson Co. Men Die as Car Rams into Truck on T. H. 75 Last Friday

Two Kittson county men were killed and five other persons injured when Joe Olsonowski, farmer near Hallock, drove his car into his own stalled cattle truck on Highway 75 Friday night.

Dead are Alvin Olson, 54, president of the Kittson County Fair association and director of the Minnesota Federation of County Fairs, and Adam Gorsik, 65, farmer near Orleans.

Injured are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Olsonowski, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Olsonowski, and Mary Olsonowski.

The accident occurred when Andrew Olsonowski, son of Joe, stopped the truck on the highway to fix the lights. The father, driving behind, failed to see the truck and the crash occurred.

Minnesota Wheat King Receives Award

Peter Schirrick (center), Red Lake Falls farmer, receives the Philip W. Pillsbury award for the best wheat grown in Minnesota in 1941 as judged at the state seed show held in connection with Farm and Home Week at University Farm, from the donor, Mr. Pillsbury (left), Minneapolis flour milling executive. President Walter C. Coffey (right), of the University of Minnesota, is examining the prize-winning sample of reward wheat which tested 64.6 pounds to the bushel.

A cash award, in addition to the trophy, was presented in the form of United States Defense Stamps. Asked his formula for raising prize wheat, Schirrick said: "Select the seed carefully and be sure it is an approved variety. Seed as early as you can. Get your work done on time, but don't buy on time."

IDENTIFICATION CERTIFICATES ARE ASKED OF ALIENS

German, Italian and Japanese Aliens to Get Identity Forms Feb. 9-28

U. S. Attorney General Francis Biddle today announced new regulations affecting the conduct of German, Italian and Japanese nationals throughout continental United States.

The new regulations, issued under authority of the presidential proclamation of January 14, 1942, relating to alien enemies, require all German, Italian and Japanese aliens to apply at the nearest first or second class, or county seat, post office for a certificate of identification. The requirement applies to all enemy nationals 14 years of age or over who have not yet taken the oath of allegiance before a federal judge, the final step in acquiring American citizenship.

The regulations provide for two separate periods for the submitting of applications for identity certificates, as follows:

1. All German, Italian and Japanese nationals residing in the west coast states are required to file applications between February 2 and February 7, 1942, inclusive.

2. All German, Italian and Japanese nationals residing elsewhere in continental United States are required to file applications at the nearest first or second class, or county seat, post office between February 9 and February 28, inclusive.

Failure to comply with the new regulations may be punished by severe penalties, including possible internment of the enemy alien for the duration of the war.

The regulations require enemy aliens, in applying for identification certificates, to provide a photograph of themselves (to be attached to the identity cards) and to answer a number of questions concerning their current activities. Printed directions for the filing of applications will shortly be available at post offices.

The regulations provide that after careful check has been made of each application, the applicant will be provided with a Certificate of Identification bearing his photograph, and a fingerprint and signature. He will thereafter be required to carry the certificate with him at all times.

MINNESOTA FARM BUREAU MEETING DRAWS OVER 3000

Present Staff of Officers Retained at St. Paul Convention

The leadership of the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation was reelected at the annual meeting of the Farm Bureau held in St. Paul, Jan. 19-21. Frank W. White, Marshall, was re-elected president; Ole A. Flaat, Fisher, first vice president; and H. M. Sword, Deer River, second vice president. B. J. Huseby, of Adams, president of the Mower County Farm Bureau, succeeds George Schwartau, former president of the Goodhue County Farm Bureau, on the executive board. J. W. Stevenson, Faribault county, who has served on the executive board for 16 years, was reelected.

Hold-over members of the executive board are Harry Bureau, Fergus Falls; L. O. Jacob, Anoka; J. L. Morton, Hancock, and Mrs. Lewis Minion, Bingham Lake.

The convention, attended by more than 3,000 farmers, had a voting body of 79 County Farm Bureau delegates. These delegates, previously instructed by their county farm bureaus, voted unanimously for control of inflation through federal control of wages and industrial prices as well as farm prices. Delegates were emphatic in their denunciation of proposals now under consideration at Washington that would put a low limit on farm prices while allowing labor's wages to rise to unprecedented heights. The principles of the Patman amendment to the price control bill were endorsed.

The AAA program was given unqualified approval, but the Farm Bureau by official resolution strongly condemned administrative practices that have resulted in the loading of the federal payrolls with unnecessary personnel. Coordination of the various federal agencies dealing with agriculture was demanded, so that duplication and wasted effort can be dispensed with.

The draft is taking highly trained farm workers from the highly important business of food production. Unless consideration is given to the nation's need for these men on farms, rather than in training camps, farmers will not be able to produce food to the great extent demanded of them, another resolution pointed out, in calling attention to the draining of manpower from the farms. The Farm Bureau also pointed out the need for fair consideration by priorities boards of agriculture's need for agricultural machinery and supplies.

"LIGHTNING" STRIKES WITH MERCURY AT 15 BELOW

Ellendale— When lightning strikes in Minnesota in the dear old summer time it isn't news, but when "Lightning" strikes in Minnesota on a day in January with the mercury registering around the 15 below mark, that is news. And that's exactly what happened in Ellendale on Sunday afternoon, January 4th. It all happened this way. Herbie Baunchet was in a hurry to meet his brother who was here on furlough from army duty, and in his hurry to get some gas failed to allow enough distance to pass the white way light post in that vicinity, and Zowie! Down went the post! Well that in itself wasn't so remarkable, but Herbie happens to be best known to his friends here as "Lightning". So the story was circulating around town fast, to the night that "Lightning" had knocked over a lamp post.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Supplied by the Bureau of Internal Revenue

The Revenue Act of 1941 provides a simplified method of computing income tax in the case of individuals whose gross income is derived wholly from salary, wages or other compensation for personal services, dividends, interest, rent, annuities, or royalties, and does not exceed $3,000. A new Form 1040A has been provided for taxpayers who are entitled to and elect to use such method. A table on the reverse side of this Form shows the amount of tax on increasing amounts of gross income after the proper allowance of $400 for each dependent, if any.

The tax under the simplified method is the same for each $25.00 block of gross income and the taxpayer need only ascertain in which block his gross income (less allowance for dependents) falls to determine his tax. A flat reduction of 10 percent has been made in arriving at the amount of tax shown in the table for deductions such as charitable contributions and taxes paid, so that the taxpayer who uses this method does not list these but gets an automatic deduction of 10 percent.

Under the simplified method the status of a person on the last day of the taxable year is the governing factor in determining the exemption level ($750 for single persons and married persons not living with husband or wife, and $1,500 for married persons living together), as well as the credit for dependents.

A husband and wife living together on the last day of the taxable year may file separate returns on Form 1040A if the gross income of each is from the prescribed sources and does not exceed $3,000, or they may file a single joint return on that form if their combined income is from the prescribed sources and does not exceed $3,000.

The use of the simplified method is optional with the taxpayer but once an election has been made for any year, it is irrevocable for that year. If a taxpayer files a return under the simplified method for the taxable year he may not thereafter file a return under the general provisions of the law for that year. Conversely, if he files a return under the general provisions for any taxable year, he may not thereafter file a return under the simplified method for that year. However, a new election is allowed for each succeeding taxable year.

Republicans Plan for Observance of Lincoln Birthday February 12

Plans for a series of home and community meetings blanketing the state February 12 in commemoration of the birthday of Abraham Lincoln, featured by a broadcast by Governor Harold E. Stassen, were announced this week by Republican leaders.

Calls asking for local Republicans to participate in the observance have been received from officials of the Republican State Central Committee, the Young Republican League of Minnesota and the Minnesota Federation of Women's Republican clubs.

While honoring Lincoln, the Republican groups assembled throughout the state will be asked to center their thoughts on what definite contribution they can make to victory for armed forces of the nation in the present emergency. Governor Stassen will talk over a state-wide radio hook-up from 9 to 9:15 p. m. February 12, and arrangements will be made for the local gatherings over the state to listen in on his address.

STATE'S TRAFFIC DEATHS HIGHEST IN THREE YEARS

More than 600 Persons Lose Lives on the Highways During 1941

Minnesota fatalities resulting from 1941 traffic accidents have already passed the 600 mark, and the number of victims still in critical condition in hospitals probably will bring last year's death toll to the highest number since 1937.

The state highway department this week disclosed that 604 fatalities have been recorded thus far, the largest number since 1938 when 610 lives were lost in traffic. Last year's toll is 28 higher than the death record for 1940, with 576 fatalities.

Although safety officials and members of the Minnesota Editorial Association's "Save 100 Lives" committee expressed chagrin and disappointment, the 1941 record still shows considerable improvement over the state's all-time high of 649 traffic deaths in 1936, and 641 in 1934.

The only class of traffic fatality to show a marked reduction last year was the pedestrian. Pedestrian deaths totalled 175 as against 192 during 1940, or a reduction of 9 per cent.

The most marked increase was in collision between motor vehicles and railroad trains. Forty-seven motorists were killed at grade crossings last year as compared to 34 in 1940, an increase of 38 per cent.

Collision between two or more motor vehicles claimed the lives of 243 men, women and children, an increase of approximately 10% over the 221 similar fatalities recorded in 1940. Non-collision motor vehicle accidents, such as overturning, running off the road, skidding on curves, etc., increased their toll from 129 in 1940 to 139 in 1941, or approximately 8%.

Vendors of Bulk Candy Must Have State License

Under present licensing laws, grocers, confectionary and variety store operators are required to take out a place of refreshment license for the sale of bulk candy, Theodore T. Wold, director of the division of hotel inspection, states that a sanitary inspection of counter-candy bins, pails, scoops, barrels, and boxes in which candy is stored and dispensed from is necessary to protect public health. Candy counters and other dispensing facilities must be properly covered to protect the various candies, confectioneries, and cookies from dust, dirt and other contamination. Rigid enforcement will be effective immediately and operators are urged to cooperate in maintaining high health standards.

Scale Model of Universe

Anton Lies, an amateur astronomer of Philadelphia, has completed a scale model of the universe which will fit in a two-pound candy box.

The railroads have met every requirement of the Nation's defense effort smoothly and efficiently, and without interference with normal traffic. More than two-thirds of all of the Nation's freight moves by rail.

Steel on Steel

The war, day by day, comes closer to the lives of all of us. Yesterday's vague outlines of a far-off cataclysm are rapidly emerging as stark realities.

Unfolding events are necessitating quick and drastic adjustments—sacrifices not contemplated a few months ago—changes in defense efforts, in our ways of doing business, and in our ways of living.

The family automobile, so convenient and often so necessary, has had its days numbered—depending on the life of its tires.

Affected in the same way by the regulations adopted to conserve the Nation's rubber supplies, is travel by automobile for business purposes, and all delivery services from retail establishments.

Unemployment and other hardships resulting from these drastic restrictions must, of course, be endured because the war in the Pacific has threatened America's access to the principal sources of raw rubber.

But the vital transportation needs of the Nation's defense efforts and most of the essential transportation needs of the American people are not in jeopardy because railroad transportation is not dependent upon rubber.

The continuance of adequate and efficient railway transportation does not depend on imports from foreign lands. Its needs flow mainly from America's own forests, iron mines, coal mines and oil fields.

Rubber can be further conserved for the Nation's all-out defense effort by using rail transportation—freight and passenger—whenever and wherever possible.

Trains ride on steel—an All-American product.

Kitty's Komments

During the day the sun had been so warm the snow had thawed; and small ponds of water now glistened in the light of a crescent moon. The smell of moist earth arose from the darkened expanse of garden that lay black in the dim moonlight. Bare branches of trees seemed to be ready to awaken to the touch of spring. The faint clinking sound of water beginning to freeze was heard as the night grew on; stars were dimly glittering through the damp fog that arose from the warmer earth into the cold night air. The "whoo whoo" of an owl in the woods near the river sounded so near in an atmosphere so much like spring.

Believe it or not, it was the evening of the twenty third of January.

STATE PATROL NIPS 100,000 ROAD LAW OFFENDERS IN 1941

15,000 Drivers Arrested for Violations Endangering Life

Almost 100,000 [illegible] on Minnesota's highways were given warnings, "must repair" tags, or were subjected to arrest and punishment by the courts during 1941, according to the yearly report of the state highway patrol activities submitted by Patrol Chief [illegible] Rowe to Highway Commissioner M. J. Hoffmann.

High in the patrol's unceasing efforts to make Minnesota's highways safer for those who use them were the 41,070 verbal and written warnings given to erring motorists.

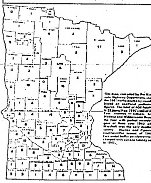
In line with the patrol's all-out aid-to-motorists activities, minor adjustments or repairs were made for 18,764 drivers, gasoline delivered to 1,191, and 1,641 cars were helped out of ditches.

Flagrant violations of the driving code brought arrests and subsequent convictions to 15,0[illegible] drivers—the largest number in any one year since the patrol's organization and an increase of 370 over the previous high total set in 1940. These violators paid a total of $203,167 in fines upon conviction, with the 1,400 arrested for drunken driving dipping up $[illegible] of this total. Driving with dangerously improper equipment led as causes for arrest, with 3,082 being apprehended. Excessive speed, that is speed too great for conditions, caused 2,591 arrests, careless driving 1,988, going through "stop" signs 1,567, and improper passing on curves and hills 1,077.

Patrolmen checked 169,7[illegible] drivers' licenses, 46,191 cars' lights and 26,400 brakes, and weighed 1,523 trucks.

Of the 41,070 "one more chance" warnings issued by patrolmen, driving cars with improper lights brought reprimands to 11,926, having improper vehicle licenses 5,677, driving a car without a driver's license in possession 4,262, excessive speed for road and weather conditions 2,586, driving in the wrong lane 1,391, and operating overweight or oversize vehicles 1,1[illegible].

TRAFFIC DEATH STRUCK LAST YEAR IN ALL BUT FOUR MINNESOTA COUNTIES; 604 DEAD



This map, compiled by the Minnesota Highway Department, shows the 1941 traffic deaths by counties, based on unofficial preliminary figures. The total of 604 fatalities is 72 more than 1940's total of 5[illegible]. Four counties — Kittson, Scott, Wadena and Wilkin [illegible] — came through the year with perfect records [illegible] over 1940 when Marshall was the only deathless county. Murray and Pipestone counties, the scenes of 1940's two worst traffic accidents, were charged with but one fatality each in 1941.

BEMIDJI COLLEGE HEAD ADDRESSES PTA HERE MONDAY

Association Will Sponsor Pre-School Clinic Again This Spring

At a meeting of the Parent Teacher association Monday evening in the Lincoln high school auditorium, Dr. C. R. Sattgast, president of Bemidji state teachers college, discussed the responsibilities of a citizen in the present crises.

Musical numbers on the program, of which President E. B. Benson was in charge, included selections by the high school boys octet and groups of vocal solos by Miss Grace Omundson and by Irving Nordquist of Pelican Rapids, student at the Bemidji college.

In a short business session, the association voted to cooperate in the annual preschool clinic to be conducted this spring under the supervision of Mrs. Clara G. Paulson, school nurse, and also to finance incidental expenses. Mr. Benson announced that Mrs. C. L. Bolduck would have charge of the program for the next meeting.

Discussing individual responsibilities in time of war, Dr. Sattgast said the father's chief duties should be to attend to his regular tasks and to buy as many defense bonds and stamps as possible, while the mother's task is to continue in every way possible and to assist with home defense work.

Sons under draft age, he said, should go to work, or, if properly equipped, should continue their education at higher institutions of learning, there being a strong demand from the government for trained personnel.

Daughters, Dr. Sattgast said, should be trained to perform tasks done by men in peace time, and may also make themselves useful as secretaries or homemakers.

DAYLIGHT SAVING GOES INTO EFFECT MONDAY MORNING

Act of Congress Calls for Setting Clocks One Hour Ahead

President Roosevelt recently signed legislation placing the entire nation on daylight saving time, effective at 2 a. m. Monday, Feb. 9.

The statute, which placed clocks one hour ahead, will continue in effect for the duration of the war and for not more than six months thereafter. It can be nullified in the meantime by congress, however. The purpose is to achieve greater efficiency in this country's industrial war effort.

The new law flatly states that "standard time of each zone (in the United States) shall be advanced one hour" and congressional experts say that it will require no further action by any state or community.

They admitted that technically the bill would apply only to instruments under federal jurisdiction, firms in interstate commerce and federal establishments — but the consensus was that others will not seek to contest the new time.

Thus, they said, it will automatically be effective throughout the nation, although the interstate commerce committee in reporting on the matter said that "farmers and businessmen will, of course, be free to observe whatever time they wish."

Thief River Falls business places will adopt the new schedule, it was announced by E. B. Benson, chairman of the merchants committee of the Civic and Commerce association.

The new act is similar to that adopted in the World war.

The federal power commission estimated there would be a saving of 736,282,000 kilowatt hours annually by adoption of the measure. It said the nation used 111,[illegible],565,000 kilowatt hours last year. The real benefit from the change, FPC said, will come by relieving the present peak-demand for power between dark and bed time.

County's Annual Financial Report Shows Receipts of $728,002.63

BONDED DEBT IS CUT $30,000 PAST YEAR

Outstanding Bonds Amount to $368,000 at End of Past Year

Published elsewhere in this issue of the Times is the Pennington county financial statement, giving a detailed picture of transactions for the year 1941, the report having been prepared in the office of County Auditor A. M. Senstad.

An encouraging feature of the report is a reduction of $30,000 in the outstanding bonded debt during the year, the total remaining unpaid on December 31 aggregating $368,000, exclusive of $7,000 highway reimbursement bonds to be paid by the state.

Bonds outstanding at the end of the year were as follows: Road and bridge funding bonds, $70,000; poor fund funding bonds, $21,000; ditch refunding bonds, $433,000; road and bridge refunding bonds, $40,000; and drainage bonds, $4,000.

A total of $306,583.54 in current taxes was paid to the county treasurer in 1941, while taxes paid for former years amounted to $30,996.55.

Receipts in the road and bridge fund, including a balance of $8,037.77 on hand at the start of the year, aggregated $134,636.34 in 1941, and a total of $126,327.56 in warrants was drawn against the fund.

Under new regulations, publication of names of persons receiving old-age assistance, included in last year's statement, is omitted from the 1941 report.

'Lincoln Also Spoke'

In Hanover, Pa., a shaft was recently unveiled of Mary Shaw. The name is unfamiliar to most persons but to her belongs the distinction of being one of the very few persons who had the power of analysis to acclaim the Lincoln Gettysburg address a great speech.

While other reporters fell into the mistake of playing up the "orator of the day" and paraphrased a race track expression by adding, "President Lincoln also spoke," Mary Shaw, a reporter on the Hanover, Pa., Spectator, reported what Lincoln said word for word.

Below her likeness is this inscription:

"Her firsthand report of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address bore witness to its greatness. In her account for the Hanover Spectator she preserved Lincoln's words from his own lips. She helped the world to hold remember. Her fellow townsmen pay this belated tribute to her courage, vision and foresight that we may never forget."

Laps Up Blood

Some members of the bat family will eat fruit or bugs. In fact, the biggest bats in the world, the giant fruit bats of Java, have no interest in a blood diet. This is fortunate for the natives, for these bats measure three feet and more across their wings.

There is always a legend about the vampire bat, and not all of these tales are true. One persistent bit of lore is that the creature is a blood sucker. This is wrong. The vampire literally laps up blood with a tiny and amazingly efficient tongue. This tongue flicks back and forth at high speed when the flesh of the victim has been punctured and takes up the blood as fast that it seems the eating is done by sucking it up.

Labels Help Identify

A helpful idea at canning time is to label jelly glasses, fruit jars and other containers with the name of the contents and the date of preparation. Then it is always easy to identify and select whatever is wanted off the shelves.

One of the easiest ways is to fix the paper label on the jar with transparent adhesive tape, which seals tightly at a touch of the finger and requires no moistening. This tape is transparent as glass so the label is easily read and is also protected against stain or dust. Tape and label are readily removed when the [illegible]

Many housewives also label the [illegible] shelves in the same way.

Bridegroom Carried Bread

In the Seventeenth century, it was the custom for a Bulgarian bridegroom to carry a loaf of fresh bread with him to the altar as a token that he would provide well for his bride.

Record Making Delicate Work; Gold Plated

Heat is necessary to record making, but never afterward. A disk starts with a round metal plate, one-half inch thick and slightly larger than the record will be when finished. It is heated and a thin layer of wax flows on to be cooled carefully and passed on to the recording room. The sound picked up by microphones and converted into electrical energy by amplifiers piped into the room is changed back into mechanical energy and impressed on the thin layer of wax by the cutting head. The waxed plate is put on a machine under a vacuum and the recorded surface is covered with a very thin layer of gold.

It is now a metal plate with a layer of wax containing music cuts and the surface is gold plated. It is put into a copper-sulphate solution for 16 hours and a heavy copper plate put over the gold. This copper-plate is lifted away from the wax and the inside surface is gold with an opposite impression of music. The disk is nickel plated, then chrome plated to make the grooves more rugged. It now is ready to be put on a press.

Then the label is set in the center, the mass of the formula is put on the disk and it is heated to 300 degrees. The press is closed by hand and opened immediately. The finished record then is ready to play. But before it is played on your phonograph, brush off the carbon dust with a velvet buffer or a soft hair brush like you use on your felt hat.

Quart Milk Without Cost Each Day Defense Move

Declaring that 33 per cent of the first 1,000,000 drafters were declared unfit for military duty, largely because of malnutrition, W. D. Dobbins, a Birmingham real estate man, is steadily building support for a plan under which every child in the nation, under 14 years of age, would receive a quart of milk each day without cost.

The Dobbins proposal, which he hopes to have introduced in congress as soon as some difficulties are ironed out, provides for an initial federal appropriation of $600,000,000 to start operation of the plan which he characterizes as a defense move.

Dobbins cited figures showing that 20 per cent of the nation's 45,000,000 school children are undernourished and liable to serious mental or physical illness.

He would have the department of agriculture issue white stamps similar to food and cotton stamps now being used, with which those under 14 could purchase not more than one quart of milk a day.

His slogan is: "A quart of milk a day per child will make the cheeks of American children rosy, the pastures green and the farmers prosperous."

Laying Out Vegetable Garden

Before laying out a vegetable garden choose a spot with a southern exposure and one that is away from trees. Trees rob the soil of moisture and plant food which are necessary for good vegetables.

Growing With Your Child

Institute of Child Welfare, University of Minnesota

He's My Baby, Too!

Donald was being undressed and put into his night clothes when his father came in, bringing a fresh whiff of cold along with him. Peeling off his overcoat and gloves, he waved a radiant "hi-ya, boy!" to the delighted baby, and after washing his hands and face, leaned over the bed where his wife was working on Donald, and gave the child a playful poke in the ribs.

A happy squeal was the answer, as Donald wriggled away from his mother, and tried to climb all over his father, now lying on his back on the bed.

"Donald, do lie still until I fasten your nightie!" protested the child's mother, as the lively little creature eluded her grasp. "Oh Jim", she went on, "now you'll get him all stirred up, and he won't go to sleep."

"But when do I get to see him, if he's in bed when I get home?" Jim wanted to know. "He's my baby, too, you know!"

"Yes, but he loves to play with you so much that he gets all excited, and can't settle down, while if he goes to bed before you come home, he falls asleep like a lamb. You know how he cried last night, and was determined not to go to bed."

"But if I don't see him except on Saturday afternoon and Sunday I'm like a stranger to him," complained Jim. "You have him all day, I don't see why you can't arrange his schedule so that he isn't too tired to play with me at night."

"It isn't that he's too tired, Jim, it's just that when you romp with him, he gets so much fun out of it that he wants to keep on and on. If you could only think of some way of myalpgosbl— some way of playing so that he didn't get so over stimulated."

These young people share their problem with a great many other parents. The father should get acquainted with his child. He should have an opportunity to have fun with him. But if evening is the only time when it's possible for him to see his little son, he'll have to plan to sit down with him quietly, show him pictures, or, as he gets a bit older, read to him or sing to him, so that the general effect of his contact is soothing instead of stimulating. A child can look forward to the quiet play time with his father quite as much as the tustle and romp—which can be reserved mostly for Sundays. Jim had better lay in a supply of picture books, and if he's not inventive, learn some stories to tell. That way he can build up a very desirable companionship that the child will look forward to with deep joy.

New Vitamin Preparation

A new vitamin preparation that looks and tastes a bit like molasses has just been placed on the market. One interesting thing about it is that a single tablespoonful contains 750 units of B-1, 6,000 units of A, [illegible] milligrams of B-2, 40 milligrams of nicotinic acid, and some pantothenic acid and B-6, with other members of the B complex. But the most interesting thing about the preparation is its relatively low cost. The formula and method of manufacture were developed at California Institute of Technology. As their advertisement declares a B-1 solution makes "gorgeous giant flowers, makes house plants shoot up like magic and banishes the eight [illegible]."

PAGEANT TUESDAY AT WINTER SHOWS WAS BIG SUCCESS

Pennington Co. Young People Participate in Event at Crookston

"Pan-Americana," a colorful pageant depicting the home, industrial, agricultural and religious life of the American republics, was an outstanding feature of the thirty-second annual Red River Valley Winter Shows and Northwest School Farmers' Week at Crookston Tuesday. The pageant, a typical Red River Valley project, was presented by a cast of 200 players supported by a chorus and orchestra of 100 musicians from fourteen northwestern Minnesota counties.

The Winter Shows board of managers, farm bureaus, commercial organizations, agricultural agents and individuals in the counties sponsored the successful project. Miss Mary Anne Mather, county agent at large for Minnesota, was general director.

T. M. McCall, president of the Winter Shows Board of Managers, stated "The pageant, 'Pan-Americana', depicted the good neighbor policy between the republics of the Americas and demonstrated what the good neighbor policy between counties in the Red River Valley could accomplish."

Background music for the pageant was furnished by a Crookston orchestra under the direction of T. W. Thorson and a chorus of eighty-seven voices from Norman county under the directions of Walter Drengson. Joseph Lloster of Crookston served as narrator.

Participating in the pageant was a group of nearly 20 young people from this community, directed by Mrs. R. O. Larson and Mrs. Gordon Ballangrud. Mrs. Jeanette Wright served as chairman for Pennington county on the committee handling arrangements for the event.

State Draft Board Head Explains Local Doctor's Role in Physical Exams

A statement intended to dispel apparent confusion about the selective service physical examination procedure was issued today by Lt. Col. J. E. Nelson, state director of selective service.

Many comments have been received by state headquarters relative to the number of rejections at Fort Snelling, after the registrant has been passed by the local board physician.

The percentage of rejections at Fort Snelling, it was emphasized, is no reflection on the local board physician's ability to detect physical defects. The physical is designed as merely a "screening" examination. Its only purpose is to eliminate those registrants who have some obvious defect which would without question disqualify them for military service.

A list of these obviously disqualifying defects has been issued by national headquarters for selective service. The local board doctor is restricted to this list in rejecting registrants. If a registrant does not have any of the defects on the list, he is sent to Fort Snelling.

The purpose of the procedure, it was stated, is to allow the Army to choose its men. If the Army discovers a man with a defect which, if removed, would permit his induction, it will be [illegible] when the defect is corrected.

If tin is so scarce, why doesn't the government take steps to salvage tin cans? This question was answered for us this week. The answer seems to be that there isn't much tin in tin cans—just a little more than 1%—and for this small amount old cans are not worth what the reclaiming would cost. There is a possibility that tin cans of the future will contain no tin and as a means of conserving metal small sized cans may be eliminated. The same amount of metal that will pack 100 lbs. of food in No. 2 containers will pack 180 lbs. of food in No. 10 containers. This doesn't mean that canned food will not be available in small containers. It may mean that instead of ordering a can of soup you will specify a glass or a jar of soup.

Sunday night is the night we lose an hour of sleep. Two o'clock Monday morning automatically becomes three o'clock Monday morning and by the clock the sun will rise an hour later Monday morning than it did Sunday morning. In our community the new arrangement may cause a little inconvenience during the period of short days. During the shortest days, under the new arrangement, it will be almost noon before it starts getting light. But whether we have our hour of sunshine in the morning or in the afternoon isn't so important, and whether our hour of twilight during the summer months starts at 11:30 or 12:30 isn't going to effect our sleeping habits a great deal. Important thing is the great saving the new arrangement will mean for the nation as a whole. So in the spirit of sacrifice, while we are waiting for the cat to get back in the house, we'll heroically set the clock an hour ahead Sunday night without a murmer of complaint.

It isn't only because it retards the Jap's military program that General MacArthur's stubborn fight in the Philippines is so important. Most important factor in the heroic resistance of this small army of Filipinos and Americans is its face saving value thruout the Orient. Up to the present time the white man's performance in the Pacific has not been impressive. Time and again the armies of the race Orientals have been led to believe is invincible, have been pushed back by the yellow men of Japan. In the mind of the Oriental observer, unpreparedness is not an excuse. If our white men were so superior they would have been prepared. And the weakness of our defense in these early weeks of the war has been of great value to the Japs in their efforts to gain the moral support of neutral Orientals, many who no doubt are elated over the white man's humiliation. The one bright spot in this otherwise discouraging picture is the valiant last ditch fight General MacArthur and his men are making. That one demonstration of military skill and courage is more encouraging to the Chinese than all our promises of future aid. It will be many months before we will have sufficient strength in the Pacific to do more than resist the advances of the enemy and during those months there will be many more incidents that will reflect discredit upon us in the mind of the native of the Far East. During those months the memory of MacArthur and his men will do much to keep alive the hopes of our Oriental friends.

Our war in the Pacific is now two months old. It is reasonable to assume that during this period of two months the Japs have put forth their greatest possible effort. Their campaign has had three principal objectives. They have sought to gain control of the rich islands of the South Pacific primarily to assure themselves of a supply of oil. They have sought to capture Singapore, most important enemy base. And they have sought to gain control of the Burma Road, closing the back door to China. So far none of these objectives have been gained completely. While they have established important bases in the East Indies, they still have not gained control of them. Singapore is under siege and as an enemy base it has been made ineffective, but it still has not been captured. And the fight to conquer Burma is just getting under way. There is a possibility that they may succeed in all these objectives, and if they do then they will be in a position to fight a long war. During these two months the Japs have fought with the maximum strength of a highly organized war machine. They will be stronger in the future only as they enjoy the advantage of position. That is why it is so important now to keep them from establishing themselves in advantageous positions. That is why it is so important now to retain Singapore and to keep the Burma road open. And that is why the developments of the next few months will be of such vital importance.

SILVERTON

The Civilian defense program in Silverton has gotten off to a flying start and is rapidly covering the township. A well organized group of excellent leaders consisting of Mrs. S. S. Mistletoe Loses Charms When Berries Are Gone

In the language of flowers, Mistletoe means "give me a kiss." This has its basis in a Scandinavian myth. And from this old tale we derive our custom of kissing under the mistletoe.

As it hangs upon the chandelier or in the doorway, each lad may claim a kiss from the maid who chances beneath it with this provision, that the lad remove a berry to give to the maid, until, at last, when no berries are left, the bough loses its spell and no more kisses are then available.

The story continues "that the maiden who receives no kisses under the mistletoe will not marry that year."

Sales Talk

A tradesman sent a well-known doctor, a box of cigars, which had not been ordered, with a bill for 25 shillings. The accompanying letter ran: "I have ventured to send these on my own initiative, being convinced that you will appreciate their exquisite flavor."

The doctor replied:

"You have not asked me for a consultation, but I venture to send you five prescriptions, being convinced that you will be as satisfied with them as I am with the cigars. As my charge for each prescription is five shillings, this makes us quits."

Bon Voyage

Three men arrived at the railway station with the intention of catching the last train. As they reached the platform the train began to move out. The men ran for the train, and the guard and a porter bundled two of them into the guard's van.

The third man stood disconsolately on the platform watching it disappear.

"Hard luck, sir," said the porter. "I'm sorry you were unable to get on."

"Yes," replied the man. "My friends will be sorry, too; they were only seeing me off."

A Few Little Smiles

ECONOMY

A man visiting a house for the first time, found that his host was the father of three wild children. The latter made so much noise that the visitor found it difficult to hear a word that was said.

One child was busy ripping the upholstery out of a brand-new divan. A second lad was driving nails into an expensive table, and the third was swinging gaily from a chandelier.

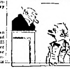
The bewildered guest eyed the youngster who was driving nails into the furniture. He turned to his host.

"I say," he said, pointing to the boy with the hammer, "don't you find it rather expensive to let your children play like that?"

The host smiled proudly.

"Not at all," he replied cheerfully. "I get the nails wholesale!"

CASE DISMISSED



Judge—Why do you want a new trial?

Lawyer—On the grounds of newly discovered evidence, your honor.

Judge—What's the nature of it?

Lawyer—My client dug up $400 that I didn't know he had.

Dead Beat

Offenbach, the composer, famed for the delicacy and grace of his music, could not tolerate an off-beat or a sour note.

One day, for no discernible reason, he became angry at his valet and dismissed him. When the man returned a week later for a letter of reference, the composer gave him the highest recommendation.

"Why on earth did you discharge the man?" asked a friend.

"He caused me terrible anguish," replied Offenbach. "He used to beat my clothes outside my door and I never could get him to do it in time."

Increased Production of Flax in Northwest Is Advocated for '42

Nobody can foretell with any degree of accuracy how much linseed oil will be needed by the United States in 1942. Leading government officials estimate that unless lost imports of vital Pacific oil supplies are replaced by domestic production a billion pound shortage might be experienced.

Secretary Wickard has personally appealed to raisers of oil-bearing crops to raise their acreage in the interests of national defense. This appeal is directed at flax growers in Minnesota and the northwest territory, the largest producers of flaxseed in North America.

Farmers of Minnesota have been called upon to produce flaxseed in volume heretofore thought impossible, in fact many skeptics still feel that a crop of the magnitude proposed, reaches into the realm of fancy.

Hospital Service Assn. Representatives Meet in Minneapolis Jan. 27

Representatives of 96 Minnesota hospitals affiliated with the Minnesota Hospital Service Association met at St. Mary's Hospital, Minneapolis, Tuesday, January 27 to discuss the various problems of the Association's Blue Cross Plan for hospital care which now has 450,000 subscribers in the state.

All hospitals are experiencing a gradual increase in operating expense due to the war situation. Increases in cost of commodities and other expenditures will undoubtedly result in a necessary increase in rates for all hospital patients.

Arthur M. Calvin, executive director of the association, reported that hospital care totalling $1,573,236 was provided to subscribers for the year 1941. "This is indicative," he said, "that the association is rendering a necessary and vital service to the employed people in Minnesota and their families and that it is a definite asset to the state."

SUSPECT

Mrs. Blank had a burglary recently. When the news got about, a neighbor called on her in great excitement.

"I saw one of the burglars!" she declared. "He was standing just inside the gate, and kept peeping out at the road and then glancing back at the house. He was evidently keeping watch for the ones inside."

Mrs. Blank was all agog.

"What was he like?" she inquired.

"He was a little man, very shabbily dressed. I couldn't see his face. He had an old battered hat pulled down over it. He was a fellow you'd feel suspicious about at once."

"What time was this?" asked Mrs. Blank.

"Just after eleven."

Mrs. Blank stiffened.

"That was Mr. Blank," she said.

SKATING SONG

A stout man, fat and forty,
Was trying hard to skate,
To show that he was sporty
And strictly up-to-date,
And as he cut an angle,
Although he tried his best,
His feet got in a tangle
And you can guess the rest.

After Thought

A chorus girl introduced her young man to another chorus girl, with the result that he transferred his affections. The aggrieved girl gave her rival a piece of her mind in a letter, which read:

"You Heartless Creature—You knew very well we had been going about together for six months. Wait till I lay my hands on you, you good-for-nothing bleached blonde. I'll scratch your face, pull out your hair, and throw acid on you. Yours truly, C—— N——.

"P.S.—Please excuse pencil."

White Elephants

In a town where everything is up to date and the people are always planning some new scheme, a shocking thing happened. One of the popular society women announced a "White Elephant Party." Every guest was to bring something that she could not find any use for, and yet too good to throw away. The party would have been a great success but for the unlooked-for development which broke it up. Eleven of the nineteen women brought their husbands.

Or a Quandary

The sergeant raged as his squad of recruits turned left when they should have turned right and vice versa. Private Higgins was the greatest offender, and the sergeant, going up to him, bawled in his ear.

"Haven't you ever drilled before in your life?"

"Yes, sergeant," replied Higgins. "I once drilled for three years."

"Oh, indeed . . . and where?" snapped the sergeant.

"In a quarry," grinned Higgins.

South St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 3, 1942. There was virtually no change in values on slaughter cattle early this week, except a shade of weakness on Medium and Good cows. According to the Federal State Market News Service, a handful of Choice around 1150 lb. steers topped the week's market thus far at $13.50 while another lot of Choice 1230 lb. steers brought $13.40. Other Good to Choice lots brought $12.00 to $12.50. Bulk of the Medium and Good steers ranged from $9.25 to $11.50. Choice heifers sold up to $12.50 while some Good grade offerings turned at $11.25 and $11.50. Good cows sold from $8.75 to $9.00, with Common and Medium grades at $7.75 to $8.50, and Canners and Cutters at $6.00 to $7.50. Medium sausage bulls continued at $8.25 to $8.75 while Good bulls were taken at $9.00 to $9.50. Vealers grading Good to Choice ranged from $11.00 to $13.00, with strictly Choice kinds $13.50 and odd head on Kosher account up to $14.00. A load of strictly Choice 442 lb. steer calves at $13.00 featured the replacement trade.

The 15c to 25c higher hog market starting off the current week, established the present year's high mark at $12.65. The trading session was unable to maintain this advantage and most of the butchers now sell at levels largely 10c over last Friday. Sows, however, drew broad support retaining most of the 15c to 25c upturn. Demand for lightweight feeder pigs has been rather uncertain, although late sales reflect slightly easier trends. Tuesday's top rested at $12.35, with Good to Choice 180 to 240 lb. butchers noted from $11.90 to $12.10 and Good sows largely $11.15 to $11.25.

Slaughter lambs and sheep marketed early in the week were mostly of western origin. Trading was slow, with fat lambs selling weak to 25c under last Friday. Fat sheep advanced 25c and feeding lambs brought steady money. Good and Choice native and fed lambs [illegible] at $11.50 to $11.90. Good and Choice yearling wethers brought $9.25 to $10.25 and fat ewes of similar grades sold up to $6.50. Good and Choice range feeding lambs cleared at $11.50 and natives realized $9.50 to $10.50.

Egg Hatchability Is Effected by Handling

The hatching power of eggs can be completely destroyed by improper care while they are being held before being incubated, cautions E. M. Funk, University of Missouri, Columbia. He names the three things most likely to cause a reduction in hatchability during the time eggs are held as: too high or too low a temperature, holding the eggs too long, and rough handling.

For best results hatching eggs should be held where the temperature is fairly uniform and between 50 and 60 degrees. The embryo begins development at temperature above 68 degrees, and such development weakens the embryos and thereby lowers hatchability. The embryos of eggs held at low temperatures are also weakened, and hatching results are lowered or destroyed. Eggs held for only a few days at temperatures as low as 35 degrees or as high as 85, will not hatch.

A basement or cellar is a good place to hold hatching eggs because such rooms usually have a high humidity and a low temperature. A dry room will cause the eggs to shrink, and the size of the chicks hatched from such eggs to be small. Turning is not necessary unless the eggs are held for more than one week. Eggs may be turned by tilting the egg case in which they are held.

The hatchability of eggs is greatly reduced by rough handling. Eggs should be packed in cases with the small end down, and handled so there will be but little jarring of the case. Many poultrymen favor the 15-dozen cardboard cases for delivering eggs to hatcheries.

Present Day Calendar Result of Many Beliefs

The calendar has been regulated by mathematics and astronomy. It has been compounded of superstitions and religious rites. Primitive man noted the new moon, watched it wax and wane. He knew the moods of the seasons, and after awhile he sensed they came at regular intervals and that their coming would be sure. The ancient Egyptians calculated time from the rising of the Nile, which occurs in mid-June. The North American Indians computed the length of a journey in so many "sleeps." The Gregorian calendar, which is built around sun, earth, moon and stars, is as accurate as scientific knowledge can make it. It is the calendar most of the world follows. Some conservatives in eastern churches of Orthodox faith cling to the Julian calendar, which is 13 days later.

This year is 2602 in Japan, 5702 to the Jews. In mid-January the Roman year 2695 will begin. In February, the Mohammedan year 1361.

But here in America it is 1942. Let's make the most of every shining hour!

Time marches on!

LOCAL 40 & 8 TO SPONSOR JUNIOR HOCKEY TOURNEY

Planning for Invitational Tournament in Arena March 6 and 7

The hockey committee of the local 40 & 8, at a meeting held Sunday, decided to request permission of the Red River Valley Junior Hockey Association to hold an invitational junior hockey tournament here on March 6th and 7th.

Dr. A. R. Hulbert, secretary of the Association, said that permission for such a tourney would be forthcoming, as vice president Rev. Victor Cardin, of Red Lake Falls, had expressed his sentiments in favor of the meet, and it is expected that president L. E. Miller, of Crookston, would also agree to the tournament.

Invitations will be extended to the foremost junior teams in this vicinity, and that includes teams from North Dakota. Last year's tournament was won by the Fargo, North Dakota sextet, and they are expected to be heard to defend their laurels. The 40 & 8 will provide a $50.00 equipment prize for the winner, and a $25.00 equipment prize for the runner-up.

Emergency Loans Being Made for Twine Buying

E. C. Anderson, field supervisor of the emergency seed and feed loan office in Crookston, stated today that funds are now available for the purchase of binder twine and may be included in crop loan application as well as necessary funds for repairs, seed, feed, and fuel.

Prowlers Defeat East G. Forks Friday 28-23

The Prowlers snapped their seven-game losing streak Friday night, and scored their first district triumph, when they upset East Grand Forks, 28 to 23, in a game played on the local floor. Coach Harry Newby, in an attempt to strengthen the Prowler defense, added Orrin Pederson, Orlin Gjernes, and Homer Matheson to his starting lineup, and these aussies handled the rebounds plays in fine style. Orrin Pederson, in particular, being effective in checking the pivot play of East Grand Forks big Bennett Larson.

The Prowlers play a double-header this week-end, playing at Cass Lake Friday night and at Bemidji Saturday night.

Thief River rolled six points into the east basket Friday night before East Grand Forks broke into the scoring column. Field goals by Milt Reierson and Johnny Campbell, and free throws by Pederson and Reierson, gave the locals a six point lead before the Green Wave's Larry Worden popped in a one-handed shot. Clyde Babcock and Benney Larson marked up free throws for the East Siders, and Reierson's gift toss brought the score to 7 to 4 for the locals as the period ended.

Pete Hunt's long shot, and Babcock's field goal from the free throw circle, sent East Grand into an 8 to 7 lead as the second quarter opened. Reierson's one-handed try found the net, Milt taking a pass from Pederson on the play. Campbell and Babcock exchanged free throws. Lenny Lorentson drove in for a left-handed flip shot; and then made good on a free throw try. Pederson took Reierson's rebound and tipped in a goal. Hunt, on a difficult shot, scored a field goal to cut the Prowler lead to 15 to 11 at half-time.

The Prowlers, out playing the Wave, and employing a semi stall, added to their margin in the third period. Reierson and Campbell connected with field goals. Campbell made a fine play in "stealing" the ball and dribbling in for a setup. Lorentson, Pederson, and Campbell registered from the free throw line, but Martin's two free throws and Harold Horner's goal, on a pivot shot, were the only points garnered by the East Grand Forks team in the third period. The Green Wave lost their stellar guard, Pete Hunt, on fouls a minute after the second half opened.

Holding a 22 to 15 lead as the final period began, the Prowlers, [illegible] the play, continued to control the ball. Pederson scored on a close shot, taking a pass from Campbell. Larson and Martin looped in one-handed [illegible]. Bob Powell looted in a [illegible], and Homer Matheson, on a [illegible] play, scored a field goal, sending the Prowler total to 28 points. Martin rang up an East Grand Forks goal in the final seconds of play.

In a preliminary game the Prowler "B" team, with the Freshmen as their "sparkers", defeated the East Grand Forks "B" team, 20 to 7. Art Forsberg, Freshman forward, led the scoring with [illegible] points.

HORNETS SEXTET WINS TWO; TO PLAY BAUDETTE FEB. 7TH

Game Here Saturday Evening Will Feature Season's Schedule

The Hornets will play the "climax" game of their season Saturday night, February 7, when they face-off against the highly-touted Baudette high school sextet on the Arena ice. Baudette, with such aces as Kenny Zippel, on defense, and Corrigan, their high-scoring center-ice player, has earned the reputation of being the top-ranking team in this part of the state, and is considered to be one of the favorites for the state championship.

Walt DePaul's team, playing fine hockey, rolled up two convincing victories during the week-end. On Saturday afternoon the Hornets out-skated and out-maneuvered the Crookston A. C. aggregation to pile up an easy 11 to 2 win. Mouse Efteland and Jug Snelling led the Hornets scoring drive, with Mouse tallying four times, and Jug scoring two goals.

On Sunday afternoon, in a well-played contest, the Hornets marked up their second win of the season over Sid Foy's Grafton team, defeating the Millionaires, 6 to 1. The locals' "power" line — Lloyd Johnson, Mouse and Johnny Efteland—accounted for the six Hornet goals. Johnson and Johnny Efteland marked up first period scores, while Mouse Efteland and Johnson tallied Hornet goals in the second stanza. After Mouse Efteland had back-handed a shot in the nets at the 7:00 mark in the final period, Grafton, on a goal by Jim Hegrance, chalked up their only score. Mouse Efteland, on a solo drive in for a close shot racking up the sixth Hornet goal. Defenseman Marlyn Dorn, with his vicious body checks, and goalie Johnny Roharge were the defensive stalwarts for the Hornets.

The President's Birthday Ball at the Auditorium Friday evening brought gross returns from tickets sold of $233, which after paying necessary expenses will leave a substantial net profit to aid in financing the campaign against infantile paralysis, it was announced today by J. R. Ulvan, local chairman. In addition the Wishing Well coin receptacles placed in various business places netted $20.66, while Boy Scouts sold buttons for a total of $20.44 and Girl Scouts netted $17. One-half of the net proceeds of the campaign will remain for use in the county, it was announced.

ROCKSBURY TEAM DEFEATS RIVER VALLEY SIX 5-3

Kenny Jaranson Scores Five Goals in Arena Game Wednesday

Kenny Jaranson, scoring four goals, paced the Rocksbury Rockets to a 5 to 3 win over the River Valley Coops in a hockey game played on the Arena ice last night. Goals by Milo Wilde and Cas Radniecki gave River Valley a 2 to 1 lead in the first period, with Jaranson tallying the Rocksbury score. Jaranson knotted the count in the second period; only to have Fred Wilde push in goal to give River Valley a 3 to 2 lead early in the final period. Jaranson's two solo goals and Ray Oen's tally gave Rocksbury the win. Young Dick Radniecki, in the nets for River Valley, played a remarkably fine game.

Keeping Score

It's a "Must"

The 40 & 8 hockey committee was forced to provide a substantial guarantee in order to book the Baudette high school hockey team for their Saturday night's appearance in the Arena against the Hornets. And it is hoped that the season's largest crowd will be on hand when the two teams face-off. Alec Campbell was telling me that two of the players on the Baudette roster, Corrigan and Zippel, are reputed to be prospects for "big time" hockey. Corrigan, who plays center-ice, is reported to be a more able hockey player than the famed Bill Zippel, who set scoring records for Baudette a couple of seasons ago; and Ken Zippel, Baudette's ace defense-man, is a younger brother of Bill, and plays Zippel hockey.

On their season's record, which includes two wins over Williams, the Baudette team should be odds-on favorites to win the game, but the Hornets are playing surprisingly fine hockey and, given a break or two, are capable of upsetting the border team.

I Apologize, Fellows

The Prowlers, by their performance of Friday night, when they toppled the East Grand Forks team by a 28 to 23 score, have had me eating crow all week. Basing my judgment on the play of East Grand when they defeated the Prowlers on the East Side floor some weeks ago, I thought that the Wave would hand the locals a lacing by about 10 to 14 points.

It may be that the East Side outfit was over-confident; but then it may be that the Prowlers are getting over their "growing pains" and beginning to develop into a basketball team. I'll worry about that until the Warren game on the 13th, and then I'll know for sure if the Prowlers are going to go places, or just to the shower-room.

The chief factor in Friday's win was the fine work of the Prowlers in covering the rebounds. Orrin Pederson, who is called "Peter Orrin" by his mates, finally had a big night, scoring six points and hamstringing East Grand's Bennett Larson. And Homer Lee Matheson and "Guernsey" Gjernes put in fine games under the backboards.

But I don't have to apologize for Johnny Campbell's expert play. I've seen all the hot-shot basketball players in the district, and the Prowlers' Campbell is as nifty a ball-handler and play maker as there is in the circuit. In fact Johnny doesn't have to yield very much to any player in the 8th region. If "Soup" only had as fine an eye for the basket as he has for blondes, he would be scoring at least a dozen points a game. And in Milt Reierson and Jack Mellby the Prowlers have two players that, potentially, are district standouts. Milt is the finest shot on the squad, but he requires a lot more stamina. Jack, who was out of Friday's game because of illness, needs experience and confidence, and he's getting that this year. I'll wager that there isn't a player in the district, or region, that can consistently out-jump Jack on a held ball or on a center jump. Milt and Jack, you know, are both Juniors.

Are They Disgusted

The juniors on the Prowler basketball squad, the "B" team members, played nearly the entire first half of the preliminary game Friday night, and the score, after two periods of play, was 5 to 4 in favor of East Grand's "B" team. Coach Newby then sent a team of freshmen—Virg Evenstad, Art Forsberg, Chuck Richards, Billy Bye, and Earl Helle—into the game to start the second half, and the frosh proceeded to roll up 10 points while holding the Green Wave scoreless. The Juniors are being subjected to a lot of good-natured kidding this week.

Sad Note:

The Prowlers, in spite of their improvement, are slated to drop a couple of games during the week-end. They'll lose to Cass Lake's choking zone defense by about 10 points on Friday night, and lose to Bemidji by 14 points on Saturday night.

Miscellany

That Rolland DePaul, ace Illinois U hockey player who is reported to be having eligibility troubles, is Walt DePaul's youngest brother. And, by the way, Frankie Brimsek, Eveleth youth who is playing goalie for the Boston Bruins in the N. H. L. was a classmate of Walt's at St. Cloud Teachers. Frankie quit after his freshman year, so that he could concentrate on pro-hockey—George Lee is billed to officiate at the regional basketball tournament at Fosston. Oscle Oudahl will be George's coworker.—Lenny Lorentson, making a long pass in a Prowler scrimmage Tuesday night, scored a field goal, but Coach Newby didn't appreciate it for he sent Lenny on several laps around the court.

Washington School Quint Whips Knox Cagers 11-5

The well-balanced Washington team, with Jimmy Bye accounting for 6 points, defeated the Knox team, 11 to 6, Saturday afternoon. The Knox "B" team rolled up a 12 to 0 win over the Washington "B" team.

Next Saturday the grade school leadership will be decided when the Northrop school and Washington school teams meet.

Pennington Sportsmen Tuesday Evening Elect Ed Rustad as Club Head

E. J. The program also included colored motion pictures supplied by the Minnesota department of conservation. Lunch was served at the close of the evening.

The annual report of E. O. Peterson, treasurer, revealed 1941 receipts, including income from trapshoots, amounted to $1,402.32, while disbursements aggregated $1,282.15, leaving a balance on hand February 1 of $120.17. At the end of last year the organization had 245 paid-up members.

GRYGLA

ROLF LUNDE SECOND IN SPELLING CONTEST

This section again came out with high honors at the Marshall county spelling contest held at Warren last Friday. Rolf Lunde of the Grygla school won second place and Audrey Stephens of district 139 was awarded fifth place. The winner of first place this year was Ruth Morrissey, an eighth grader from Dist. 103 at Gatzke.

The competition this year was unusually stiff among the twenty-nine contestants participating and scores were very close at the end of the regular contest. Rolf was tied with two other spellers and an additional twenty words were given to break the tie. Again there was a three way tie, so a list of twenty more words were given and they placed Rolf in second place and the other two contestants were given third and fourth places. Rolf spelled the additional forty words without a single error.

Audrey Stephens who really had the third highest score at the end of the contest was given fifth place due to the three way tie. The winner, Ruth Morrissey, will represent Marshall County at the Red River Valley Shows at Crookston on Friday while Rolf will appear at the North Dakota State Fair at Grand Forks next summer. Rolf was given a silver medal for his fine work which he can add to his collection of medals already won in declamatory work.

Last year the winner of first place came from Dist. 139 in the person of Twila Nygaard. This community is justly proud of the youngsters who have made such a fine showing in competition with schools from other parts of the county.

MINNESOTA STRIKE LOSSES ARE CUT 70 PCT. BY LABOR LAW

Disputes Involving 122,000 Are Settled Peacefully in Past 3 Years

Having brought about the peaceful settlement of labor disputes involving more than 122,000 workers, officials directing operation of Minnesota's new labor peace law were able to report this past week that men going out on strike in the state during the past three years has been fully 70% below the number resorting to strikes in the three years prior to enactment of the law.

Taking stock of the gains made, employees in the office of James L. Kelley, state labor conciliator, found from their records:

1. Average number of workers on strike yearly in Minnesota in 1936, 1937 and 1938, before adoption of the new labor peace law, was 15,865.
2. Average number on strike yearly in 1939, 1940 and 1941, under the new labor peace plan, was 4,317.

That the new plan of settling labor disputes, put into effect early in 1939 on recommendation of Governor Harold E. Stassen, has placed Minnesota in a most favorable position compared to the country as a whole was made evident by the report from the conciliator's office. The average number of workers on strike in the nation increased from 1,112,547 yearly during 1936, 1937 and 1938 to a yearly average of 1,141,010 during 1939, 1940 and the first half of 1941, while Minnesota on the other hand was cutting its strike loss more than two-third.

"The law now has been in effect long enough to obtain a fair measure of its effectiveness," Kelley said. "Skeptical in some cases at the outset, employers and workmen alike have come to appreciate advantages of the plan and, generally speaking, like the idea of settling their disputes around a conference table."

Supreme Court Upholds Conviction of Soltau

Conviction of Rev. Henry J. Soltau, Minneapolis anti-vice crusader, who was sentenced to a year's prison term for perjury, was upheld by the Minnesota supreme court Friday.

Soltau's conviction was the outgrowth of his testimony in the Minneapolis municipal court trial of James Hefferon, doing business as the Prince cafe, on Feb. 19, 1940.

The minister was charged with testifying falsely that he entered Jefferson's cafe with Bruce Pogue and Dell Winchester; that he purchased the whiskey, and that he took the whisky away with him.

24-YEAR-OLD $1000 DEBT PAID MERCHANT

Columbia Heights—One local business man (who requested his name be withheld) experienced the thrill of his life a few days ago. Some 24 years ago he immigrated to this country and found work in a copper mine in Upper Michigan. From a small salary he was able to build a nest egg of $1000. When a friend asked to borrow the money for a year he generously loaned it. One year went by, two, five and so on and the money was never returned. Imagine his shock recently upon learning $1000 was awaiting him at home to cover the old debt.

Women's hats aren't the only things that are fashionable and still look terrible.

FAITH IN PEOPLE BUILDS HONEYTERIA

Pipestone—Four miles north of Lake Benton you will find a most unique business institution which attracts many people. Several years ago Carl Anderson believing that practically everyone is honest and willing to back up his belief in a practical way established his "honeyteria" by the side of the road where travelers may drive in and help themselves to honey. The patron makes his own change and leaves the money, taking what he desires. Two years ago 28,000 pounds of honey were sold. Mr. Anderson has his own apiary which furnishes the honey to supply the ever increasing demand.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Supplied by the Bureau of Internal Revenue

Many farmers will be liable for filing income tax returns and payment of tax for the first time this year. The term "farmers" includes livestock raisers, fruit and truck growers, and operators of plantations and ranches.

Farmers may maintain their records and file their returns of income on either the cash receipts and disbursements basis or on the accrual basis of accounting. A consistent method must, however, be employed. If a cash basis is used, Form 1040F, "Schedule of Farm Income and Expenses," is required to be filled out and filed in conjunction with Form 1040.

Deductions from gross income may be made by farmers as necessary expenses, all amounts expended (other than those constituting capital expenditures) in carrying on the business of farming. Deductions for expenses include such items as cost of feeding and raising livestock (except the value of farm produce grown upon the farm and the labor of the taxpayer); cost of seed, minor repairs to farm buildings (other than the dwelling of the farmer); small tools used up in the course of the year or two; fuel and oil used for farm work; repairs and maintenance of farm machinery; hired laborers and hired machines, and cost of commercial fertilizers the benefit of which is of short duration.

The cost of farm machinery, equipment; and farm buildings amounts expended in the development of farms, orchards and ranches, as well as the amounts expended in the restoration of soil fertility preparatory to actual production of crops and the cost of liming soil to increase productiveness over a period of years, are capital expenditures.

Losses incurred in the operation of farms as business enterprises are deductible from gross income. If livestock has been purchased for any purpose, and afterwards dies from disease, exposure or injury or is killed by order of the authorities of a State or the United States, the actual purchase price of such livestock, less any depreciation allowable as a deduction in respect of such perished livestock, may be deducted as a loss if the loss is not compensated for by insurance or otherwise.

If gross income is ascertained by the use of inventories, no deduction can be taken separately for livestock or products lost during the year.

SHIRT SLEEVES AND WHITE DRESSES 52 YEARS AGO

Breckenridge—Speaking of the springlike January weather, Louis Gewalt, pioneer merchant, recalls the weather of 1888. He states on January 1 of that year the men were out in shirt sleeves and the women wore their white summer dresses and carried parasols. To make the day a real summer one, there was a baseball game played at Island Park.

FARM SECURITY TO COOPERATE IN WAR PRODUCTION

Will Aid Farmers In Area to Achieve Goals Set for Farm Output

The Farm Security Administration's loaning program is being directed toward the immediate expansion of dairy, hog, poultry, feed crop, and garden enterprises to aid FSA borrowers and other farmers in meeting increased war production quotas, H. W. Thelander, county FSA supervisor, said today.

The supervisor stated that some months ago changes were made in our agricultural policy and increased production was asked. Since our country has entered the war, it will undoubtedly become necessary to set new and larger goals for many agricultural products. FSA is working closely with the AAA and county war boards on increased production plans.

"In line with this policy," Mr. Thelander added, "every effort will be made to finance farmers who are unable to secure credit from other sources. Loan funds will be made available for the purchase of cows, hogs, poultry, seed, feed, and any equipment or supplies necessary to place their farms on this higher production basis. In certain cases, FSA will help provide suitable shelter for poultry, dairy cattle, or hogs through use of temporary shelters remodeling of present structures. These loans can be made for a period of one to five years at low interest rates.

"Children of any farm family who are members of 4-H, FFA, or similar clubs may obtain loans for the purchase of livestock, feed, garden fences, and the various other needs of their project work."

Interested farm families in this county should contact Mr. Thelander in the Farm Security Office which is located across the street from the post-office at Thief River Falls, Minnesota.

New "Safety" Lines Put on 6,031 Miles of State Highways During 1941

Centerline and no-passing markings were placed on 6,031 miles of Minnesota state trunk highways during the 1941 season, the state highway department reported this week. Because of traffic war or resurfacing operations, 1,002 miles of these routes had to be remarked, that is, marked twice during the season. The season's striping operations represent an increase of 38% over the marking performed in 1940.

Painting the life-saving centerlines and hazard zone markings required 20,605 gallons of paint, of which 6,210 gallons were the yellow paint used to mark "no-passing" zone hazards, principally on hills and curves. In all, 6,531 such hazards were marked with the yellow stripe which, paralleling the centerline, forbids the driver on that side of the road to pass any other vehicle until the hazard line on his side of the centerline ends.

Unusual difficulties were encountered during the past summer because of abnormally rainy weather and also because of difficulty in procuring centerline paint, but unexpectedly favorable weather in November made it possible for the Highway department to complete a major portion of the striping which had been programmed for 1941.

COUNCIL AC[illegible] ON VARIETY OF CITY AFFAIRS

Awards Contract for City Printing to the Times Tuesday Night

L. BJORKMAN AGAIN NAMED ON PARK BOARD

City Recreation Board Gets $100 to Finance Halloween Parties

The city council at its February session Tuesday evening acted on numerous items of civic business, including the award of the contract for city printing to the Thief River Falls Times and the designation of the Northern State bank and Union State bank as city depositories.

Morris Bye appeared in behalf of the city recreation board to endorse the WPA recreation project, which provides arena caretakers, swimming pool lifeguards and leadership in other activities. The council approved his request for an appropriation of $350, the same as last year, to provide the sponsors' share of the project.

Also approved was the request for an additional $100 to pay expenses in connection with the annual Halloween parties, heretofore financed by private agencies. It was pointed out that the reduced destruction of property on Halloween as a result of the parties more than offset their cost.

The council confirmed the reappointment by Mayor H. W. Kinghorn of Lawrence Bjorkman to the park board for a five-year term and of Alfred Bredeson to the cemetery commission.

City Clerk P. G. Pederson read a petition objecting to the huge accumulation of scrap iron on the Charles Fiterman property on Atlantic av. at Ninth st., and also objecting to skunk odors originating in the premises. City Attorney Theodore Quale was instructed to serve notice of Mr. Fiterman to clean up the property.

A total of 34 city cigaret licenses were approved at the meeting, making a total of 48 acted on to date. Action also was taken to advertise for six uniforms for members of the police department. At the suggestion of Mayor Kinghorn, Fire Chief Leonard Hanson was authorized to attend a meeting of the state defense council in St. Paul Wednesday.
